women's literature popular culture and the overall orientation of contemporary Chinese literature The book will be a critical reference for all levels of reader interested in postmodernism critical theory postcolonialism feminism cultural studies comparative and world literature and contemporary Chinese literature and culture A Letter to China Alberto Castelli, 2020 The book is an articles collection dealing with the maze of Chinese postmodernity It is undeniable that the debris of Maoist utopia couples with the overreaching narrative of globalization and the apparent triumph of capitalism The turning point is sociological and it reveals Chinese double obsession the need for conformity cultural homologation expressed by the entertainment industry and the desire to be different cultural diversification expressed in terms of localism revival of neo Confucianism and projects on national minorities However my focus is not on globalization itself what interests me is the global expansion of capital only in terms of structural crisis as represented by art and literature For this reason this articles collection is primarily a cultural study an interdisciplinary research integrating literary criticism philosophical history comparative literature and art theory My purpose is not to question whether China is in a condition of postmodernity but to acknowledge the ambiguity of Chinese postmodernity the overlapping of cultural paradigms where Confucian ethics has to coexist with capitalist economy residual of Maoism socialist relations and individualist philosophy By embracing the whole field of humanities I believe to be able to unfold Chinese cultural leap and the ideological contradiction And that would be China's project of postmodernity Scholars and postgraduate students in the area of human science are the normal audience this text refers to this book will appeal to students and scholars of literature cultural studies aesthetics and modern Chinese culture and ideology However all those interested in contemporary China will find in it an accessible key to decode Chinese postmodernity and bet on its journey Bollywood and Postmodernism Neelam Sidhar Wright, 2015-06-24 Applying postmodern concepts and locating postmodern motifs in key commercial Hindi films this innovative study reveals how Indian cinema has changed in the 21st century Postmodern China Jens Damm, Andreas Steen, 2008 The articles in this volume look at various cultural activities in Postmodern China providing new and rarely discussed insights into different spaces of postmodernism in action The volume highlights postmodernity as a condition of China's reality and everyday life after her entry into the global capitalist system Three fields of research are addressed first the broad area of popular music including performance advertising and performance venues Second postmodernity and literature ranging from novels to poetry from traditional novels to anonymous internet postings and third postmodern aspects related to film and the internet focusing on transnational issues between Taiwan Hong Kong and the PRC China's New Cultural Scene Marie Claire Huot, 2000 Portrays the ongoing revolution in cultural production that has transformed contemporary life in the People's Republic of China On China's Cultural Transformation Keping Yu, 2015-11-24 China's economy and social system has witnessed tremendous transformations since late 1970s So is China's culture Centering on the cultural transformations of China since late 1970s and covering diverse of topics in the field this collection of articles presents a multi dimensional narrative on the

dynamics dilemmas and characteristics involving this giant process Asian Ethical Urbanism: A Radical Postmodern Perspective William Siew Wai Lim, 2005-07-15 With the impending demise of modernist planning the footprints and corpses of failed modernist visions are littered everywhere A vacuum of implementable urban theories has occurred at the time when unprecedented expansion and restructuring of cities in rapidly developing economies are taking place In this collection of essays William S W Lim zeroes in on the peculiarities and dynamics of present Asian urban and architectural conditions in order to challenge and transcend the socio ecological forms and political influences generated by the current system of global capitalism Part I of this book consists of the main essay which attempts to establish baselines for an effective formulation of ethical urbanism in Asia by clarifying issues that have previously been unquestioningly bound up with Western values and discourses As an architect urbanist Lim lends a determinedly spatialist and environmental perspective to issues such as rights ethics happiness and social justice while compelling his readers to rethink previously established notions about them Part II of this book consists of three city studies on Hanoi Shanghai and Singapore completed in the last two years which attempt to match Lim s theoretical formulation with actual conditions occurring in Asia today Also included is Asian Architecture in the New Millennium a fascinating discourse on contemporary design conducted from a postmodern perspective Realistic Revolution Els van Dongen, 2019-06-06 This is a novel transnational exploration of the major Chinese intellectual debates on radicalism in history culture and politics after 1989 Keywords Re-oriented Joachim Gentz, 2009 China's Architecture in a Globalizing World: Between Socialism and the Market Jiawen Han, 2017-12-12 China is currently in the midst of an unprecedented building boom and indeed interest in Chinese contemporary architecture has been fuelled by this huge expansion Through a cutting edge theoretical discussion of Chinese architecture in relation to Chinese modernity this book examines this phenomenon in detail In particular it highlights how changes in the social political system the residual influence of Mao and the demands of the market have each shaped and determined style and form in recent years Using key case studies of Liu Jiakun Cui Kai and URBANUS it analyses the intricate details of historical pressures and practical strategies affecting Chinese architecture In doing so it demonstrates that Chinese architects contribute in specific ways to the international architectural discourse since they are actively engaging with the complex societal transition of contemporary China and managing the dynamics and conflicts arising during the process China s Architecture in a Globalizing World Between Socialism and the Market offers a lens into the innovation and uniqueness of architectural design in China As such this book will be useful for students and scholars of architecture Chinese culture and society and urban studies Contemporary China Review [2024 Spring/Summer Issue] Journal Editors, 2024-07-25 As the Year 2024 has already passed half I sincerely hope and pray for world peace and for people to live and work in peace But looking ahead I believe the future will still not be peaceful The Russian Ukrainian war is still raging and the people are suffering The Israeli Hamas conflict seems to have no signs of stopping and the US election is surging As I said before the three major divisions facing the world are presented at the same time this year the Russian Ukrainian war is a major division between the democratic and dictatorial camps the US election is a major left right division and the Israeli Hamas conflict has surpassed the left right division and the democracy dictatorship division Is the world heading for doomsday We wait and see The Politics of Cultural Capital Julia Lovell,2006-03-31 In the 1980s China s politicians writers and academics began to raise an increasingly urgent question why had a Chinese writer never won a Nobel Prize for literature Promoted to the level of official policy issue and national complex Nobel anxiety generated articles conferences and official delegations to Sweden Exiled writer Gao Xingjian s win in 2000 failed to satisfactorily end the matter and the controversy surrounding the Nobel committee s choice has continued to simmer Julia Lovell s comprehensive study of China s obsession spans the twentieth century and taps directly into the key themes of modern Chinese culture national identity international status and the relationship between intellectuals and politics The intellectual preoccupation with the Nobel literature prize expresses tensions inherent in China s move toward a global culture after the collapse of the Confucian world view at the start of the twentieth century and particularly since China s re entry into the world economy in the post Mao era Attitudes toward the prize reveal the same contradictory mix of admiration resentment and anxiety that intellectuals and writers have long felt toward Western values as they struggled to shape a modern Chinese identity In short the Nobel complex reveals the pressure points in an intellectual community not entirely sure of itself Making use of extensive original research including interviews with leading contemporary Chinese authors and critics The Politics of Cultural Capital is a comprehensive up to date treatment of an issue that cuts to the heart of modern and contemporary Chinese thought and culture It will be essential reading for scholars of modern Chinese literature and culture globalization post colonialism and comparative and world literature
