New Face Of Evangelism An International Symposium On The Lausanne Covenant:

The New Face of Evangelism René Padilla, 1976 The New Face of Evangelicalism C. René Padilla, 1976 The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote, Lacey C. Warner, 2008-02-13 Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission. Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands-on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection. Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice. Helpfully organized into six categories, these broad, diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism. Theology of Mission John Howard Yoder, 2013-12-05 John Howard Yoder, author of The Politics of Jesus, was best known for his writing on Christian pacifism. This volume, based on lectures recorded in 1973, shows he was a profound missiologist as well. Yoder weaves together biblical, theological, practical, and interreligious reflections to think about mission beyond Christendom. The New Global Mission Samuel Escobar, 2013-04-23 Veteran missiologist Samuel Escobar explores the new realities of our globalized world, assesses the context of a changing mission field, sets forth a thoroughly biblical theology of missions, and considers implications for how Christians are to go about the task of global mission. The Westminster Handbook to Evangelical Theology Roger E. Olson, 2004-01-01 The Westminster Handbook to Evangelical Theology is a comprehensive critical survey of the main persons, events, controversies, concepts, and institutions of twentieth-century evangelical theology. It will introduce readers to and be a reference work for the study of evangelicalism's distinctive theological vision in its unity and diversity. Roger Olson explores evangelical theology through five lenses: The Story of Evangelical Theology, Movements and Organizations Related to Evangelical Theology, Key Figures in Evangelical Theology, Traditional Doctrines in Evangelical Theology, and Issues in Evangelical Theology. The Westminster Handbook to Christian Theology series provides a set of resources for the study of historic and contemporary theological movements and Christian theologians. These books are intended to help students and scholars find concise and accurate treatments of important theological terms. The SCM Press A-Z of Evangelical Theology Roger E. Olson, 2005 The SCM Press A-Z of Evangelical Theology is a comprehensive critical survey of the main persons, events, controversies, concepts, and institutions of twentieth-century evangelical theology. It will introduce readers to and be a reference work for the study of evangelicalism's distinctive theological vision in its unity and diversity. Olson explores evangelical theology through five lenses: The Story of Evangelical Theology, Movements and Organizations Related to Evangelical Theology, Key Figures in Evangelical Theology, Traditional Doctrines in Evangelical Theology, and Issues in Evangelical Theology. Here is a unique, compact narrative description of the origins, rise, and significance of evangelical theology today. About the Author: Roger E. Olson is Professor of Theology at George W. Truett Theological Seminary, Baylor University, USA. Transformation After Lausanne Al Tizon, 2008 Lausanne 74 inspired evangelicals around the world to take seriously the full implications of the Gospel for mission This was especially true of a worldwide network of radical evangelical mission theologians and practitioners whose post Lausanne reflections found harbour in the notion of Mission as Transformation This missiology integrated evangelism and social concern like no other and it lifted up theological voices coming from the Two Thirds World to places of prominence This book documents the definitive gatherings theological tensions and social forces within and without evangelicalism that led up to Mission as Transformation And it does so through a global local grid that points the way toward greater holistic mission in the 21st century

Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today s ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH s case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH s ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e g congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH s social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH s hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God s presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH s nature mission and place
