Yanos,2025-04-15 Ward s Island in the East River sits just a short distance from Manhattan Queens and the Bronx yet it has been cordoned off from the rest of New York City For nearly two centuries it has been treated as a dumping ground for society s most marginalized the unhoused recent immigrants and people diagnosed with mental illnesses Even today its two psychiatric hospitals homeless shelters and residential substance use treatment program house more than one thousand people but these institutions are fenced off from the athletic fields and green space of the adjoining Randall's Island Park. Exiles in New York City shares untold stories from Ward's Island offering a new lens on the city's past and present from the perspective of the marginalized. Philip T. Yanos, a clinical psychologist who grew up on Ward's Island, explores the history of the island alongside the history of urban mental health systems in the United States. Drawing on archival documents and interviews with current residents and staff while weaving in recollections of his own childhood, he traces how the island became a place of exile and brings to life the failings of the approach to mental illness that it represents. This incisive and timely book reveals a part of New York City that has long been hidden in plain sight and it also considers how to transform Ward's Island for a new era. The Sum of It All Lewis E. Lehrman, 2023-11-14 Lewis E. Lehrman's biography recounts a purposeful life of accomplishments. He was instrumental early on in building up the family business Rite Aid. Later, he formed a successful investment business, joined Morgan Stanley, and founded a hedge fund. To further his passion for study, he founded the Lehrman Institute and, with Richard Gilder, the Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History, receiving the National Humanities Medal in 2005 for their groundbreaking work in history. Lehrman endowed the Lincoln Prize, partnered with Monticello, and created the Gilder Lehrman Center for the Study of Slavery, Resistance, and Abolition at Yale. His significant collection of historical documents and artifacts is housed on the ground floor of the New York Historical Society. Also a political conservative who worked at the grassroots level to promote ideas and issues, he ran for governor of New York against Mario Cuomo, went on to work with and challenge the Reagan administration, and then formed Citizens for America. Filled with interviews, remembrances, quotes, and photographs of the many influential personalities, partners, and associates, Lew has worked with throughout his life; they best testify to his significance. The sometimes unexpected choices Lew has made and delivered on sum up an exemplary life, wide, deep, and well-lived. It's his story told the way he wants it to be recorded. Public Works Appropriations for 1958 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations.
