Jeanne Guyon's Interior Faith Jeanne de la Mothe Guyon, 2019-02-04 In seventeenth century France Jeanne Guyon wrote about God I loved him and I burned with his fire because I loved him and I loved him in such a way that I could love only him but in loving him I had no motive save himself She called this the pure love of God Guyon traveled throughout Europe teaching others how to pray and her books became popular bestsellers She expressed her Christian faith that Jesus Christ lives within our interior life As Guyon became increasingly popular the church and state authorities used the power of the Roman Catholic Inquisition and arrested her charging her with heresy Guyon spent nearly ten years incarcerated including five years in the Bastille from 1698 1703 The state authorities judged her innocent After her release she lived in Blois on the Loire River and welcomed visitors from Europe and the New World who talked with her about the Christian faith This is the first English translation of Guyon's Commentary on the Gospel of Luke

MORE INFORMATION One of the most popular and revered spiritual writers of the past half century the British author and Carmelite nun Ruth Burrows writes not as a detached observer of either the Christian journey or the Carmelite tradition but through the lens of her lifetime of lived experience as a contemplative Carmelite nun in the 21st century In the words of emeritus archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams this gives Burrows's understanding of and writings on prayer a very rare degree of honesty and realism making her one of the most challenging and deep exponents in our time of the Carmelite tradition The Gospel Mysticism of Ruth Burrows presents for the first time a thorough synthesis of her thought It is addressed to a wide range of readers first of all to those interested in Burrows's spirituality but also anyone who wants to trace the graced unfolding of the Christian spiritual life For readers just discovering Burrows the book is a helpful roadmap to navigate the ideas she develops through her writings It will have special appeal to anyone interested in exploring Carmelite spirituality In addition to systematically exploring Burrows's thought and writings Australian theologian and author Michelle Jones mines a rich collection of unpublished writings including personal correspondence and live interviews with Ruth Burrows at her Carmelite monastery in the UK The book includes an appendix a full bibliography of Carmelite primary sources with a listing of all the published writings of Ruth Burrows and an extensive and fully linked index

About this book introduces the readers to a brief biography of Burrows and the author and how the book came to be. A conclusion summarizes the book's contents but also invites the reader to explore the possibility of what many consider the greatest need of our time: a mysticism that is not only personal but deeply ecclesial, able to radically transform the church and the world. Reviewers praise The Gospel Mysticism of Ruth Burrows as the most comprehensive readable introduction to Burrows that is presently available, an important contribution to studies on spirituality and mysticism. In this pivotal book, Australian theologian and author Michelle Jones not only presents Ruth Burrows to a wider readership but also provides an important contribution to the academy vis-à-vis the study of spirituality. Jones's book shows why Burrows is one of the most important Carmelite authors in our time and what it means to be a Gospel mystic.

Thomas Merton's Dark Path William H. Shannon, 1987-03-01. In the mystical tradition, the dark or apophatic way has a long history. It is the way of John of the Cross, of Meister Eckhart, of Julian of Norwich, of the anonymous author of The Cloud of Unknowing, and of Thomas Merton. This dark path of contemplation that Merton followed, wrote about extensively, and considered the focal point of his life is the subject of William H. Shannon's book.

Thomas Merton's Paradise Journey Thomas Merton, William H. Shannon, 2010-07-15. A book which traces the development of the thoughts and writings of the 20th-century Cistercian monk Thomas Merton on the subject of contemplation.

I Took You in My Arms Andrea Mardegan, Midwest Theological Forum, 2020-06-26. This is an English translation of Tra le braccia del Padre. The author, Fr. Andrea Mardegan, draws upon the rich spiritual writings of St. Josemaría Escrivá to illustrate how divine filiation, which is the center of the spiritual life and the source of Christian joy, consists of an intimate relationship between each member of the faithful and God the Father through Jesus Christ. In these meditations, the reader is drawn into the contemplation that God is always with him or her, watching over his children with infinite love and mercy. Through prayer, this awareness of divine filiation grows inside, transforming the reader into a child of God in the very image of Christ. St. Josemaría Escrivá was born in Spain in 1902 and was ordained a priest in 1926. In 1928, he received the divine inspiration to found Opus Dei, a Catholic organization of lay people and priests who try to grow close to God through their ordinary lives. St. Josemaría died in 1975 and was canonized by Pope St. John Paul II in 2002.

Redemption That Liberates Wonho

Jung,2018-02-08 This book is for both evangelicals and ecumenicals interested in a holistic approach to the Christian vision of social transformation The author compares Richard Mouw s Reformed political theology and Nam dong Suh s Minjung theology to suggest a vision of transformation that is theologically more cogent and politically more engaged In general Minjung theology understands transformation in terms of political liberation and Reformed theology in terms of spiritual redemption and theologians of the two theologies have criticized the other s approach as theologically inadequate However Suh s formulation of Minjung theology and Mouw s Reformed political theology based on the neo Calvinist worldview show significant affinities with each other in their understanding of transformation in Christ Both Suh and Mouw show a broad understanding of liberation and redemption They develop their theologies in an inclusive both and way of thinking and their holistic approach is contrasted with the exclusive either or way of thinking in the Minjung theology of Byung mu Ahn and the Reformed theology of David VanDrunen The book concludes that redemption in Christ aims at an all encompassing transformation that includes not only spiritual renewal but also liberation from social alienation economic inequality and political oppression Thesaurus Fidelium ,1914 In Conversation with God Francis Fernandez,1988 This is a translation of Hablar con Dios first published by Ediciones Palabra Madrid and by Scepter God and Children Jesus Urteaga,2020-01-01 Fr Urteaga 1921 2009 is a writer who gave exceptional value to the human side of life and its enrichment by an ongoing struggle for virtue Likewise he never lost sight of the importance of grace He addresses parents in their sometimes difficult job of raising children to be not only men and women but Christian saints His modus operandi is that life is truly worthwhile if it is lived for the love of God In these chapters he draws on his own rich experience as a teacher and spiritual director He adds Christian doctrine humor and common sense to make God and Children a book for all parents and especially those of young children Originally printed in 1960 this newly revised and slightly abridged version of Urteaga s book captures the spirit of his advice which is grounded in truth and is timeless in quality An Anthology of Christian Mysticism Harvey D. Egan,1991 A Pueblo book Includes bibliographical references p 610 615 and index The Life of the Vows Thomas Merton,2012-09-01 As novice master of the Cistercian Abbey of Our Lady of Gethsemani in Kentucky Thomas Merton presented weekly conferences to familiarize his charges with the meaning and purpose of the vows they aspired to undertake In this setting he offered a thorough exposition of the theological canonical and above all spiritual dimensions of the vows Merton set the vows firmly in the context of the anthropological moral soteriological and ecclesial dimensions of human Christian and monastic life He addressed such classical themes of Christian morality as the nature of the human person and his acts the importance of justice in relation to the Passion of Christ to friendship and to love and self surrender as the key to grace prayer and the vowed life Merton s words on these topics clearly spring from a committed heart and often flow with the soaring intensity of style that we have come to expect in his more enthusiastic prose The texts of these conferences represent the longest and most systematically organized of any of numerous series of conferences that

Merton presented during the decade of his mastership They may be the most directly pastoral work Merton ever wrote
