Identity, Diaspora and Return in American Literature Maria Antònia Oliver-Rotger, 2014-09-19 This volume combines literary analysis and theoretical approaches to mobility diasporic identities and the construction of space to explore the different ways in which the notion of return shapes contemporary ethnic writing such as fiction ethnography memoir and film Through a wide variety of ethnic experiences ranging from the Transatlantic Asian American Latino a and Caribbean alongside their corresponding forms of displacement political exile war trauma and economic migration the essays in this collection connect the intimate experience of the returning subject to multiple locations historical experiences inter subjective relations and cultural interactions They challenge the idea of the narrative of return as a journey back to the untouched roots and home that the ethnic subject left behind Their diacritical approach combines on the one hand a sensitivity to the context and structural elements of modern diaspora and on the other an analysis of the individual psychological processes inherent to the experience of displacement and return such as nostalgia memory and belonging In the narratives of return analyzed in this volume space and identity are never static or easily definable rather they are in process and subject to change as they are always entangled in the historical and inter subjective relations ensuing from displacement and mobility This book will interest students and scholars who wish to further explore the role of American literature within current debates on globalization migration and ethnicity

Cultural Practices and Identity Politics in Manipur Lisham Henthoiba, Laishram Churchill, 2015-01-01 This compendium of ten essays earlier published in the quarterly journal Alternative Perspectives is an attempt to evaluate conventional understanding of identity culture and resistance and at the same time present some key underlying arguments in a comprehensive form This volume consists of three different themes which are closely interrelated The first theme on identity deals with the assertion of discomfort against the politics of homogenising articulation of identity and the oversimplification of gender issues on the pretext of women being a celebrated identity within our constructed sensibilities The chapters on economy as the second theme of this volume examine underdevelopment of Manipur s economy and its ramifications and corelation with the above mentioned issues The essays of the last theme on resistance underscore the forms of protest which are arguably belittled within the purview of the all pervasive armed conflict and its diverse narratives

Senate. Committee on Finance. Subcommittee on Fiscal Responsibility and Economic Growth,2011 Construction of Gender and Identity in Genesis Karalina Matskevich,2019-01-24 Karalina Matskevich examines the structures that map out the construction of gendered and national identities in Genesis 2 3 and 12 36 Matskevich shows how the dominant Subject the androcentric ha adam and the ethnocentric Israel is perceived in relation to and over against the Other represented respectively as female and foreign Using the tools of narratology semiotics and psychoanalysis Matskevich highlights the contradiction inherent in the project of dominance through which the Subject seeks to suppress the transforming power of difference it relies on for its signification Thus in Genesis 2 3 ha adam can only emerge as a complex Subject in possession of knowledge with the help of woman the transforming Other to whom the narrator and Yahweh attributes both the agency and the blame Similarly the narratives of Genesis 12 36 show a conflicted attitude to places of alterity Egypt the fertile and seductive space that threatens annihilation and Haran the mother s land a complex metaphor for the feminine The construction of identity in these narratives largely relies on the symbolic fecundity of the Other
