Irvine, 2019-06-27 How are people's ideas about languages, ways of speaking, and expressive styles shaped by their social positions and values? How is difference in language and in social life made and unmade? How and why are some differences persuasive as the basis for action while other differences are ignored or erased? Neither true nor false, ideologies are positioned and partial visions of the world relying on comparison and perspective; they exploit differences in expressive features, linguistic and otherwise, to construct convincing stereotypes of people, spaces, and activities.
