Artisans of Empire Suraiya Faruqi, 2009-06-23 The manufacture and trade in crafted goods and the men and women who were involved in this industry including metalworkers ceramicists silk weavers fez makers blacksmiths and even barbers lay at the social as well as the economic heart of the Ottoman empire This comprehensive history by leading Ottoman historian Suraiya Faruqi presents the definitive view of the subject from the production and distribution of different craft objects to their use and enjoyment within the community Faruqi sheds new light on all aspects of artisan life setting the concerns of individual craftsmen within the context of the broader cultural themes that connect them to the wider world Combining social cultural economic religious and historical insights this will be the authoritative work on Ottoman artisans and guilds for many years to come A display of unrivalled knowledge of the sources by one of the leading historians of the Ottoman Empire Erik J Zürcher Professor of Turkish Studies at the University of Leiden Child Survivors of the Holocaust in Greece Pothiti Hantzaroula, 2020-11-29 A historical investigation of children's memory of the Holocaust in Greece illustrates that age generation and geographical background shaped postwar Jewish identities The examination of children's narratives deposited in the era of digital archives enables an understanding of the age specific construction of the memory of genocide which shakes established assumptions about the memory of the Holocaust In the context of a global Holocaust memory established through testimony archives the present research constructs a genealogy of the testimonial culture in Greece by framing the rich source of written and oral testimonies in the political discourses and public memory of the aftermath of the Second World War The testimonies of former hidden children and child survivors of concentration camps illuminate the questions that haunted postwar attempts to reconstruct communities related to the specific evolution of genocide in Greece and to the rising anti-Semitism of postwar Greece As an oral history of child survivors of the Holocaust the book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of the history of childhood Jewish studies memory studies and Holocaust and genocide studies Homeless Tongues Monique Balbuena, 2016-07-27 This book examines a group of multicultural Jewish poets to address the issue of multilingualism within a context of minor languages and literatures nationalism and diaspora It introduces three writers working in minor or threatened languages who challenge the usual consensus of Jewish literature Algerian Sadia Levy Israeli Margalit Matitiah and Argentine Juan Gelman Each of them Levy in French and Hebrew Matitiah in Hebrew and Ladino and Gelman in Spanish and Ladino expresses a hybrid or composite Sephardic identity through a strategic choice of competing languages and intertexts Monique R Balbuena's close literary readings of their works which are mostly unknown in the United States are strongly grounded in their social and historical context Her focus on contemporary rather than classic Ladino poetry and her argument for the inclusion of Sephardic production in the canon of Jewish literature make Homeless Tongues a timely and unusual intervention After the War was Over Mark Mazower, 2000-11-12 This volume makes available some of the most exciting research currently underway into

Greek society after Liberation Together its essays map a new social history of Greece in the 1940s and 1950s a period in which the country grappled bloodily with foreign occupation and intense civil conflict Extending innovative historical approaches to Greece the contributors explore how war and civil war affected the family the law and the state They examine how people led their lives as communities and individuals at a time of political polarization in a country on the front line of the Cold War s division of Europe And they advance the ongoing reassessment of what happened in postwar Europe by including regional and village histories and by examining long running issues of nationalism and ethnicity Previously neglected subjects from children and women in the resistance and in prisons to the state use of pageantry yield fresh insights By focusing on episodes such as the problems of Jewish survivors in Salonika memories of the Bulgarian occupation of northern Greece and the controversial arrest of a war criminal these scholars begin to answer persistent questions about war and its repercussions How do people respond to repression How deep are ethnic divisions Which forms of power emerge under a weakened state When forced to choose will parents sacrifice family or ideology How do ordinary people surmount wartime grievances to live together In addition to the editor the contributors are Eleni Haidia Procopis Papastratis Polymeris Voglis Mando Dalianis Tassoula Vervenioti Riki van Boeschoten John Sakkas Lee Sarafis Stathis N Kalyvas Anastasia Karakasidou Bea Lefkowitz Xanthippi Kotzageorgi Zymari Tassos Hadjianastassiou and Susanne Sophia Spiliotis

Jews in the Realm of the Sultans Yaron Ben-Naeh, 2008 Jewish society in the Ottoman Empire has not been the subject of systematic research The seventeenth century is the main object of this study since it was a formative era For Ottoman Jews the Ottoman century constituted an era of gradual acculturation to changing reality parallel to the changing character of the Ottoman state Continuous changes and developments shaped anew the character of this Jewry the core of what would later become known as Sephardi Jewry Yaron Ben Naeh draws from primary and secondary Hebrew Ottoman and European sources the image of Jewish society in the Ottoman Empire In the chapters he leads the reader from the overall urban framework to individual aspects Beginning with the physical environment he moves on to discuss their relationships with the majority society followed by a description and analysis of the congregation its organization and structure and from there to the character of Ottoman Jewish society and its nuclear cell the family Special emphasis is placed throughout the work on the interaction with Muslim society and the resulting acculturation that affected all aspects and all levels of Jewish life in the Empire In this the author challenges the widespread view that sees this community as being stagnant and self segregated as well as the accepted concept of a traditional Jewish society under Islam

The Agony of Greek Jews, 1940-1945 Steven B. Bowman, 2009-10-07 The Agony of Greek Jews tells the story of modern Greek Jewry as it came under the control of the Kingdom of Greece during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries In particular it deals with the vicissitudes of those Jews who held Greek citizenship during the interwar and wartime periods Individual chapters address the participation of Greek and Palestinian Jews in the 1941 fighting with Italy and Germany the roles of Jews in the Greek Resistance aid and rescue attempts and the problems faced by Jews who returned from the camps and the mountains in the aftermath of the German retreat Bowman focuses on the fate of one minority group of Greek citizens during the war and explores various aspects of its relations with the conquerors the conquered and concerned bystanders His book contains new archival material and interviews with survivors It supersedes much of the general literature on the subject of Greek Jewry Loyal Unto Death Keith Brown,2013-04-12 The story of the Macedonian Revolutionary Organization MRO from its rise until the Ilinden Uprising of 1903 a fascinating account PoLAR The underground Macedonian Revolutionary Organization recruited and mobilized over 20 000 supporters to take up arms against the Ottoman Empire between 1893 and 1903 Challenging conventional wisdom about the role of ethnic and national identity in Balkan history Keith Brown focuses on social and cultural mechanisms of loyalty to describe the circuits of trust and terror webs of secret communications and bonds of solidarity that linked migrant workers remote villagers and their leaders in common cause Loyalties were covertly created and maintained through acts of oath taking record keeping arms trading and in the use and management of deadly violence This book is to my mind exactly the kind of work that needs to be done in order to understand civil wars insurgencies nationalism and rebellions and to get away from what the author rightfully critiques as pidgin social science Chip Gagnon Ithaca College An innovative work that should inspire debate Slavic Review A subtle and compelling account of revolutionary insurgency in turn of the century Macedonia His analytical focus on loyalties rather than identities goes beyond critiques of nationalism in enabling powerful new understandings of the region s histories and its continuing social dynamics Jane K Cowan University of Sussex My Father's Books Luan Starova,2012-07-16 In My Father s Books the first volume in Luan Starova s multivolume Balkan Saga he explores themes of history displacement and identity under three turbulent regimes Ottoman Fascist and Stalinist in the twentieth century Weaving a story from the threads of his parents lives from 1926 to 1976 he offers a child s eye view of personal relationships in shifting political landscapes and an elegiac reminder of the enduring power of books to sustain a literate culture Through lyrical waves of memory Starova reveals his family s overlapping religious linguistic national and cultural histories His father left Constantinople as the Ottoman Empire collapsed and the young family fled from Albania to Yugoslav Macedonia when Luan was a boy His parents cosmopolitan and well traveled in their youth and steeped in the cultures of both Orient and Occident find themselves raising their children in yet another stagnant and repressive state Against this backdrop Starova remembers the protected spaces of his childhood his mother s walled garden his father s library the cupboard holding the rarest and most precious of his father s books Preserving a lost heritage these books also open up a world that seems wide deep and boundless My Reminiscences lady Fanny Janet Sandison Blunt,1918 The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Eternal Dawn Ryan Gingeras, 2019-11-07 Amid the tensions and uncertainties that plagued the globe before the Second World War the Republic of Turkey appeared to many as a unique and constructive model for how a state was to be reformed and governed in the modern era For many interwar observers Turkey was a country that seemed to have radically transformed itself into a nation that was united strong and progressive one that was unburdened by its past A general consensus held that Turkey's founding president Mustafa Kemal Atatürk was the chief architect and engineer of this feat a belief that placed him among the greatest reforming statesmen in world history This general perception of Atatürk and his revolutionary rule has largely endured to this day As a study grounded in largely untapped archival and scholarly sources Eternal Dawn presents a definitive look inside the development and evolution of Atatürk's Turkey Rather than presenting the country's founding and transformation as an extension of Mustafa Kemal's life and achievements scholar Ryan Gingeras presents Turkey's early years as the culmination of a variety of social and political forces dating back to the late Ottoman Empire Eternal Dawn presses beyond the reigning mythology that still envelops this period and challenges many of the standing assumptions about the limits successes and consequences of the reforms that comprised Mustafa Kemal's revolution Through a detailed survey of social and political conditions that defined life in the capital as well as Turkey's diverse provinces Gingeras lays bare many of the harsh realities and bitter legacies incurred as a result of the republic's establishment and transformation Atatürk's revolution upon final analysis destroyed as much as it built and established precedents that both strengthen and torment the country to this day

Classics Transformed in Jewish, Israeli, and Palestinian Receptions , 2025-02-19 Classics Transformed in Jewish Israeli and Palestinian Receptions invites the reader to view classical antiquity through the writings of poets translators and scholars emerging from modern Jewish diasporas Mandatory Palestine and the State of Israel who engaged with Greek and Roman literary precedents Whereas these voices have up to now been mostly studied independently of one another as separate fields of research this volume brings some of these distinct voices who nevertheless share a connection to Greco Roman antiquity into conversation with one another Taking its cue from the crisis of humanism following the Holocaust the chapters take as their themes the destruction of home displacement and different forms of wandering and homecomings drawing connections to acts of translation and transmission of the classics to form a picture of cultural and textual states of alterity The volume shows that Jewish Israeli and Palestinian responses to the classics are entangled and even complementary despite their different trajectories The chapters included here focus particularly on critical moments in Jewish and Palestinian existence when the reception of classical humanism is closely linked to issues of survival On offer here is a historically grounded investigation into the ways Jews Israelis and Palestinians have used classical antiquity and classical philology to validate their identity in a rapidly changing society

The Holocaust in Thessaloniki Leon Saltiel, 2020-03-31 The book narrates the last days of the once prominent Jewish community of

Thessaloniki the overwhelming majority of which was transported to the Nazi death camp of Auschwitz in 1943 Focusing on the Holocaust of the Jews of Thessaloniki this book maps the reactions of the authorities the Church and the civil society as events unfolded In so doing it seeks to answer the questions did the Christian society of their hometown stand up to their defense and did they try to undermine or object to the Nazi orders Utilizing new sources and interpretation schemes this book will be a great contribution to the local efforts underway seeking to reconcile Thessaloniki with its Jewish past and honour the victims of the Holocaust The first study to examine why 95 percent of the Jews of Thessaloniki perished one of the highest percentages in Europe this book will appeal to students and scholars of the Holocaust European History and Jewish Studies Recipient of the 2021 Vashem Yad International Book Prize for Holocaust Research In view of the important contribution that this study makes to the understanding of the Holocaust in Thessaloniki in particular and more broadly in Greece the International Committee for the Yad Vashem Book Prize decided to award the 2021 prize to Dr Leon Saltiel

Urban Muslim Migrants in Istanbul Frances Trix,2016-10-26 Some fled following World War II and travelled east by train to Istanbul with no more than a suitcase And yet 50 years later one of their migrant associations was second only to the Red Crescent in providing aid to the urban poor of Istanbul Frances Trix analyses the development of the oldest such association originally founded to welcome new migrants as they arrived from Skopje after World War II and shows how Islam is central to its structure and practices Her wide ranging study variously focuses on its leadership the growing role of women in the organisation and the importance of music and poetry in coping with exile In so doing she raises wider questions concerning the preservation and articulation of identity amongst migrant communities Urban Muslim Migrants in Istanbul is a rare ethnography of an Islamic urban group based on extensive archival research and interviews in various languages across Istanbul Skopje and Kosovo Trix s unique approach brings a human element to the study of forced migration conflict and trauma and it is an important book for academics and policymakers interested in the Balkans the Middle East Turkey and migration studies

Captain of the Carpathia Eric L. Clements,2016-02-11 Responding to Titanic s distress calls in the early hours of 15 April 1912 Captain Arthur Rostron raced the Cunard liner Carpathia to the scene of the sinking rescued the seven hundred survivors of the world s most famous shipwreck and then carried them to safety at New York After twenty five years at sea the competence and compassion Rostron displayed during the rescue made him a hero on two continents and presaged his subsequent achievements During the First World War he participated in the invasion of Gallipoli and commanded Cunard s Mauretania as a hospital ship in the Mediterranean and a troop transport in the Atlantic As her longest serving master he commanded that legendary vessel in transatlantic passenger service through most of the 1920s Rostron retired in 1931 as the most esteemed master mariner of his era celebrated for the Titanic rescue decorated for his war service and knighted for his contributions to British seafaring This account uses newspaper reports company records government documents contemporary publications and memoirs to recount Rostron s seafaring life from his first voyage as an apprentice rounding Cape Horn in sail to his retirement forty four years later as commodore of the Cunard Line Set within the context of his times and featuring particulars of the ships in which he served and commanded this is the first comprehensive biography of Arthur Rostron before during and after his year as captain of the Carpathia Land of Progress Jacob Norris, 2013-04-11 Histories of Palestine in the pre 1948 period usually assume the emergent Arab Zionist conflict to be the central axis around which all change revolves In Land of Progress Jacob Norris suggests an alternative historical vocabulary is needed to broaden our understanding of the region s recent past In particular for the architects of empire and their agents on the ground Palestine was conceived primarily within a developmental discourse that pervaded colonial practice from the turn of the twentieth century onwards A far cry from the post World War II focus on raising living standards colonial development in the early twentieth century was more interested in infrastructure and the exploitation of natural resources Land of Progress charts this process at work across both the Ottoman and British periods in Palestine focusing on two of the most salient but understudied sites of development anywhere in the colonial world the Dead Sea and Haifa Weaving the experiences of local individuals into a wider narrative of imperial expansion and anti colonial resistance Norris demonstrates the widespread excitement Palestine generated among those who saw themselves at the vanguard of progress and modernisation whether they were Ottoman or British Arab or Jewish Against this backdrop Norris traces the gradual erosion during the mandate period of the mixed style of development that had prevailed under the Ottoman Empire as the new British regime viewed Zionism as the sole motor of modernisation As a result the book s latter stages relate the extent to which colonial development became a central issue of contestation in the struggle for Palestine that unfolded in the 1930s and 40s The Near East ,1916
