Sensing Beauty Aesthetics The Human Spirit And The Church:

Sensing Beauty John Dykstra Eusden, John H. Westerhoff, 1998 The authors present a view of aesthetics and Christianity that is an alternative to movements of post modernity Going beyond philosophical conundrums their work probes what aesthetics reveals about beauty and truth and how it affects the human spirit and the church Sensing Sacred Jennifer Baldwin, 2016-08-30 Sensing Sacred is an edited volume that explores the critical intersection of religion and body through the religious lens of practical theology with an emphasis on sensation as the embodied means in which human beings know themselves others and the divine in the world The manuscript argues that all human interaction and practice including religious praxis engages body through at least one of the human senses touch smell hearing taste sight kinestics proprioception Unfortunately body and more specifically and ironically sensation is eclipsed in contemporary academic scholarship that is inherently bent toward the realm of theory and ideas This is unfortunate because it neglects bodies physical or communal as the repository and generator of culturally conditioned ideas and theory It is ironic because all knowledge transmission minimally requires several senses including sight touch and hearing Sensing Sacred is organized into two parts The first section devotes a chapter to each human sense as an avenue of accessing religious experience while the second section explores religious practices as they specifically focus on one or more senses The overarching aim of the volume is to explicitly highlight each sense and utilize the theoretical lenses of practical theology to bring to vivid life the connections between essential sensation and religious thinking and practice Arts Ministry Michael J. Bauer, 2013-08-22 First United Methodist Church in Augusta Georgia gives concerts to raise money for local service organizations Trinity Lutheran Church in Mission Kansas has been sponsoring a religious art show for more than twenty five years Fellowship Lutheran Church runs a Christian arts camp for young people every summer These are just three of the eighteen case studies of practicing arts ministries in this book in which Michael Bauer encourages the nurture and support of all the creative gifts of God's people Bauer lays a solid foundation for arts ministry grounding it in the historic Christian tradition and urging churches to expand their engagement with the creative arts to live and worship in full color as he puts it A concluding chapter clearly lays out how to develop an arts ministry helping readers to take these ideas from theory to practice to embrace and celebrate the continuing creative activity of God in the church Toward a Theology of Beauty Jo Ann Davidson, 2008 Over the centuries theological studies have grappled with the comprehension of Truth and Goodness However theology unlike philosophy has neglected serious scrutiny of the study of Beauty or Aesthetics Jo Ann Davidson's Toward a Theology of Beauty investigates this omission Taught by God: Teaching And spiritual Formation , The history of the Christian spiritual life suggests that those who truly teach the spiritual life have been themselves taught by God The phrase taught by God occurs in Christian writings across several centuries This book draws on the teachers and teaching models that animate Christian history bringing it into conversation with the issues and concerns of contemporary teachers and learners who seek to follow Christ The authors contend that the various strands of the Christian spiritual and mystical tradition provide continuing guidance for Christian teachers in the cultivation of their own spiritual lives and the lives of their students They order this book around four aspects of Christian educational ministries the identity of the teacher contexts in which we teach models for teaching and evaluation of teaching Readers are invited to look at the world of teaching through multiple sides of a prism refracting differently with each effort drawing the eye toward a variety of subtle nuance and inviting varied interpretations of the subject we see Each chapter focuses on particular spiritual teachers Francis de Sales Catherine of Siena S ren Kierkegaard practices monastic rules spiritual direction examination of conscience and images pilgrimage imitation apprenticeship as exemplars of or frameworks for teaching and spiritual formation in the church today

Teaching Through the Storm Karen Hale Hankins,2003-01-01 In this beautifully written narrative a first grade teacher takes us into her classroom during an emotionally stormy year Ride the storm with Hankins as she struggles to address the pressing emotional needs of her disparate students while also meeting their need for literacy development Teaching as a Sacramental Act Mary Elizabeth Moore,2004-11-01 Moore asserts that Christian vocation and the teaching vocation in particular can be best understood as sacramental mediating the grace of God through ordinary creation for the sanctification of human life and the well being of all creation She develops her argument through three important factors a historical theological analysis of the Christian sacraments and sacramentality a phenomenological study of teaching events and a description of six sacramental movements and corresponding teaching practices informed by Jewish Christian traditions and Eucharistic practices The nine detailed chapters include Searching for the Sacred Sacred Teaching Education as Sacrament Expecting the Unexpected Remembering the Dismembered Seeking Reversals Giving Thanks Nourishing Life Reconstructing Community and Repairing the World and Mapping the Future of Sacramental Teaching Teaching as a Sacramental Act is ideal for students pastors Christian educators spiritual directors and pastoral caregivers who want to rethink and reshape the teaching ministry of the church Will Our Children Have Faith? John H. Westerhoff,2012-08-01 This classic critique of Christian education is revised expanded and includes Westerhoff s overview on the state Christian education over the past forty years According to Westerhoff instead of guiding faith formation within the family the church and the school we relegate religious education to Sunday morning classes There children learn the facts about religion but how will they learn or experience faith How can we nourish and nurture the faith of children instead of only teaching the facts The Publishers Weekly ,1998 Cumulated Index to the Books ,1999
