New Wine, New Wineskins William C. Mattison III, 2005-06-03 New Wine New Wineskins A Next Generation Reflects on Key Issues in Catholic Moral Theology offers a snapshot of how the new generation of Catholic moral theologians understands not only topics in the field but the effects of their own identity and formation on their treatment The Church in the Making Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2006 Vatican II has become a place marker in the ecclesiastical and ideological geography of contemporary Catholicism Yet forty years later few who refer to the council and its teachings whether with approval or criticism demonstrate a solid grasp of those teachings Even fewer are aware of the important debates that have taken place in the past four decades regarding the council's authentic reception and implementation of its documents

The Vision of Vatican II Ormond Rush, 2019-08-26 2020 Catholic Press Association first place award theology theological and philosophical studies This book is unique in the literature about Vatican II From the manifold issues debated at the council and formulated in its sixteen documents Ormond Rush proposes that the salient features of the vision of Vatican II can be captured in twenty four principles He concludes by proposing that these principles can function as criteria for assessing the reception of the conciliar vision over the last five decades and into the future There is no other book that attempts such a comprehensive synthesis of the council's vision for renewal and reform of the Catholic Church Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live

The Eyes of Faith Ormond Rush, 2009 Winner of the 2010 Lynlea Rodger Australia Theological Form ATF Press Theological Book Prize The Eyes of Faith presents a systematic theology of the sense of the faithful sensus fidelium and shows the fundamental and necessary interrelationship between sensus fidelium tradition Scripture theology and the magisterium Ormond Rush provides fresh perspectives on a number of issues He proposes that tradition and Scripture are the products of the sensus fidelium and that the inspiration of Scripture is best understood in terms of the Holy Spirit working through the sensus fidelium In addressing the role of the sensus fidei in the lives of individual believers the book provides a unique approach to the way Christians make sense of their faith within the diverse contexts of daily life It shows how the imaginative capacity of the sensus fidei forms a foundational notion for understanding the diversity of spiritualities inculturations and contextualizations of the Gospel in the history of the church up to the present This ecclesial activity of interpreting the Christ event through the sensus fidelium enables the church to proclaim the Gospel in new times and cultures throughout history The Eyes of Faith proposes that for an effective teaching of the faith to contemporary Christians the distinctive roles of the magisterium and of theology must be conceived primarily in terms of and in relationship to the ecclesial Spirit given capacity of the sensus fidelium

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ormond Rush is lecturer of theology and former president of St Paul's Theological College in Banyo Australia and is president of the Australian Catholic Theological Association He is the author of Still Interpreting Vatican II Some Hermeneutical Principles and The Reception of Doctrine An Appropriation of Hans Robert Jauss Reception Aesthetics and Literary Hermeneutics

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK In addition to its internal argumentation the book's extensive footnotes Scriptural references and Church documents will make it a tremendously valuable tool for advanced researchers in several theological areas including pneumatology ecclesiology Scripture studies and hermeneutics Highly recommended C A Montevecchio Choice Some works of scholarship stand out providing a point of reference and showing the way forward Orm Rush's study is in this class and it is not surprising that its first release by CUA Press is a splendid hardback volume This work makes a significant contribution to Catholic Theology Rev John Thornhill SM The Australasian Catholic Record Rush provides a theologically perceptive panorama of the sensus fidelium at work in the church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit In addition to offering numerous insights usually beneficial and sometimes provocative Rush's study is extraordinarily well researched This volume is an outstandingly creative and comprehensive theological study of the grace of the Holy Spirit acting through the sensus fidelium in the reception of revelation in the church John Ford CSC Theological Studies Rush has here provided us with a sophisticated study of theological hermeneutics as well as a foundational work in ecclesiology Lawrence S Cunningham Commonweal This detailed and well argued book explores the phenomenon of reception in both the Bible and in contemporary Roman Catholic tradition An insightful study for those interested in the newest wave of Roman Catholic dogmatic theology which tends to draw deeply from biblical sources as well as Vatican teaching this book genuinely advances discussions of the doctrine of reception Aaron Klink Religious Studies Review

Charism in the Church Constant Leke Ngolefac,2024-03-01 Charism is a hot contemporary issue The growing interest in the charisms is one of the significant religious developments of our time Opinions on charisms vary to a remarkable degree Unfortunately in some cases diverse viewpoints have led to confusion among Christians On the positive side though this developing interest in charisms has contributed to spiritual renewal and stimulated biblical research in this most important area of the Church s life The exponential growth of the Charismatic Pentecostal Movement throughout the world and especially in Africa urged led to choice of this topic on charisms In the Charismatic Pentecostal Movements the issue of charisms is very vital and extremely important It is at the centre of its spirituality and practice This Movement has spread to almost all major Christian confessions denominations and continues to attract many followers This work is unique among the many studies written on the charisms Even though the subject of charisms has received some scholarly attention most have not delved into the role of the charisms in the Church from Pauline perspective as this study does The following observations and reasons demonstrate that it is still meaningful and worthwhile to study charisms in Pauline letters The Holy Spirit, the Church, and Pneumatological Renewal Jos Moons SJ, 2021-11-15 While belief in God the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit is at the very core of the Christian faith the significance of the Spirit in particular is sometimes overlooked in faith practice and theological reflection resulting in what theologians call Geistvergeessenheit In this context Lumen Gentium one of the most important documents of the Second Vatican Council 1962-1965 is usually praised for its pneumatological renewal The current volume however argues that this renewal is no more than modest The Holy Spirit is still conceived of predominantly as an adjunct to Christ To substantiate that claim Jos Moons has developed a novel method of close reading on the basis of which he compares Lumen gentium's conception of the Spirit to that of Mystici corporis 1943 He also analyses the redaction historical development of the former and concludes with a plea to envisage the Spirit more boldly as actively guiding the church especially by means of the sensus fidelium its charisms and the discernment of spirits

Setting the World on Fire Laura R. DeJmek, 2014-08-19 Laypersons receiving a divine call to preach in the Roman Catholic Church may feel caught between a rock and a hard place both figuratively and ecclesiastically They may feel constrained between the Rock of Peter and the hard place of resistance to the preaching gift they believe they have and their desire to share it At first glance the Roman Catholic Church with its two millennia of Sacred Tradition seemingly offers little that favors the inclusion of lay preachers In addition many lay preachers may experience the bias of clergy and assembly members who unconsciously presume there is no role for laity to preach within the Roman Catholic Church Preaching does not occur solely within liturgical settings or only via pulpit preachers All Dominicans as members of the Order of Preachers are called to embody the Sacra Praedicatio the Sacred Preaching In fact canon law does permit laity to preach in certain liturgical settings Setting the World on Fire details one Roman Catholic woman's experience of her own call to preach the grace and gifts brought to both the preacher and the assembly as well as her desire to help all Dominicans and indeed all Christians embrace their rightful role as preachers
