Revelation Reason The Christian Doctri:

Revelation and Reason Emil Brunner, 1946 To many people both inside the Church and outside it what goes on in the Church is either routine or irrelevant Consequently what the Church has to say is not very meaningful Why should people listen to what the Church has to preach and think about it No one is better qualified to answer this question than Professor Emil Brunner Dr Brunner is a teacher of theology in the University at Zurich Switzerland and one of the clearest and most constructive religious thinkers of our day Any book of his is an event because he succeeds so well in combining sound learning with persuasive and readable analysis and because he is thoroughly acquainted with both American and Continental ways of thinking In this book Dr Brunner sets the claim of the widespread intellectual relativism of contemporary culture He seeks to show that both Catholic and secular thought misunderstand the relations between reason and revelation because revelation is always subordinated to reason Brunner reverses the position He goes back to the Bible and the Reformers and maintains that when reason is subordinated to revelation the preaching of the Gospel is at once true to itself and intelligible Here is a forceful and thorough volume which helps both believers and unbelievers to understand themselves Publisher

Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C. Green, David I. Starling, 2018-07-11 Do revelation and reason contradict Throughout the church's history Christians have been tempted to make revelation and reason mutually exclusive But both are essential to a true understanding of the faith The inaugural Theology Connect conference held in Sydney in July 2016 was dedicated to surveying the intersection of revelation and reason In Revelation and Reason in Christian Theology Christopher C Green and David I Starling draw together the fruit of this conference to provoke sustained deep reflection on this relationship The essays filtered through epistemological biblical historical and dogmatic lenses critically and constructively contribute to this important and developing aspect of theology Each essayist approaches revelation and reason according to the psalmist's words In your light we see light Ps 36 9 The light of faith does not obscure truth rather it enables us to see truth A System of Christian Doctrine Isaak August Dorner, 1880 Christian Theology Alister E. McGrath, 2011-01-14 Alister McGrath's Christian Theology An Introduction is one of the most internationally acclaimed and popular Christian theology textbooks in use today This 5th edition has been completely revised and now features new and extended material numerous additional illustrations and companion resources ensuring it retains its reputation as the ideal introduction to Christian theology Fully updated 5th edition of the bestselling textbook incorporating expanded material numerous student features and new illustrations Features new sections on Copernicanism and Darwinism Includes extended discussions of Augustine's doctrine of creation Trinitarian theologies of religion and the relation of Christianity to other faiths May be used as a stand alone volume or alongside the Christian Theology Reader 4th edition for a complete overview of the subject Retains the chapter structure of the 4th edition ensuring comparability with earlier editions and courses based on these Accompanied by a revised instructor's website featuring expanded resources including study

The Noetic Effects of Sin Stephen K. Moroney, 2000-01-01 Stephen Moroney's fascinating study examines the frequently neglected topic of the noetic effects of sin a phenomenon in which sin distorts human thinking Drawing on the detailed models formulated by John Calvin Abraham Kuyper and Emil Brunner Moroney sets forth a more contemporary model of the subject He extends beyond all previous views by relating the noetic effects of sin to the complex and unpredictable interaction between the object of knowledge and the knowing subject Moroney also further examines some of the implications of the noetic effects of sin for the rationalist theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg and the Reformed epistemology of Alvin Plantinga and Nicholas Wolterstorff Lastly Moroney undertakes an interdisciplinary study of what social psychology and Christian theology contribute to our understanding of the noetic effects of sin An invaluable addition to current conversations on theology and epistemology The Noetic Effects of Sin will be of interest to scholars of theology religion and social psychology

Canon and Criterion in Christian Theology William James Abraham, 2002 Canon and Criterion in Christian Theology provides an original and important narrative on the significance of canon in the Christian tradition Standard accounts of canon reduce canon to scripture and treat scripture as a criterion of truth Scripture is then related in positive or negative ways to tradition reason and experience Such projects involve a misreading of the meaning and content of canon they locate the canonical heritage of the church within epistemology and Abraham charts the fatal consequences of this move from the Fathers to modern feminist theology In the process he shows that the central epistemological concerns of the Enlightenment have Christian origins and echoes He also shows that the crucial developments of theology from the Reformation onwards involve extraordinary efforts to fix the foundations of faith This trajectory is now exhausted theologically and spiritually Hence the door is opened for a recovery of the full canonical heritage of the early church and for fresh work on the epistemology of theology

Systematics Critical and Constructive 1 Ronald R. Ray,2018-08-15 This labor of love distills Dr Ron Ray s lifetime reflections on the truth and meaning of the gospel of Jesus Christ Gathered in one volume is an abundant harvest from the best of twentieth century systematic theology Beginning students will find here an informative and clear introductory text Working pastors will receive a refresher course to steady and strengthen a ministry of integrity and joy Preachers will benefit from the author s recommendation of the topical biblical sermon an approach that leads to contemporary topics for textually based scriptural preaching while reinvigorating topical preaching with scriptural sturdiness With both conviction and transparency Ray welcomes his readers into a thoughtful conversation about why and how the Christian message still matters today In the process we also see firsthand how and why systematic theology can still matter today for those entrusted with proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ James F Kay Dean and Vice President of Academic Affairs Professor Princeton Theological Seminary This critical and constructive perspective interacts with such fields as biblical studies Old and New Testament theology hermeneutics and other philosophy Ray s synthesis arises out of a unique theological and pastoral pilgrimage as a minister in the United States and as a missionary theologian and Christian ethicist in Nigeria and Kenya As one might expect from a scholar who did the first PhD dissertation on Jacques Ellul Ray writes with a forthright probing honest style He criticizes authors at highly specific points but often demonstrates indebtedness to the same scholars He is deeply informed by the New Testament and secondarily by the Old Testament yet insists that interpretive dishonesty is no Christian virtue Leicester R Longden Assoc Professor of Evangelism and Discipleship Emeritus University of Dubuque Theological Seminary
