Karl Baedeker,1895 The Retreat of Reason Ingmar Persson,2005-11-03 One of the main original aims of philosophy was to give us guidance about how to live our lives The ancient Greeks typically assumed that a life led in accordance with reason a rational life would also be the happiest or most fulfilling Ingmar Persson s book resumes this project which has been largely neglected in contemporary philosophy But his conclusions are very different by exploring the irrationality of our attitudes to time our identity and our responsibility Persson shows that the aim of living rationally conflicts not only with the aim of leading the most fulfilling life but also with the moral aim of promoting the maximization and just distribution of fulfilment for all Persson also argues that neither the aim of living rationally nor any of the fulfilmentaims can be rejected as less rational than any other We thus face a dilemma of either having to enter a retreat of reason insulated from everyday attitudes or making reason retreat from its aspiration to be the sole controller of our attitudes The Retreat of Reason explores three areas in which there is a conflict between the rational life and a life dedicated to maximization of fulfilment Persson contends that living rationally requires us to give up first our temporal biases secondly our bias towards ourselves and thirdly our responsibility to the extent that it involves the notion of desert and desert entailing notions But giving up these attitudes is so overwhelmingly hard that the effort to do so not only makesour own lives less fulfilling but also obstructs our efficient pursuit of the moral aim of promoting a maximum of justly distributed fulfilment Ingmar Persson brings back to philosophy the ambition of offering a broad vision of the human condition The Retreat of service in the United States military as a Jewish Chaplain and while on active duty with the United States Air Force I received deployment orders to the Middle East Central Asia and Africa These orders followed the 11 September 2001 attack on the United States In response the United States launched two simultaneous wars one in Iraq termed Operation Iraqi Freedom

The second was termed Operation Enduring Freedom and was in Afghanistan At the time I was given exceptional orders to travel to these two war zones to include the satellite countries which had American and Coalition military forces organize and lead the Jewish personnel and train a Lay Leader for base representation These orders allowed me to travel at will throughout both war zones During this travel which extended from the Marine base in Djibouti in east Africa through the Middle East and Central Asia I saw firsthand the bases personnel and morale of this massive worldwide response to the attacks on 11 September This volume reflects my time while traveling through these theatres of war My time spent in these countries was unique and I recount these experiences in context In addition just a month before retirement I received orders to Guantanamo Bay Cuba for a 10 day period These travels enabled me to see United States military activities from numerous vantage points as well as visit a highly charged and restricted base in the Caribbean This is a special story that reflects my perceptions of the war against terror Jacaranda Humanities Alive 8 Victorian Curriculum, 3e learnON and Print
