Sensation And Perception In The History Of Experimental Psychology:

Sensation and Perception in the History of Experimental Psychology Edwin Garrigues Boring,1942 Sensation and Perception in the History of Experimental Psychology by Edwin G. Boring Edwin Garrigues Boring,1942

Garrigues, Sensation and Perception in the History of Experimental Psychology Edwin Boring,1942 Sensation & Perception in History of Experimental Psychology eg boring,1942 Music, Sensation, and Sensuality Linda Phyllis Austern,2013-10-11 Divided into three sections Linda Phyllis Austern collects eighteen cross disciplinary essays written by some of the most important names in the field to look at this stimulating topic The first section focuses on the cultural and scientific ways in which music and the sense of hearing work directly on the mind and body Part Two investigates how music works on the socially constructed representational or sexualized body as a means of healing beautifying and maintaining a balance between the mental and physical Finally the book explores the action of music as it is heard and sensed by wider social units such as the body politic mass communication from print to sound recording and broadcast technologies

Diversification and Professionalization in Psychology Csaba Pléh,2023-12-18 Diversification and Professionalization in Psychology offers readers a multicentric perspective on the history of social science and compares the developments in psychology in relation to the developments made in the other social and natural sciences This is the second volume about the formation of modern psychology and provides a comprehensive look into the origins and developments of modern psychology With a large geographical coverage European developments are put into their own context in their own time In doing this the book explores different early schools from social reductionists like Durkheim Charles Blondel and Maurice Halbwachs to the social debates about relativism in L vy Bruhl early Piaget the beginnings of ethology and the semiotic approach of Karl B hler These thinkers are placed in relation to the recent upsurge of different social and biological theories of the mind Throughout the author develops a detailed presentation of the thematic development of psychology and links the history of psychology to an outline of contemporary psychology This is an invaluable introductory text for undergraduate students of the history of psychology and will also appeal to postgraduates academics and anyone interested in psychology or the history of science It will also be of interest to graduate students of psychology biology sociology and anthropology with a theoretical interest in the history of the field The Philosophy of Human Nature George Klubertanz,2022-10-18 No realistic philosophy can be considered complete unless it includes a philosophy of nature The philosophy of human nature is an area where most of the problems of the philosophy of nature occur some of them in a crucial form Moreover the philosophy of human nature is an absolute prerequisite for a philosophically grounded ethics Clearly then a knowledge of the philosophy of St Thomas Aquinas requires a study of the philosophy of human nature What Is the Present? Michael North,2025-06-17 A provocative new look at concepts of the present their connection to ideas about time and their effect on literature art and culture The problem of the present what it is and what it means is one that has vexed generations of thinkers and artists Because modernity places so much value on the present many critics argue that people today spend far too much time in the here and now but how can we tell without first knowing what the here and now actually is What Is the Present takes a provocative new look at this moment in time that remains a mystery even though it is always with us Michael North tackles puzzles that have preoccupied philosophy neuroscience psychology history and aesthetic theory and examines the complex role of the present in painting fiction and film He engages with a range of thinkers from Aristotle and Augustine to William James and Henri Bergson He draws illuminating examples from artists such as Fra Angelico and Richard McGuire filmmakers like D W Griffith and Christopher Nolan and novelists such as Elizabeth Bowen and Willa Cather North offers a critical analysis of previous models of the present from the experiential present to the historical period we call the contemporary He argues that the present is not a cosmological or experiential fact but a metaphor a figurative relationship with the whole of time Presenting an entirely new conception of the temporal mystery Georg Lukacs called the unexplained instant What Is the Present explores how the arts have traditionally represented the present and also how artists have offered radical alternatives to that tradition

A History of Experimental Psychology Edwin Garrigues Boring,1929 William James Gerald Eugene Myers,2001-01-01 This magisterial book is the first comprehensive interpretive and critical study of one of America's foremost philosophers and psychologists Gerald Myers traces James's life and career and then uses this fresh biographical information to illuminate his writings and ideas
