Lives of Gay Men draws on the expertise of 12 contributors from different countries and fields writing from an autoethnographic first person approach Putting the power of personal stories at the centre of the construction of sophisticated narratives of gay men s lives the accounts draw attention to the limits of traditional perspectives to gay men s studies that look at gayness through a sexualised lens and explore how gay men make sense of their identity in their everyday lives Together they present a complex nuanced understanding of gayness and challenge the conception of being gay as a sexual orientation because it describes in sexual terms an identity that is not only not always and not predominantly sexual The authors come from a variety of fields including counselling studies and sociology to communication religion and education The innovative approach of The Everyday Lives of Gay Men makes it ideal for students and scholars in gender studies sexuality studies sociology mental health and research methods The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780367676834 has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non

O'Connor, 2025-08-12 Glassblowing by hand might seem like a dying art yet it is thriving Studios and universities offer popular classes and glass art is widely exhibited and sold Amateur and professional glassblowers alike are captivated by the choreography of fire smoke and molten material Why are people drawn to this ancient craft What is distinctive about the social physical and intellectual experience of glassblowing How does the body learn an art In Fire Craft Erin E O Connor interweaves an immersive firsthand account of her experiences learning to blow glass with a sensuous ethnography of embodiment and community among glassblowers Through compelling stories such as her struggle to produce an elegant goblet she shows how a novice becomes hooked by and committed to a craft

Reflecting on embodied knowledge O Connor considers how we negotiate mistakes and failures how we strive to develop proficiency in the face of shortcomings and how through making objects we make meaning She also explores the history of glassblowing and how various social environmental and knowledge frameworks shape the valorization of craft From the furnaces of empire to the hot bodies of collaboration and love O Connor reveals the interconnectedness of the body with the elemental world A gripping tale of the social world and experience of glassblowing Fire Craft passionately defends practical labor as intellectual work that changes self and society

Fifty Years on the Trail John Young Nelson,Harrington O'Reilly,1889 Nick Mount Tony Hanning,2013-03 Nick

Mount is one of the world's leading glass artists. In his sixtieth year he was honoured with a major exhibition in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, as well as the Object Living Treasure Award. This book, written in the style of an extraordinary yarn, is not so much about Nick Mount's achievements as a glass artist as it is about the elements that have shaped his career and continue to inform his work. His philosophy, work ethic, and environment, peers, and family have all been factors in his work and success. Together they form the fabric of his work. Nick Mount has received numerous awards, including the Bavarian State Prize in Germany, an Australia Council Fellowship, and the Arts SA Triennial Project Grant. He acknowledges the honour of being able to work with his hands and has enormous gratitude for a lifetime of assistance from Dr and Mrs G J Mount, Pauline Hugo Peta, and Pip Nick Mount. The Fabric of Work is richly illustrated with photographs of Nick's pieces, including many made recently. These vibrant works range from the extraordinary flamboyant scent bottles to more recent wood and glass fruit pieces that reflect a lush quietude.

The Patricia Potter Western Romance Collection Volume One Patricia Potter, 2018-11-13 Three novels of historical western romance from the USA Today bestselling master storyteller Mary Jo Putney. Relentless: After years of wrongful imprisonment, Maj Rafe Tyler wants revenge against the Colorado rancher who framed him. The first step is taking the rancher's daughter hostage. Now sheltered Boston beauty Shea Randall has a lot to learn about her estranged father's devious past and about forbidden desire. After Relentless, Ms Potter will surely be in a class by herself. Literary Times. Renegade: Widow Susannah Fallon came to Richmond to rescue the only family she has left, now held in a Confederate prison. But the stranger sharing her brother's cell piques her interest too. As Maj Rhys Redding helps Susannah escort her wounded brother across the war-ravaged South, they face inescapable dangers and discover undeniable passion. When a historical romance gets the Potter treatment, the story line is pure action and excitement. BookBrowse. Notorious: The scion of a wealthy Georgia family, turned stone-cold gunslinger, Marsh Canton is reinventing himself again. In taking over a San Francisco saloon, he's met his match in its Derringer-toting proprietress, Catalina Hilliard. But when they submit to outlaw desire, it changes the stakes of their game. Will it redeem them or destroy them? Smart dialogue and constant action. Publishers Weekly.

A Century on New Brunswick's N.W. Miramichi George S. Mumford, 2013-11-27 This is a journal kept by my father of his first trip with my grandfather to the Northwest Miramichi River of Canada's Central New Brunswick in the summer of 1916. I love the camps on the Miramichi for the truly beautiful natural environment for learning to fish and the excitement and wonder of holding a salmon before releasing it back to the river for the camaraderie with new and old friends for a scheduled daily block of free time for the caring camp staff and more. I also gained insights about myself as a learner, had the luxury to observe and experience talented guides as remarkable teachers, and to have the time and opportunity to reflect upon their teaching and my learning. These days were wonderful experiences and tremendous opportunities for me personally, a great vacation.

Mule Hair Mule Hair, 2008-05 Journalist Steve Muehler gets more than he bargained for when he flies to North Dakota to research a little-known cult led by a reclusive figure who calls himself Mule Hair. From the airport, he's taken to the tiny town of Wahpeton and from there to an old opera house that is the hub of Mule Hair's compound. The fully stocked bar with red and white wines, marijuana, and psychedelic mushrooms is a signal of things to come. Then High Priestess Abigail, a stunning woman wearing all black, leads him to Mule Hair, who is looking down at the world from his loft and wearing black leather gloves and a smoking jacket autographed by Hugh Hefner. Mueller has only just begun to take in the eccentricities of Mule Hair and his devoted group of followers. For the next seven weeks, he will participate in a series of dark rituals that includes drugs, autoerotic asphyxiation, the eating of placenta, pot pies, forbidden sex, and much more. Join Mueller as he enters a secretive world. Here, the concern is not so much the journey that Mule Hair and his followers are on; it is how that journey will end. Good Housekeeping, 1904

Through a printed guidebook, the World Wide Web, and weekly radio programs, we serve art collectors and others seeking information about the art and culture of New Mexico. Skiing New Mexico, Daniel Gibson, 2017-09-30 This invaluable book tells you everything there is to know about skiing and snowboarding in the Land of Enchantment, with thousands of helpful details on the state's downhill ski resorts and cross-country and backcountry venues. Each ski area is profiled in a separate chapter, including details on facilities and services such as childcare and instructional options, statistics like average snowfall, vertical drop, and lift capacity, transportation options including shuttle and bus services, and prices of lift tickets, rental equipment, and lessons. Gibson also includes historical facts about each ski area and its founders, suggestions for best runs by type of terrain, activities off the slopes, and notes on his favorite places to stay and eat. Separate chapters on cross-country and backcountry downhill skiing are equally informative. Right Back Where We Started, Joseph F. Kelly, Joseph Kelly, 2003-09 Bobby Darling has a lot of catching up to do. He missed his youth, most of his friends, and some great parties. In fact, he spent the last 20 years in a persistent vegetative state. But Bobby's problems are just getting started. It seems Bobby is on a list of terminally ill patients who have outlived their life expectancies. The insurers, who own the policies on these patients, hope to nudge the process along a bit. If that isn't enough, Bobby's roommate, Anthony, has made it clear he wants to be more than just friends. To free-spirited Bobby, that might be a fate worse than the hitman heading his way. Maybe Bobby should've stayed in that coma. Can two gay men share an apartment without driving each other horny? More than that, they must ask themselves: can we get Right Back Where We Started?
