Nursing Homes More Can Be Done To Protect Residents From:

Nursing Homes Leslie G. Aronovitz, 2002-10 The 15 million elderly disabled individuals residing in nursing homes are a vulnerable population. Concerns with inadequate care involving malnutrition, dehydration, other forms of neglect have contributed to mounting scrutiny from state and federal authorities. There is also growing concern that some residents are abused, pushed, slapped, beaten, otherwise assaulted by the individuals to whom their care has been entrusted. This report determines whether allegations of abuse are reported promptly to local law enforcement. State survey agencies assess the extent to which abusers are prosecuted; the impediments to successful prosecutions; evaluates whether sufficient safeguards exist to protect residents from abusive individuals. Dicken, 2010-02 Americans receive care from tens of thousands of health care facilities participating in Medicare and Medicaid. To ensure the quality of care, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) contracts with states to conduct periodic surveys and complaint investigations. The auditor evaluated survey funding, state workloads, and federal oversight of states' use of funds since FY 2000 to determine if federal funding had kept pace with the changing workload. He analyzed 1) federal funding trends from FY 2000 through 2007 and CMS's methodology for determining states' allocations and spending; 2) CMS data on the number of participating facilities and completed state surveys; and 3) CMS oversight of state spending. Includes recommendations. Where did our sense of determination go? Our political, journalistic, and cultural leaders have mounted a campaign to oppose and impede the war on terror that seemed so vital in that rare moment of clarity This book is my personal cri du coeur about deception in politics journalism and business especially when it stops us from following through on the work 9 11 has left for us all to do This book takes on some pretty sacred cows but it s about time they became fair game from the Introduction Are you appalled by the antiwar tone the news media has taken since the war on terror began especially objective news outlets like the New York Times and the network news Are you wondering when liberal celebrities like Barbara Streisand Sean Penn and Susan Sarandon suddenly became geopolitical oracles whose advice we re supposed to value above the wisdom of tenured experts Are you at a loss to decide who has betrayed us more outrageously the French who abandoned us in our time of need or our own elected officials who tapped our 401 k savings and the tobacco settlement windfall with equal abandon In Off with Their Heads syndicated columnist and Fox News Channel political analyst Dick Morris points an accusing finger at the many ways the public has been lied to and misled pickpocketed and endangered Whether it s Bill Clinton who ignored mounting evidence of impending terrorist catastrophe throughout the 1990s or the members of Congress who quietly sold our democracy down the river in exchange for lifetime incumbency Morris rips the cover off the cowardly and duplicitous figures who have sacrificed America s interests for their own From private corruption to public treachery even longtime political buffs will marvel at the astonishing behavior Morris reveals at every level of society and at how it threatens to compromise the American way of life
