Samuel Sebastian Wesley Border Lines Series:

Samuel Sebastian Wesley Donald Hunt, 1990 Philip Wilson Steer Ysanne Holt, 1992 Philip Wilson Steer 1860 1942 spent his childhood and youth at Whitchurch near Ross on Wye just three miles from the English Welsh border and studied at the Gloucester College of Art He was at the centre of much controversy in the British art world at the end of the nineteenth century and was a prime mover in the adoption of French Impressionist techniques during that period Although much criticised for this role Steer taught at the Slade for many years and was a friend of Sargent Sickert and other influential artists Eventually his stunning landscapes caught the mood of loss and of Englishness in the inter war years and he became one of the most popular and admired artists in Britain This timely study of Steer the first for twenty years explores his importance to British art and charts the influence of the Impressionists Turner Constable and Gainsborough on his work It is also a fascinating story of how a modest and unassuming man devoted himself to art even in the face of increasing blindness and became a leader of opinion through his painting Ysanne Holt lectures on the History of Art at the Newcastle College of Art and Design and at the University of Northumbria at Newcastle She is an authority on twentieth century British art especially at the Slade school Margiad Evans Ceridwen Lloyd-Morgan, 1998 Novelist essayist poet and writer of short stories Margiad Evans was one of the most remarkable women writers of the mid twentieth century In this the fullest study to date Ceridwen Lloyd Morgan draws on Margiad Evans s extensive personal and literary archives to offer a sympathetic and well balanced criticism of this important writer Catalogue Sotheby, Wilkinson & Hodge, 1917 W.H. Davies Lawrence Normand, 2003 This fascinating study of the life and work of W H Davies a nature poet and seeker of social justice focuses on themes of ethics sex creativity national identity and class and English society Following Davies from his lowly circumstances in Newport to his move to America where he lived as a hobo and back to England where he became a man of letters this telling biography demonstrates Davies s remarkable journey in life as well as his evolution as a writer His emergence on the poetry scene is compared to the rise of the Georgian Poets and his championing by Edward Thomas is examined Also included are details on his pivotal volume Young Emma which chronicled his marriage to a 20 year old prostitute Bibliographic Guide to Music New York Public Library. Music Division, 1994 Raymond Williams Tony Pinkney, 1991 Raymond Williams 1921 1988 was one of the most original and influential thinkers of the post war period Many know him for his work on mass culture and his left wing literary criticism yet he is also the author of six novels set in his native Welsh border country This area was central to all of Williams work and it seems likely that his novels meant more to him than his other writing This is the first critical study of the novels Border Country Second Generation The Fight for Manod The Volunteers Loyalties and People of the Black Mountains In it Tony Pinkney sees the novels as the battleground of political and cultural forces particularly modernism realism and postmodernism In these books he contends Williams found a way to dramatise the pressures which society bears upon us and the ways in which we might alter that society His close reading of the novels is an invaluable guide to them and to their author A Biographical Dictionary of 18th Century Methodism: R-Smi Samuel J. Rogal,1998 Presents biographical sketches of all those in any way associated with John and Charles Wesley during the 50 plus years that they travelled throughout Britain USA the European continent and the American Colonies Entries are arranged alphabetically followed by biographical information A Biographical Dictionary of 18th Century Methodism Samuel J. Rogal,1997 Presenting biographical sketches of all those connected with John and Charles Wesley during the 50 years that they travelled throughout Britain USA the European continent and the American Colonies Entries are arranged alphabetically followed by biographical information Edward Elgar John Allison,1994 Edward Elgar was for many years the most popular composer in Britain his music was and remains inextricably linked with the final glorious years of the Empire Yet Elgar himself was almost entirely untypical of the British Establishment Born a shopkeeper's son part of an active Catholic family and community Elgar struggled for many years against the prejudices his background raised in music circles Ironically composition for the Anglican Church was an important early platform for Elgar and it is through the sacred music that this pioneering study approaches his life and work It traces the development of a composer whose work was criticised for its Catholic overtones yet who was knighted and the recipient of numerous professorships John Allison weaves biography composition and religion as never before to produce a necessary and illuminating new work In addition to surveying the sacred music much of it for the first time he gives an invaluable listing of the works their scoring and first production John Allison is the assistant editor of Opera magazine and contributes music criticism to the Financial Times
