Politics And Markets In Wake Of The Asian Crisis:

Politics and Markets in the Wake of the Asian Crisis Mark Beeson, Kanishka Jayasuriya, Hyuk-Rae Kim, Richard Robison, 2003-09-02 This book is a challenging volume by distinguished leading scholars of East Asian political economy it provides a distinct alternative to simplistic accounts of the Asian crisis which generally swing between an emphasis on convergence imposed by global economic forces and the resurrection of the special patterns of East Asian economic governance The authors argue that global forces and domestic structures are engendering new forms of economic and political regulation in East Asia While these signal the death knell of the developmental state this in itself does not presuppose a convergence towards a standard model of global capitalism The arguments in this book will contribute significantly to the construction of a new research agenda for comparative political economy at the dawn of a new century Politics and Markets in the Wake of the Asian Crisis covers a range of East Asian countries including the People's Republic of China South Korea Indonesia Thailand and Malaysia All the studies are linked together by a common endeavour to explore the dynamic interaction between global economic forces and domestic structures The book is at the cutting edge of the study of East Asian political economy and is distinguished by the attention it pays to the regional and international context of the crisis It also contains theoretically sophisticated analyses of organisations such as APEC and the IMF

Politics and Markets in the Wake of the Asian Crisis Mark Beeson, Kanishka Jayasuriya, Hyuk-Rae Kim, Richard Robison, 2003-09-02 The contributors to this book argue vigorously that processes of globalisation are driven by complex political forces and that it is not enough to look at economic factors in isolation

The Politics of International Political Economy Vassilis Fouskas, 2014-08-13 This timely book will explain via a number of thematic and case studies that international economics is not an independent terrain of economic activity reproducing itself throughout history but a complex articulation of social political and culturally determined actions that are inextricably linked Chapters will address the role of dominant global powers in the making of global industrial and monetary relations and in particular ways in which and the degrees to which dominant economic and military powers such as the USA tend to shape the domestic economic environments of lesser powers after their own image Supplementing the chapters will be a comprehensive A Z glossary section which will include key International Political Economy terms e.g. international debt European free trade area International Bank for Reconstruction and Development IMF GATT WTO Foreign exchange fixed exchange rates floating exchange rates reserve currency gold dollar parity multinational corporation preferential trade agreement hedge funds etc Entries will be cross referenced for ease of use This book will be ideal for researchers and students in the areas of politics international relations and international economics as well as for academics economists business people and those with an interest in the workings of international political economy

Power and Politics After Financial Crises J. Robertson, 2007-11-20 Foreign exploitation of economic crises in the developing world has been a central claim of neoliberal critics This important and recurring international theme is the subject of closer scrutiny in this new collection where contributors offer competing interpretations of the interaction between international and domestic forces after crises The New Global Politics of the Asia Pacific Michael K.

Connors,Rémy Davison,Jörn Dosch,2011-07-18 The new fully updated second edition of The New Global Politics of the Asia Pacific builds on its coherent framework for understanding the complex international and global politics of the Asia Pacific The textbook provides an introductory guide for the main frameworks needed to understand the region realism liberalism critical theory which is reader friendly while still offering sophisticated competing interpretations Key content includes the US in the Asia Pacific China and Japan in the Asia Pacific Southeast Asia in the Asia Pacific India in the Asia Pacific Russia in the Asia Pacific Australia in the Asia Pacific Europe in the Asia Pacific globalization regionalism and political economy Asian values democracy and human rights transnational actors region security order and the impact of terrorism on the region A highly topical account which provides an overview of the main actors institutions and contemporary issues such as security terrorism and transnational actors the book is required reading for undergraduate students of Asian studies international politics and anyone interested in the region Diplomacy and Developing Nations Maurice A. East,Justin Robertson,2012-09-10 This volume explores the foreign policy environment facing developing nations and their particular foreign policy making structures and processes By defining foreign policy broadly to incorporate the activities of a range of state actors and non state actors the book broadens the range of analytical frameworks for studying foreign policy making in developing nations Thus the actions of small groups of elites international institutions and transnational networks are seen to be part of foreign policy making as well as the traditional operations of foreign ministries The volume is comprised of an extensive introduction four thematic chapters six country studies and a conclusion that ties together common themes These serve as a useful contribution to the analysis of foreign policy making in developing nations a neglected area in the comparative study of foreign policy Reorganising Power in Indonesia Richard Robison,Vedi R. Hadiz,2004 Reorganising

Power in Indonesia is a new and distinctive analysis of the dramatic fall of Soeharto the last of the great Cold War capitalist dictators and of the struggles that reshape power and wealth in Indonesia The dramatic events of the past two decades are understood essentially in terms of the rise of a complex politico business oligarchy and the ongoing reorganisation of its power through successive crises colonising and expropriating new political and market institutions With the collapse of authoritarian rule the authors propose that the way was left open for this oligarchy to reconstitute its power within society and the institutions of newly democratic Indonesia Satanic Mills or Silicon Islands? Steven C. McKay,2018-09-05 Satanic

Mills or Silicon Islands challenges the myth of globalization s homogenizing power arguing that the uniqueness of place is becoming more not less important Steven McKay documents how multinational firms secure worker control and consent by reaching beyond the high tech factory and into local labor markets He also traces the rise of a new breed of privatized export processing zones revealing the state s in these cases the Philippines revamped role in the wider politics of global production

Finally McKay gives voice to the women workers themselves as they find meaning identity and agency on and beyond the new shop floor This book deftly weaves together three critical strands of global studies Southeast Asia as a key site of global production the organization of work in advanced electronics and working class conditions under globalization Drawing on the author's rich analysis of four multinational electronics firms from their boardrooms to boarding houses Satanic Mills or Silicon Islands makes a unique contribution to the study of work labor and high tech production Facing North Volume 2 David Goldsworthy, Peter Edwards, 2015-03-02 Facing North is the first substantial history of Australia's relations with Asia since Federation Volume 1 2001 chronicles Australian Asian relations from 1901 to the 1970s Volume 2 now carries the story through the last decades of the century Both make extensive use of official government sources and of the private collections of ministers and public servants This volume discusses the changing relations between Australia and Asia in the period from the 1970s to 2000 Over this time integration became a dominant theme as Australia looked increasingly to its near neighbours to form political social and economic alliances An important driving force behind this direction was the economic opportunities presented by Asia At the same time Australia championed the rights of Asian countries to self determination economic development and an independent role in international affairs The book combines the discussion of broad policy themes with detailed analysis of policy making in relation to particular issues such as human rights and episodes such as the crisis in East Timor At home a key concern was the question of difference between Australian and Asian values As Australia began accepting significant numbers of immigrants from the region the country's national identity and the extent to which it identified with Asia became matters of intense debate Australian society itself has changed as a result Facing North is essential reading for anyone who wants to better understand Australia's present relations with Asian countries and our future choices East Asia and the Trials of Neo-Liberalism Kevin Hewison, Richard Robison, 2013-09-13 A much needed examination of the impact of neo liberalism in East Asia in the years since the 1997 to 1998 Asian Economic Crisis These leading contributors tackle the nature of neo liberalism and the forces and institutions driving it With fresh case studies of Indonesia Thailand South Korea Malaysia China and Vietnam showing how domestic elites are critical to the ways in which the neo liberal agenda is manifested modified and rejected They also engage with the key question of why there has been a dramatic restructuring of state and economic power with some elements of domestic elites having been decimated others reinventing themselves while important new elements have been constituted This book was previously published as a special issue of the leading Journal of Development Studies Changing Asian Business Systems Richard Whitley, Xiaoke Zhang, 2016 This book brings together scholars from different disciplines to examine the evolving patterns of economic organisation across China Japan Korea Thailand Myanmar Malaysia and Singapore against the backdrop of market liberalisation political changes and periodic economic crises since the 1990s Market and Society in Korea Dennis McNamara, 2003-09-02 Assessing the roles of capital labour and state McNamara discovers a distinctive style of interest bargaining to bridge uncertainties and foster entrepreneurship The textile industry serves as a microcosm of the broader social changes of the past five decades Dramatic transitions from family firms to professional capitalism from state direction to regulation and from company unions to industry federations take centre stage Moving among executives labour leaders and state officials the author charts development across the crucible of contending interests Stretching from high technology to labour intensive production the textile industry offers a new profile of democratization and market liberalization and recently of globalization and adjustment in the wake of the Asian Financial Crisis The first comprehensive review of the past and present of a leading sector the volume offers a new interpretation of society and market in South Korea Drawing insights from the New Economic Sociology this study sheds new light on social systems of production in the South Korean Miracle Contrasts with Thailand and Japan bring the Korean experience of interest contention into a comparative context of Asian capitalism Market and Society in Korea Dennis L. McNamara, 2002 Assessing the roles of capital labour and state McNamara discovers a distinctive style of interest bargaining to bridge uncertainties and foster entrepreneurship The textile industry serves as a microcosm of the broader social changes of the past five decades Dramatic transitions from family firms to professional capitalism from state direction to regulation and from company unions to industry federations take centre stage Moving among executives labour leaders and state officials the author charts development across the crucible of contending interests Stretching from high technology to labour intensive production the textile industry offers a new profile of democratization and market liberalization and recently of globalization and adjustment in the wake of the Asian Financial Crisis The first comprehensive review of the past and present of a leading sector the volume offers a new interpretation of society and market in South Korea Drawing insights from the New Economic Sociology this study sheds new light on social systems of production in the South Korean Miracle Contrasts with Thailand and Japan bring the Korean experience of interest contention into a comparative context of Asian capitalism Economic Crises and Global Politics in the 20th Century Alexander Nützenadel, Cornelius Torp, 2016-04-08 This book analyses the history of economic crises from the angle of international politics and its transformation throughout the 20th century While political and economic debates in the wake of the present financial crisis are revolving around the question of how to create effective forms of global governance historians have discovered a long tradition of international economic regulation that can be traced back to the late 19th century In the global economy sovereign defaults banking crises and currency crashes have been recurrent phenomena At the same time alongside the growing globalization of commodity and capital markets nation states have introduced new forms of regulation both on the national and international level The experience of economic crises has been an important driver behind numerous initiatives to foster global politics The purpose of the book is to reconnect economic history with the perspectives of political economy and the history of international relations It forms a dialogue between the disciplines that have been increasingly separated throughout the past decades With first rate economic historians and political economists writing for a wider audience it simultaneously makes public debates and methods of recent cutting edge research in economic history within a wider academic community This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History Responses to Regionalism in East Asia Andrew Staples,2008-05-30 In the decade following the Asian financial crisis the East Asian political economy has experienced a radical transformation This book thus investigates the responses of Japanese automotive makers to the processes of regionalism and regionalization by locating firm level analysis in a broader political economy context The Politics of Economic Liberalization in Indonesia Andrew Rosser,2013-07-04 This book examines the dynamics shaping the economic process of economic liberalisation in Indonesia since the mid 1980 s Much writing on the process of economic liberalisation in developing countries views economic liberalisation as the victory of economic rationality over political and social interests In contrast this book argues that economic liberalisation should not be understood in these terms but rather in the way that political social interests shape processes of economic reform in both a positive and negative sense Specifically Rosser argues that economic liberalisation needs to be understood in terms of the extent to which economic crises shift the balance of power and influence within society away from coalitions opposed to reform and towards those in favour of reform In the Indonesian context the main coalitions that need to be examined in this respect are the politico bureaucrats and the conglomerates who have generally opposed reform and mobile capitalists who have generally supported reform Based on extensive original research and providing much new material the book considers the politics of economic policy making in Indonesia in a range of sectors including the capital market intellectual property law the banking industry and the trade and investment sectors Analysing why the nature of economic policy in Indonesia has varied over time this study argues that there is nothing inevitable about a transition to a fully fledged liberal market order in Indonesia and outlines possible future scenarios for the country s political economy Rivalry And Cooperation In The Asia-Pacific: The Dynamics Of A Region In Transition (In 2 Volumes) Mark Beeson,2019-09-23 Rivalry and Cooperation in the Asia Pacific provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to the most important strategic and economic region in the world Asia Pacific is a region that is undergoing a major transformation largely as a consequence of the rise of China and its growing rivalry with the United States Whatever happens in the Asia Pacific will profoundly influence global events not just regional ones Looking ahead the region s future direction and even its name is contested and uncertain This two volume reference work by one of the world s leading analysts of regional affairs places these events in historical context and considers what they may mean for future political economic and strategic relations By focusing on the United States China and the region s most significant middle powers the book explains why and how the Asia Pacific has become the fulcrum of international events Asian States Richard Boyd,Tak-Wing Ngo,2005-01-26 A team of international leading experts provide a much needed re examination of the theoretical claims and the empirical foundation of developmental state theory Asian States argues that regardless of the merits of the developmental state as an explanation of economic growth it falls far short of being an adequate theory of the state in Asia. The contributors critically review claims about agency, state, society and state-market relations that shape developmental projects. It broadens the analysis of state involvement in developmental projects and considers the variety of political and social bases for state projects across East and Southeast Asia in a theoretically sensitive, thematic and empirically rich way.

The Neoliberal Revolution Richard Robison, 2006-03-28. The book examines the rise of the amalgam of economic and political ideas we know as neo-liberalism and how these became the defining orthodoxy of our times. It investigates the inexorable global spread of market economies and how neo-liberal agendas are accommodated or hijacked in collisions with authoritarian states and populist oligarchies.

Korea's Developmental Alliance David Hundt, 2008-10-27. This book investigates the political dynamics of economic development in Korea and argues that the key to understanding Korean developmentalism is to focus on the changing dynamics of the relationship between the state and the chaebols.
