My Pride And Joy:

Pride And Joy Terri Casey, 2011-08-02 Pride and Joy The Lives and Passions of Women Without Children is a collection of interviews with 25 women who have chosen not to have children. In lively stories and vivid voices these diverse narrators talk proudly of their contributions to their communities, causes, and families, and they speak joyfully of intimate relationships with husbands and partners, family and friends, work, volunteer and leisure activities, solitude, and connections with children. Their stories dispel the social myth that women must have children to be happy, and they debunk the stereotypes of childless women. For the 20 percent of U.S. women who are currently childless by choice or by chance, Pride and Joy offers validation and community. For the millions of women deciding whether to have children, it provides inspiration. For parents, siblings, and friends of women who have chosen or may choose not to have children, it offers insight. Motown in Love Herb

Jordan, 2006. Presents the complete lyrics to over one hundred Motown love songs grouped into such categories as lessons of love, the joy of love, and love lost, and including "I'll Be There," "My Girl," and "Please Mr. Postman." A Chance of a Lifetime

Marilyn Pappano, 2015-06-30 Sometimes love finds you when you least expect it. To Benita Ford Tallgrass, Oklahoma, will always be home. It's where her beloved grandmother raised her, and where she rode bikes with her two best friends, the man who became her husband, and Calvin. And Tallgrass is where she stayed even after her husband died while serving his country. Now Calvin is home from that same war, and the sensitive mischievous boy she once knew is today a man scarred by wounds no one else can see. Falling in love with him is something Bennie never imagined. Tallgrass still haunts Captain Calvin. Sweet. Yet it's where he must go to see Bennie, the one woman he always loved but could never have. Calvin regrets so much about what happened years ago. Still, he can't deny being with Bennie makes his future feel bright like anything is possible. But the demons of his past won't be quieted that easily. As old hurts linger, threatening to pull them apart, Calvin and Bennie must take the ultimate risk for the love of a lifetime. Voices of American Homemakers Eleanor Arnold, 1993. Voices of American is a book about women, family values, and making a life in rural America in the first half of this century. It distills some 200 oral histories collected from 37 states, organized around the essential rites and functions of life: growing up, education, courtship, marriage, child rearing, the homemaker, and her work, the organizations that supported her, and her sense of self.

All Kinds of Humor Frank Verano, 2012-10. For a starter, let's face it: I made it to 94 years, and frankly, that is an achievement that dwarfs anything else I can say about my long life so far, and I ain't through yet. If I were to point to the most significant event of my life, I would have to say that I was a witness to a critical event in American history and perhaps in world history: the devastating attack on our Navy at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. The rest of my life was somewhat nondescript in the overall scheme of things in this world. I was born just like everyone else in Holland, Michigan, way back a good 200 years ago. I was a musician from the start, playing the harmonica at 10 years old. Also later, the ukulele, mandolin, Hawaiian guitar, orchestral guitar, and marimba. My first performance was with the harmonica before my 8th grade class.

Later on as a teenager I played in an orchestra and performed at dances night clubs and church events Currently I duo on the classical guitar with my flute player playing occasional concerts Now that I think of it I was pretty good Being a small 109 pound guy I joined the Navy in 1940 so as to not get drafted WW2 was already raging in Europe I had to enlist for 6 years That put me in WW2 from the beginning to the end and then some Hey I also performed on the guitar in the Navy aboard ship between naval battles Upon discharge in 1946 I joined with my high school buddy to get the first printed circuit patent I am really proud of that because printed circuits are in everything that s electronic And we started it It was particularly smart of me because 40 years later I needed the printed circuit in my pacemaker Such foresight At the same time I entered college at MIT Our patent royalties helped pay for tuition As long as I am being proud I may as well include graduating from that top technical school in the country which is pretty good for a son of an immigrant from Italy From thereon my engineering career included teaching at Cal Poly in San Luis Obispo lecturing at USC and work in computers and programming But of course most of my work was in the Defense industry Now in retirement I am doing things I like to do play music and write Looking back I think that getting an engineering degree was a big mistake I should have been a gigolo Look at what I missed Alas it is too late

An Orphan in New York City Seymour Siegel,2000-08-14 An Orphan in New York City is about survival During the Great Depression families who suffered loss of income loss of health and loss of life sought frantically for ways to survive Social Security Housing and Urban Development Public Assistance and Public Health programs available today were limited or non-existent back then All extended family members helped out as much as they could When this was not enough the only choice was to break up the family Benevolent Jews had established orphanages to care for children left homeless or in poverty The largest of these orphanages was the Hebrew Orphan Asylum better known as the HOA or The Home located between 136th to 138th Streets on Amsterdam Avenue across from the Lewisohn Stadium of the City College of New York City From 1929 to 1939 the HOA housed more than one thousand boys and girls at a time The Hebrew Orphan Asylum was referred to as a city within a city as it was basically self contained Not only where there the essentials of residential life dormitories a kitchen a dining room an infirmary a dental clinic and a laundry but also a public school 192 a synagogue and a religious school Then too there were a bakery a shoe shop a tailor shop a barber shop a clothing store a candy store a woodworking room a sewing room a photography studio and darkroom a boys scout room a band room a choir room athletic fields and playgrounds There was a Reception House the Main Building the Warner Brothers Gymnasium state of the art at that time and buildings for boilers for heating It had its own transportation system and a fire engine There were military bands and drill squads fraternities and sororities as well as baseball basketball and football teams that competed with other orphanages and the junior varsity at City College Orphans half orphans and children from broken families began their shared institutional lives at the Reception House where they were isolated for two weeks to assure they did not bring any contagious disease or illness into the institution The author was one of those with a family destroyed by alcoholism and poverty who had to leave his family at the age of nine and begin an orphan s life He writes Having seen from my top floor perch in the Reception House children who were playing on the huge field below and having listened to the marching band and watched the military drills I was looking forward to moving to the Main Building But when I finally got there I felt lost in the labyrinth of hallways and doorways and among the masses of children who were coming and going Outside in the courtyard were more than 100 children talking shouting and playing together One of my first memories there is of hearing a short rotund man suddenly shout above that babble of voices All Steeeeeeeeeeeel All Still What that meant only became clear when as I watched most of the children froze in their places and stopped talking One child did not freeze The man with the powerful voice strode over to him and slapped him so hard across the face that the child fell down In the years that I would be in the orphanage that and similar examples made me obey the All Still and always appear to be following commands rules and regulations even when I wasn t obeying What I witnessed there day after day also reinforced my hopeless and helpless feeling that there were immense forces beyond my control my father s rage my separation my placement in an institutional environment and the subsequent abuse in that environment I wept within myself and there was no adult at the institution to comfort me not the first day nor the last For his own healing Dr Siegel has written a book about his decade during the depression years in the Hebrew Orphan Asylum The Big Guitar Chord Songbook: Blues Wise Publications,2008-01-03 A collection of 86 classic blues songs from the 20s through to the present day featuring pivotal songs by the leading artists that defined the genre All the songs have been arranged in the original keys from the actual recordings including guitar chord boxes and complete lyrics Roxbury Redemption Dr. Earle Williams,2012-04-18 This is the story of a life well lived but with difficulties along the way Dr Williams tells how he overcame challenges and found a meaningful and fulfilling life with perseverance and the grace of God With the aid of three great religions Catholic Baptist and the Nation of Islam he was placed on a trajectory of success As a child his mother was told he was mentally retarded After starting high school at the age of 12 and the only Black in all of his classes for four years he was told any college that accepts you is hard up His father told him he was too stupid to finish high school and that he should quit and get a job Then as a 21 year old recently discharged Air Force veteran he discovered his mother had been killed by a hit and run white male driver Enraged he embarked on a life of crime for two years until arrested and sentenced to Walpole Maximum Security Penitentiary in Massachusetts When released he enrolled in college and 15 years later received his doctorate degree in Clinical Psychology In the tradition of when you get to where you re going don t forget where you ve been he tells the story how he and perhaps others released from prison can turn their lives around Now as a Forensic Clinical Psychologist in private practice and assistant professor at Hampton University he tells you there s plenty of room at the top it s just those darn bottoms that are so crowded Kilty-Boy Kevin Barry,2011-07-26 These are the recollections seen through the eyes of a young Irish boy growing up in Notting Hill and Chelsea in the 1950s and 1960s with its trials and tribulations However great joy poignancy humour and sadness that shines through from an era now long gone It is a living testament to the love courage and fortitude of the human spirit which can always come shining through in any trial or indeed any tribulation
