Santa Claus Gerry Bowler,2011-07-27 An entertaining often surprising look at the life of the world s most influential fictional character He is the embodiment of charity and generosity a creation of mythology a tool of clever capitalists The very idea of him is enduring and powerful Santa Claus was born in early nineteenth century America but his family tree goes back seven hundred years to Saint Nicholas patron saint of children Intervening generations were shaggy and strange whip wielding menaces to naughty boys and girls Yet as the raucous outdoor alcohol fuelled holiday gave way to a more domestic sentimental model a new kind of gift bringer was called for a loveable elf still judgmental but far less threatening In this engaging social and cultural history Gerry Bowler examines the place of Santa Claus in history literature advertising and art He traces his metamorphosis from a beardless youth into a red suited peddler He reveals the lesser known aspects of the gift bringer s life Santa s involvement with social and political causes of all stripes he enlisted on the Union side in the American Civil War his starring role in the movies and as adman for gun makers and insurance companies And he demolishes the myths surrounding Santa Claus and Coca Cola Santa Claus A Biography will stand as the classic work on the long lived and multifarious Mr Claus

The Isaiah Vision Raymond Fung,2009-09-01 The Isaiah Vision presents an ecumenical strategy for congregation based evangelism Behind it lies the conviction that the task of witnessing for Jesus Christ to individual people and to neighborhood communities is in the final analysis the responsibility of the local congregation It draws upon the experiences of congregations in many places and a variety of situations and is in that sense truly ecumenical Going beyond ideas and concepts it addresses concrete methods for their implementation and what it commends is thus a clear ecumenical evangelistic strategy That strategy is based on Isaiah s vision of the restored community in which both the young and the old find fulfillment and fill out their days and people do not labor in vain but enjoy the work of their hands
