Singapore J. David Day,1986 Arc of Containment Wen-Qing Ngoei,2019-05-15 Arc of Containment recasts the history of American empire in Southeast and East Asia from World War II through the end of American intervention in Vietnam Setting aside the classic story of anxiety about falling dominoes Wen Qing Ngoei articulates a new regional history premised on strong security and sure containment guaranteed by Anglo American cooperation Ngoei argues that anticommunist nationalism in Southeast Asia intersected with preexisting local antipathy toward China and the Chinese diaspora to usher the region from European dominated colonialism to US hegemony Central to this revisionary strategic assessment is the place of British power and the effects of direct neocolonial military might and less overt cultural influences based on decades of colonial rule as well as the considerable influence of Southeast Asian actors upon Anglo American imperial strategy throughout the post war period Arc of Containment demonstrates that American failure in Vietnam had less long term consequences than widely believed because British pro West nationalism had been firmly entrenched twenty plus years earlier In effect Ngoei argues the Cold War in Southeast Asia was but one violent chapter in the continuous history of western imperialism in the region in the twentieth century Ferment in the Far East, an Historical Interpretation

Norling,1963 Future U.S. Transportation Needs ,1963 Japans Blitzkrieg Bernard Edwards,2006-08-30 Early on the morning of 7 December 1941 360 Japanese carrier borne aircraft made a surprise attack on the US naval base at Pearl Harbor and laid waste to the American Far East Fleet They sank four battleships crippled three cruisers and three destroyers and seriously damaged two other battleships One hundred and sixty four planes were destroyed and 2 403 servicemen and civilians were killed All for the loss of twenty nine Japanese aircraft and fifty five men Two days later the British battleships Prince of Wales and Repulse were sunk by Japanese torpedo bombers as they raced north to intercept an enemy invasion force heading for Malaya In these two bold forays the Japanese had successfully emasculated Allied naval power in the East There now remained no big guns afloat anywhere in the Pacific and Indian oceans capable of opposing Admiral Yamamoto s ships So began Japan s blitzkrieg The Malay peninsular was rapidly overwhelmed Hong Kong surrendered on Christmas Day Manila went the same way on the 31st and on 15 February 1942 in one of the most ignominious defeats in modern warfare 85 000 British troops laid down their arms and the vital base of Singapore was in Japanese hands Thereafter the rays of the Rising Sun spread ever outwards overrunning island after island until even Australia was threatened The book tells how the Dutch Spice Islands Java and Sumatra became a last refuge for those fleeing before the Japanese whirlwind advance and it was from here that the remaining Allied merchant ships in the area made their bid for freedom carrying hundreds of refugees For many of these ships it was to be their last voyage
