Spain's Long Shadow María DeGuzmán, Reveals the dependence of American ethnic identity on Spain and Spanish imperialism The Good News of the Return of the King Michael T. Jahosky, 2020 Although many people today reject Christianity for intellectual reasons greater numbers of people are rejecting Christianity because it does not engage their imagination Christians must not only demonstrate that the Christian worldview is true but that it is also good beautiful and relevant The Good News of the Return of the King The Gospel in Middle earth is a book that endeavors to show the truth goodness and beauty of Jesus Christ the gospel and the biblical metanarrative by engaging the imagination through J R R Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings as well as The Hobbit and The Silmarillion In this book I propose that J R R Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings is a story about what Jesus parables are about the good news about the return of the king As a work of imaginative fiction similar to Jesus parables The Lord of the Rings can bypass both intellectual and imaginative objections to the gospel and pull back the veil of familiarity that obscures the gospel for many The Return of King Arthur Beverly Taylor, Elisabeth Brewer, 1983 The revival of interest in Arthurian legend in the 19th century was a remarkable phenomenon apparently at odds with the spirit of the age Tennyson was widely criticised for his choice of a medieval topic yet The Idylls of the King were accepted as the national epic and a flood of lesser works was inspired by them on both sides of the Atlantic Elisabeth Brewer and Beverly Taylor survey the course of Arthurian literature from 1800 to the present day and give an account of all the major English and American contributions Some of the works are well known but there are also a host of names which will be new to most readers and some surprises such as J Comyns Carr's King Arthur rightly ignored as a text but a piece of theatrical history for Sir Henry Irving played King Arthur Ellen Terry was Guinevere Arthur Sullivan wrote the music and Burne Jones designed the sets The Arthurian works of the Pre Raphaelites are discussed at length as are the poems of Edward Arlington Robinson John Masefield and Charles Williams Other writers have used the legends as part of a wider cultural consciousness The Waste Land David Jones's In Parenthesis and The Anathemata and the echoes of Tristan and Iseult in Finnigan's Wake are discussed in this context Novels on Arthurian themes are given their due place from the satirical scenes of Thomas Love Peacock's The Misfortunes of Elphin and Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee at King Arthur's Court to T H White's serio comic The Once and Future King and the many recent novelists who have turned away from the chivalric Arthur to depict him as a Dark Age ruler The Return of King Arthur includes a bibliography of British and American creative writing relating to the Arthurian legends from 1800 to the present day

Migration and Return in Modern African Literature Ernest Cole,2025 Using close readings of nine novels by African or African descended novelists this book examines three phases of African migration departure disillusionment and the impulse to return The experiences of African migrants in the diaspora are deeply inflected by the condition of living as Black bodies in white spaces In this work author Ernest Cole examines closely the narratives of migration and return presented in nine powerful novels by authors who include Chimamanda Adichie NoViolet Bulawayo Teju Cole and others The novels reveal a reversal of expectations that migrants from Africa experience upon arrival in the West a reversal prompted in part by the racial prejudice they are confronted with as Black individuals As the author notes the novels also illustrate the desire to return to the homeland as a better alternative to the precarious life in the West even though such a move is not without its complications The study is divided into three parts with seven chapters The first two chapters deal with the reasons for the departure of migrants from the continent the next two depict the experiences of migrants in the West and the last three focus on contemplations of the return journey home Collectively the chapters lay out three phases in the migration process departure from home disillusionment in the West and return to the country of origin Within this framework the book uses displacement and dislocation to examine a host of themes social alienation alterity and the precarity of Africans in the diaspora

Lost in the Shadow of the Word Benjamin Paloff,2016-12-15 2018 AATSEEL Prize for Best Book in Literary Scholarship Scholars of modernism have long addressed how literature painting and music reflected the radical reconceptualization of space and time in the early twentieth century a veritable revolution in both physics and philosophy that has been characterized as precipitating an epistemic trauma around the world In this wide ranging study Benjamin Paloff contends that writers in Central and Eastern Europe felt this impact quite distinctly from their counterparts in Western Europe For the latter the destabilization of traditional notions of space and time inspired works that saw in it a new kind of freedom However for many Central and Eastern European authors who were writing from within public discourses about how to construct new social realities the need for escape met the realization that there was both nowhere to escape to and no stable delineation of what to escape from In reading the prose and poetry of Czech Polish and Russian writers Paloff imbues the term Kafkaesque with a complexity so far missing from our understanding of this moment in literary history
