national literary prominence There are the early years under her father's stern tutelage the first scandalous failed romance which cost her her job as a schoolteacher her apprenticeship at Enrakuken the coffee shop of the literary elite whose ranks she later joined as a resident of the Magome Literati Village her series of passionate and troubled relationships and marriages Throughout Dr Copeland focuses on the evolution of Uno's art and discusses her major works paying special attention to the effect being female had on Uno's development as a writer The three stories in Part Two are examples of Uno's work at its finest The Puppet Maker 1942 a much admired reflection on art and life describes an encounter with a venerable carver of puppets The Sound of the Wind 1969 is the tale of a wife at the turn of the century who willingly denies her own needs This Powder Box 1966 shows a progressive career woman coming to terms with an old love affair At once compelling and lyrical the stories are a masterful interpretation of tradition of women and of self fulfillment The Sound of the Wind The Life and Works of Uno Chiyo will engage both specialists and general readers interested in twentieth century Japan literature and women's issues
