The Gospel of Matthew Donald Senior, 2011-12-01 Biblical texts create worlds of meaning and invite readers to enter them When readers enter such textual worlds which are often strange and complex they are confronted with theological claims With this in mind the purpose of the Interpreting Biblical Texts series is to help dedicated students in their experience of reading and interpreting by providing guides for their journeys into textual worlds The controlling perspective is expressed in the operative word of the title interpreting The primary focus of the series is not so much on the world behind the texts or out of which the texts have arisen as on the worlds created by the texts in their engagement with readers In this volume Donald Senior provides an up to date introduction to the Gospel of Matthew The seven chapters of Part One focus on modern biblical scholarship and the interpretation of Matthew discussing the sources and structure of the Gospel its use of the Old Testament its understanding of Jewish Law its setting as a part of the mission of Christianity to the Gentiles its Christology its understanding of the nature of discipleship and the community from which the Gospel originated The six chapters of Part Two provide a structured guide to reading and interpreting Matthew's Gospel
