Inspector Morimoto and the Diamond Pendants Timothy Hemion, 2004 This is the second in the series of cases involving Inspector Morimoto and his assistant Officer Suzuki Using the methods of deductive reasoning that they employed so successfully in their earlier case Inspector Morimoto and the Two Umbrellas Morimoto and Suzuki encounter some intriguing puzzles centered around an expensive piece of diamond jewelry If the branch manager of the Metropolitan Trust Bank has been dabbling in burglary during his spare time then an enormous scandal is surely about to break out And how are the wealthy owner of the downtown kimono shop and the no nonsense manager of the Okayama Central Hospital connected to the case Morimoto and Suzuki know that the insurance company is monitoring them closely as they sort through the baffling events And as usual the Chief of Police is very concerned about the reputation of his Police Department particularly since some of the people involved carry considerable influence with the City Council Nevertheless unperturbed by the fact that almost everybody becomes impatient with them for one reason or another Morimoto and Suzuki carefully construct an astonishing theory but with pressure mounting and time running out will they be able to trick the suspects into giving themselves away

Palimpsestic Memory Max Silverman, 2013-02-01 The interconnections between histories and memories of the Holocaust colonialism and extreme violence in post war French and Francophone fiction and film provide the central focus of this book It proposes a new model of palimpsestic memory which the author defines as the condensation of different spatio temporal traces to describe these interconnections and defines the poetics and the politics of this composite form In doing so it is argued that a poetics dependent on tropes and techniques such as metaphor allegory and montage establishes connections across space and time which oblige us to perceive cultural memory not in terms of its singular attachment to a particular event or bound to specific ethno cultural or national communities but as a dynamic process of transfer between different moments of racialized violence and between different cultural communities The structure of the book allows for both the theoretical elaboration of this paradigm for cultural memory and individual case studies of novels and films

Thinking with Animation Joff P. N. Bradley, Catherine Ju-yu Cheng, 2021-08-09 This volume brings together scholars based predominantly in Asia to contribute provocative and experimental essays on the dynamic relationship between animation and philosophy In an inventive and playful philosophical way they address not only the mainstay of Japanese animation but also Korean film picture books and Mickey Mouse to understand what we might call film philosophy in Asia In thinking animation with concepts from the technicolour philosophies of Deleuze Guattari Stiegler Benjamin Kristeva and Heidegger the book sees animation not as a representation of a philosophical idea per se but conceptualizes it as a philosophical thinking device In the images themselves what is at work is not just the thinking of a particular director or manga artist but rather thinking as such through and by the images themselves The scholars in this collection are committed to thinking images themselves as thought experiments and thinking machines
