Sensibility And Creation Studies In Twentieth Century French Poetry:

Sensibility and Creation, 2025      Sensibility and Creation Roger Cardinal, 2025-05-01 Sensibility and Creation 1977 comprises a dozen critical studies by different contributors on a selection of major French poets of the twentieth century. These range from poets of long established reputation such as Paul Valéry, Pierre Reverdy, Saint John Perse and Paul Eluard to contemporary poets such as Yves Bonnefoy and Jacques Dupin. The guiding theme is that of the characteristic sensibility which informs the creative work of each poet, the way he has of selecting and patterning the elements which make up the world he inhabits and which in a sense he is also creating. In some instances the poetry is examined for its selective textures and shapes and in others the critical focus is more closely directed to the linguistic and stylistic strategies adopted by the writer.

Twentieth-Century French Poetry Hugues Azérad, Peter Collier, 2010-05-20 Modern French poetry is unique in the boldness and creativity of its experiments in form and genre, from classical verse to vers libre, from calligrammes to prose poems and poésies sonores. This anthology includes 32 poems by French and francophone poets, each followed by an accessibly written detailed commentary. The different approaches adopted in the close readings by specialists in their field reflect the major trends in current literary criticism and theory. A foreword by one of France's foremost poets, Yves Bonnefoy, a general introduction and an afterword provide a helpful theoretical framework for the study of modern poetry. An extensive bibliography, concise biographies of the poets and a glossary of literary terms are included. Students of French and of comparative literature will gain a deeper understanding of the development of French verse and of the artistic movements, especially in the visual arts, which have shaped twentieth-century French poetry.

The Cambridge Companion to Modern French Culture Nicholas Hewitt, 2003-09-11 France entered the twentieth century as a powerful European and colonial nation. In the course of the century, her role changed dramatically: in the first fifty years, two World Wars and economic decline removed its status as a world power, whilst the immediate post-war era was marked by wars of independence in its colonies. Yet at the same time, in the second half of the century, France entered a period of unprecedented growth and social transformation. Throughout the century and into the new millennium, France retained its former international reputation as a centre for cultural excellence and innovation, and its culture, together with that of the Francophone world, reflected the increased richness and diversity of the period. This 2003 Companion explores this vibrant culture and includes chapters on history, language, literature, thought, theatre, architecture, visual culture, film and music, and discusses the contributions of popular culture, Francophone culture, minorities and women.

Myth and the Sacred in the Poetry of Guillevic Stella Harvey, 2023-11-20 The sacred occupies a central place in the poetry of Guillevic who described himself as a matérialiste religieux. This study, informed by anthropological and psychoanalytical thought, examines the evolution of this aspect of his oeuvre from Terraqu (1942) through to the poet's last works and focuses in particular on the relation between the sacred and the mother figure. A semiotic approach is used for close textual analysis of key poems. Guillevic's poetic endeavour is conceived as an archaeological quest whereby the presence of the archaic within the domain of the real is disclosed and mythical patterns emerge. The re-enactment of the cosmogony, the performance of ritual and the process of mourning, all crucial to poetic creativity itself, are identified as motivating forces through which the poet seeks reparation of the mother. This study will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as to teachers of French literature and will provide a useful introduction to those who may be unfamiliar with the unique voice of this major 20th century poet.

Provisionality and the Poem Emma Wagstaff, 2006. Much poetic writing in France in the post 1945 period is set in an elemental landscape and expressed through an impersonal poetic voice. It is therefore often seen as primarily spatial and cut off from human concerns. This study of three poets, André du Bouchet, Philippe Jaccottet and Bernard Noël, who have not been compared before, argues that space is inseparable from time in their work, which is always in transition. The different ways in which the provisional operates in their writing show the wide range of forms that modern poetry can take: an insistence on the figure of the interval, hesitant movement or exuberant impulse. As well as examining the imaginative universes of the poets through close attention to the texts, this book considers the important contribution they have made in their prose writing to our understanding of the visual arts and poetry translation in themselves, transitional activities. It argues that these writers have in different ways succeeded in creating poetic worlds that attest to close and constantly changing contact with the real. Emma Wagstaff teaches French literature at Trinity College, Cambridge.
