was looking forward with the keenest anticipation Washington was in a turmoil Its very existence as the Federal City seemed threatened Geographically the situation of the District of Columbia was precarious If the slave States of Virginia and Maryland were both to secede they would carry Washington with them Sympathy with secession was strong in a large group of the city s residents and it was feared that they would participate in any seditious enterprise Men in public life found their mail heavy with threats and warnings and General Scott s ears were soon ringing with stories of conspiracy About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
