National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped,1978 Spa Culture and Literature in England, 1500-1800 Sophie Chiari, Samuel Cuisinier-Delorme, 2021-05-31 This edited collection aims at highlighting the various uses of water in sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth century England while exploring the tensions between those who praised the curative virtues of waters and those who rejected them for their supposedly harmful effects Divided into three balanced sections the collection includes contributions from renowned specialists of early modern culture and literature as well as rising young scholars as it seeks to establish a dialogue between different methodologies and explain why the spa related issues examined still resonate in today's society Medicine-by-Post Wayne Wild, 2016-08-01 Medicine by Post is an interdisciplinary study that will engage readers both in the history of medicine and the eighteenth century novel The correspondence from the large private practices of James Jurin George Cheyne and William Cullen opens a unique window on the doctor patient relationship in England and Scotland from this period The letters many previously unpublished reveal a changing rhetoric that mirrors contemporary shifts in medical theory and the patient s self image Medicine by Post uncovers the strategies of self representation by both healers and patients and reinterprets the meaning of illness and the medical encounter in eighteenth century literature in the light of true life experience. The tension between the patient's personal needs and the doctor's professional will presents a ready metaphor for the novelist depicting the social expectations placed upon the individual as well as a measure of one s moral character in the context of illness The correspondence also demonstrates the subtle changes in rhetoric regarding sensibility reflecting evolving medical speculation It also describes the differing perspectives of the female body between doctors and novelists and the women patients themselves Yet much of this correspondence shows an unexpected blend of metaphor with a realistic and utilitarian approach to therapeutic advice and the patient's own compliance In these letters we discover some genuinely sympathetic doctors Iim Kobak's Kirkus Reviews .1988 Talking Book Topics, 1989 Kirkus Reviews ,1988 Adult books are categorized by genre i e fiction mystery science fiction nonfiction Along with bibliographic information the expected date of publication and the names of literary agents for individual titles are provided Starred reviews serve several functions In the adult section they mark potential bestsellers major promotions book club selections and just very good books in the children s section they denote books of very high quality The unsigned reviews manage to be discerning and sometimes quite critical Kirkus Children's and Young-adult Edition ,1988
