Paley, 1999-10-07 The interrelationship of the ideas of apocalypse and millennium is a dominant concern of British Romanticism The Book of Revelation provides a model of history in which apocalypse is followed by millennium but in their various ways the major Romantic poets Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Byron Keats and Shelley question and even at times undermine the possibility of a successful secularization of this model No matter how confidently the sequence of apocalypse and millennium seems to be affirmed in some of the major works of the period the issue is always in doubt the fear that millennium may not ensue emerges as a significant if often repressed theme in the great works of the period Related to it is the tension in Romantic poetry between conflicting models of history itself history as teleology developing towards end time and millennium and history as purposeless cycle This subject matter is traced through a selection of works by the major poets partly through an exposition of their underlying intellectual traditions and partly through a close examination of the poems themselves The Old Testament Richard S. Hess, 2016-11-15 A Respected Scholar Introduces Students to the Discipline of Old Testament Studies Richard Hess a trusted scholar of the Old Testament and the ancient Near East offers a substantial introduction to the Old Testament that is accessibly written and informed by the latest biblical scholarship Hess summarizes the contents of the Old Testament introduces the academic study of the discipline and helps readers understand the complex world of critical and interpretive issues addressing major concerns in the critical interpretation of each Old Testament book and key texts This volume provides a fulsome treatment for students preparing for ministry and assumes no prior knowledge of the Old Testament Readers will learn how each book of the Old Testament was understood by its first readers how it advances the larger message of the whole Bible and what its message contributes to Christian belief and the Christian community Twenty maps ninety photos sidebars and recommendations for further study add to the book's usefulness for students Resources for professors are available through Baker Academic's Textbook eSources At Millennium's End Kevin Alexander Boon, 2001-03-29 Collected essays by noted scholars covering the breadth and influence of Kurt Vonnegut's literature

The Prose Poem, 1999

Turkish Nomad Jayne L. Warner, 2017-11-13

Here Jayne L. Warner has created a unique biographical tapestry that illuminates not only the life of one of Turkey's leading literary and cultural authorities but also the emergence of a republic in his native country and sheds new light on the history of one of the world's great cities. Sumptuously illustrated throughout with evocative period pictures of Istanbul, Turkish Nomad tells the extraordinary life story of this poet, thinker, and diplomat. As a young boy, Halman surveyed the last vestiges of the Ottoman Empire, walked through the ruins of Byzantium, and grew up in the modern nation created by the charismatic Mustafa Kemal Atatürk. Talat S. Halman would go on to serve the republic as its first minister of culture. The more than four decades Halman lived primarily in the United States are not overlooked but are used to discuss how his ideas developed as he taught at leading universities: Princeton, Columbia, New York University, and introduced Americans to Turkish literature and culture through his translations and public lectures. We follow the literary, scholastic, and journalistic journey of a restless writer who might best be described by the title of one of his books, The Turkish Muse, his 2006 collection of literary reviews tracing the development of Turkish literature during the Turkish Republic.

Living with Concepts Andrew Brandel, Marco Motta, 2021-06-15

This volume examines an often taken-for-granted concept: that of the concept itself. How do we picture what concepts are, what they do, how they arise in the course of everyday life? Challenging conventional approaches that treat concepts as mere tools at our disposal for analysis or as straightforwardly equivalent to signs to be deciphered, the anthropologists and philosophers in this volume turn instead to the ways concepts are already intrinsically embedded in our forms of life and how they constitute the very substrate of our existence as humans who lead lives in language. Attending to our ordinary lives with concepts requires not an ascent from the rough ground of reality into the skies of theory but rather acceptance of the fact that thinking is congenital to living with and through concepts. The volume offers a critical and timely intervention into both contemporary philosophy and anthropological theory by unsettling the distinction between thought and reality that continues to be too often assumed and showing how the supposed need to grasp reality may be replaced by an acknowledgement that we are in its grip.

Nightingales and Pleasure Gardens Talat S. Halman, Jayne L. Warner, 2005-07-05

The earliest Turkish verses dating from the sixth century A.D. were love lyrics. Since then, love has dominated the Turks' poetic modes and moods: pre-Islamic Ottoman classical folk modern This collection covers love lyrics from all periods of Turkish poetry It is the first anthology of its kind in English The translations faithful to the originals possess a special freshness in style and sensibility Here are lyrics from pre Islamic Central Asia passages from epics mystical ecstasies of such eminent thirteenth century figures as Rumi and Yunus Emre classical poems of the Ottoman Empire including S leyman the Magnificent and women court poets lilting folk poems and the work of the legendary communist Nazim Hikmet who is arguably Turkey s most famous poet internationally and the greatest living Turkish poet Fazil H sn Daglarca The verses in this collection are true to the Turkish spirit as well as universal in their appeal They show how Turks praise and satirize love how they see it as a poetic experience Poetry was for many centuries the premier Turkish genre and love its predominant theme Some of the best expressions produced by Turkish poets over a period of fifteen centuries can be found in this volume The Transformative Humanities Mikhail Epstein,2012-09-13

Distinguished scholar Mikhail Epstein offers a re assessment of the role of the humanities and advocates their constructive potential for the society and intellectual culture of the future In his famous classification of the sciences Francis Bacon not only catalogued those branches of knowledge that already existed in his time but also anticipated the new disciplines he believed would emerge in the future the desirable sciences In this open access publication Mikhail Epstein echoes in part Bacon s vision and outlines the desirable disciplines and methodologies that may emerge in the humanities in response to the new realities of the twenty first century Are the humanities a purely scholarly field or should they have some active constructive supplement We know that technology serves as the practical extension of the natural sciences and politics as the extension of the social sciences Both technology and politics are designed to transform what their respective disciplines study objectively The Transformative Humanities A Manifesto addresses the question Is there any activity in the humanities that would correspond to the transformative status of technology and politics It argues that we need a practical branch of the humanities which functions similarly to technology and politics but is specific to the cultural domain The ebook editions of this book are available open access under a CC BY NC ND 4 0 license on bloomsburycollections.com The Best of the

Prose Poem Peter Johnson,2000 Since its inception in 1992 The Prose Poem has published work which even the writers themselves cannot define without restoring the metaphor Russell Edson likens prose poems to cast iron aeroplanes that can actually fly while Charles Simic states that writing them is like trying to catch a fly in a dark room The fly probably isn t even there You keep tripping over and bumping into things in hot pursuit Nonetheless Johnson knows a prose poem when he reads one Better still he recognises a good one and has included many of them here A Companion to African Literatures
