Stranger's Welcome Steve Reece, 1992-12-31 For more than two millennia Homer's poetry has stirred the imagination of its readers. Originally recited by traveling bards, these poems are exceptionally rich in conventional elements that helped the poets remember works thousands of lines long. As dynamic ingredients of oral poetry, these elements have accrued deep meaning and for a well-informed audience they call significant associations to mind. In The Stranger's Welcome, Steve Reece treats eighteen hospitality scenes in the Iliad, the Odyssey, and the Homeric Hymns and reveals key aspects and standard elements of such scenes. Further, he demonstrates how Homeric listeners might comprehend the new and innovative by relying on their knowledge of the conventional and familiar. This tension between conventional and innovative, between the traditional background and the individual performance, distinguishes the aesthetics of Homeric poetry. Of interest to students and scholars of oral poetry, folklore, Homeric literature, and Greek literature in general, The Stranger's Welcome offers a practical approach whereby a reading audience may understand a hearing one. Engaging with Fathers Brigid Daniel, Julie Taylor, 2001 Fathers are often marginalised or ignored in child protection practice. This reflects an uncertainty within society as a whole about the role of fathers in their children's lives. Engaging with Fathers is a guide for social workers and health visitors on how to broaden their practice to include fathers and stepfathers, whether or not their behaviour is abusive or problematic. The authors' approach is based on theoretical analysis and explores attachment theory, feminism, anti-discriminatory practice, and nursing ideology as they have influenced social work. From this, they provide suggestions on how to assess the potential risks and the potential assets fathers may offer and positive examples of what can be done in child care and health visiting drawn from real practice. They set out a theoretical framework that takes account of the reality of the situations practitioners face, draw up a model for intervention, and demonstrate the implications for practice. Engaging with Fathers is written for the busy professional and avoids jargon. Each chapter contains summaries of the main points, examples of research exercises, key issues to consider, and suggestions for further reading. While developing practice with fathers, it remains firmly focused on what is best for children. Derrida Barry Stocker, 2025-09-25 Ethics in Deconstruction is vital reading for anyone interested in Derrida and the ethical implications of deconstruction broadly defined. It offers a comprehensive set of essays on the ethics of deconstruction and deconstruction as an ethical enterprise. Derrida is the main focus, but essays also look at Sextus Empiricus, Kierkegaard, Heidegger, Arendt, Levinas, Lyotard, Deleuze, and others. This volume broadly defines ethics to include law, justice, politics, religion, and practical reason. The essays explore topics including biopolitics, hospitality, speech, and language, consciousness and affection, animality, democracy, sovereignty, nationality, and nationalism, Enlightenment, poetics, responsibility, economics, decision theory, promises, the institution of ethics, alterity, and otherness. An editor's introduction provides a unifying oversight of the multiplicity of topics, and an editor's afterthought takes the discussion forward with regard to the status of moral law. This volume's contents are distinctive in their wide-ranging coverage of deconstruction, including its boundaries and its others. The reader's assumptions about deconstruction ethics and their contexts will be challenged and renewed This book is essential reading for anyone concerned with the philosophy of Derrida and the ethical possibilities of deconstruction in many forms across themes and disciplines It was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki Golden Rule Robert Hoskins Crozier,1900 *A New Picture of Paris; or, the Stranger's Guide to the French metropolis ...
