Nuevas Perspectivas De Los Estudios De Traducción:

Nuevas perspectivas de los estudios de traducción José-María Bravo, 2002 Medical Brochure as a Textual Genre Goretti Faya Ornia, 2016-02-08 This book studies the text genre of medical brochures in the United Kingdom and Spain for two main reasons firstly to determine the features that these texts present in each country and secondly to check if medical brochures published in Spain and translated from Spanish into English include all relevant features typical of original English texts It begins by defining the terms genre class and type and relating them to medical brochures After referring to text type a related term is explained text typology This leads to the discussion of several specialised typologies and the presentation of a new proposal of typology in which the position of the genre of medical brochures is determined In order to perform a contrastive study of medical brochures in English and in Spanish the book defines what constitutes a linguistic corpus comments on different types of corpora and presents its own version of classification in which the corpus used for the study is located Finally the results obtained from the contrastive analysis are presented and analysed the features observed in the original brochures English and Spanish are shown and the results are contrasted with those found in the translated brochures Lexicography, Terminology, and Translation Lynne Bowker, 2006-09-28 This volume in honour of Ingrid Meyer is a tribute to her work in the interrelated fields of lexicography terminology and translation One key thing shared by these fields is that they all deal with text Accordingly the essays in this collection are united by the fact that they too are all text based in some way In the majority of essays electronic corpora serve as the textual basis for investigations Chapters focusing on electronic corpora include a description of a tool that can be used to help build specialized corpora in a semi automatic fashion corpus based investigations of terminological knowledge patterns terminological implantation lexicographic information and translation solutions comparisons of corpora to conventional resources such as dictionaries and analyses of corpus processing tools such as translation memory systems In several essays notably those dealing with historical or literary documents the texts in question are specific manuscripts that have been studied with a view to learning more about lexicographic and translation practice The volume is rounded out with a chapter on audiovisual translation that takes a non conventional view of text where text includes film Published in English

Convergencia mediática: nuevos escenarios, nuevas perspectivas , 2023-07-19 Experiencias De Traducción/ Experiences of Translation Isabel García Izquierdo, 2005 What is the translation profession like How can you get into the job market What range of activities must translators cover How many languages do they need to be fluent in The significant contributions included in this book bridge the gap between theory and practice and offer new suggestions for analysing translation activity Parallel Corpora for Contrastive and Translation Studies Irene Doval, M. Teresa Sánchez Nieto, 2019-03-20 This volume assesses the state of the art of parallel corpus research as a whole reporting on advances in both recent developments of parallel corpora with some particular references to comparable corpora as well and in ways of exploiting them for a variety of purposes The first part of the book is devoted to new roles that parallel corpora can and should assume in translation studies and in contrastive linguistics to the usefulness and usability of parallel corpora and to advances in parallel corpus alignment annotation and retrieval There follows an up to date presentation of a number of parallel corpus projects currently being carried out in Europe some of them multimodal with certain chapters illustrating case studies developed on the basis of the corpora at hand In most of these chapters attention is paid to specific technical issues of corpus building The third part of the book reflects on specific applications and on the creation of bilingual resources from parallel corpora This volume will be welcomed by scholars postgraduate and PhD students in the fields of contrastive linguistics translation studies lexicography language teaching and learning machine translation and natural language processing

El tema de la violencia es connatural a la historia de América Latina y por lo mismo resulta inagotable en cualquiera de sus múltiples manifestaciones materiales y simbólicas desde los orígenes coloniales hasta la actualidad. A nivel continental la praxis y el discurso de la violencia pueden perseguirse desde la penetración de la depredación colonizadora con que América Latina es inscrita en el desarrollo cultural de Occidente hasta llegar a las más recientes y sutiles formas asumidas por la violencia de Estado pasando por las instancias de imposición de modelos culturales y económicos que en las distintas pocas impactaron radicalmente las culturas criollas y vernáculas. América Latina ha sufrido históricamente las consecuencias de una violencia fundacional que la condenará a una posición periférica con respecto a sistemas globales cuyos centros han difundido en sus correspondientes áreas de influencia la racionalidad de su propia reproducción cultural política y económica. De esta manera la trama social que resultara de la matriz colonialista registró desde el comienzo las huellas imborrables de la violencia que se manifestará tanto a nivel racial como económico tanto en lo referido a las políticas de género como en lo relacionado con la distribución geocultural del poder en todos sus niveles. Las dolorosas repúblicas hispanoamericanas de que hablara Martí se han debatido desde entonces contra las formas naturalizadas de la violencia de la exclusión y el autoritarismo, la miseria interna y la depredación imperialista, la penetración cultural, las intervenciones políticas siempre amparadas en la retórica legitimadora que las clases dominantes esgrimieron en cada caso para perpetuar su poder. El presente volumen que compila trabajos que fueran presentados y discutidos en la Segunda Conferencia Internacional de Estudios Culturales Latinoamericanos que se llevara a cabo en la Universidad de Pittsburgh en marzo del año 2000 tiene como foco principal una articulación específica en torno al tema de la violencia contemporánea, la que analiza los cruces y formas específicas en que la violencia se manifiesta teniendo como escenario principal los centros urbanos de América Latina y las modalidades a partir de las cuales el fenómeno de la violencia es recogido y re-presentado por los medios de comunicación de masas tanto como por la cultura popular, el arte, la literatura y otras formas de discurso, letras y la alta cultura. The theme of violence is natural to the history of Latin America and therefore it is endless in any of its multiple material and symbolic manifestations from its colonial origins to the present. At a continental level the praxis and discourse of violence can be traced back to the spread of the colonising voracity that conditioned Latin America within the cultural development of the West followed by the most recent and subtle forms assumed by state violence including the instances of imposition of cultural and economic models that at the different times radically impacted the Creole and vernacular cultures. Thus Latin America has historically suffered the consequences of a founding violence which condemned it to a peripheral position in relation to global systems which centres have spread in their corresponding areas of influence the rationality of their own cultural political and economic replication. In this way the social fabric resulting from the colonialist matrix has recorded from the beginning the indelible traces of violence that are displayed both at racial and economic levels both in terms of gender policies and in terms of the geocultural distribution of power at all levels. The painful Spanish American republics of which Martí spoke have since fought against the normalisation of the violence of exclusion and authoritarianism the internal misery and imperialistic greed the cultural colonisation and political actions always condoned by a legitimising rhetoric that the ruling classes wielded in every instance to perpetuate their power. This volume which compiles papers that were presented and discussed at the Second International Conference on Latin American Cultural Studies to be held at the University of Pittsburgh in March 2000 has as its main focus a specific articulation around the topic of contemporary violence it analyses the intersections and specific ways in which violence presents itself in the urban centres of Latin America as its main scenario and the modalities from which the phenomenon of violence is recorded and represented by the mass media as well as popular culture art literature and other forms of literary discourse and high culture.

Circulation, Translation and Reception Across Borders Elio Baldi, Cecilia Schwartz, 2023-12-15

This volume offers a detailed analysis of selected cases in the reception translation and artistic reinterpretation of Italo Calvino's Invisible Cities 1972 around the world. The book traces the many different ways in which Calvino's modern classic has been read translated and adapted in Brazil France the Netherlands and Flanders Mexico Romania Scandinavia the USSR China Poland Japan and Australia. It also offers analyses of the relation between Calvino's book and respectively the East and Africa as well as reflections on the book's inspiration for and resonance in dance architecture and art. The volume thus traces the diversity in the reception and circulation of Invisible Cities in different countries and continents offering a much wider framework for the discussion of Calvino's masterpiece than before and a more detailed picture of its cultural and linguistic ramifications. This book will be of interest to scholars in Comparative Literature World Literature Translation Studies Italian Studies Romance Languages European Studies Dance Architecture and Media Studies as well as to scholars specialised in paratext and reception.

Refracciones Annette Keilhauer, Andrea Pagni, 2017. Este libro ofrece un aporte innovador a la reflexión sobre la incidencia del género negro en los procesos traductivos en distintos momentos de la historia de la traducción literaria en Francia España y las Américas. El concepto de refracción remite a la interacción del género negro con otros factores sociales y culturales a lo largo del proceso de traducción. Desde la historia cultural la traductología los estudios literarios y la lingüística se focalizan las condiciones históricas de la actividad traductora las estrategias editoriales y el acto mismo de la traducción literaria en su interacción con el género

Panorama actual del estudio y la enseñanza de discursos especializados Maria-José Varela Salinas, 2009 El vertiginoso progreso de las diferentes ciencias en las últimas décadas ha propiciado una creciente especialización que ha influido también en la forma de transmitir esos conocimientos De ahí que resulte de gran interés para las disciplinas lingüísticas estudiar los lenguajes especializados Este volumen es una contribución a la enseñanza y el estudio de los discursos especializados Se trata de trabajos que aportan bien de forma directa bien como punto de partida teóricas propuestas para avanzar en la didáctica de los lenguajes de especialidad presentando nuevos enfoques que a la vez suponen un muestrario del panorama actual de las investigaciones en este campo Precisamente este es el espíritu con el que cierra el tomo es el que quieren fomentar los trabajos presentados con la intención de motivar a trabajar en pro de una enseñanza de calidad en todas las ramas que estudian y enseñan discursos especializados
