Conferring with Young Writers Kristin Ackerman,Jennifer McDonough,2023-10-10 If you've ever sat down to confer with a child and felt at a loss for what to say or how to help move him or her forward as a writer this book is for you If you are a strong teacher of writing but are not seeing results from your students this book is for you Authors Kristin Ackerman and Jennifer McDonough have been teaching writing for several years and know that conferring can be a murky and messy process perhaps the hardest component of all Written from the lessons they've learned through hard won classroom experience their mistakes and challenges Conferring with Young Writers is based on what Kristin and Jen call the three Fs frequency focus and follow up They've created a classroom management system that offers routine and structure for giving the most effective feedback in a writing conference This book will help writing teachers and students learn to break down and utilize the qualities that enable good writing elaboration voice structure conventions and focus The authors also provide the knowledge and skills it takes to confer well which will help you improve as a writing teacher and give your students the confidence to think of themselves as writers      Flash Feedback [Grades 6-12] Matthew Johnson,2020-02-11 Beat burnout with time saving best practices for feedback For ELA teachers the danger of burnout is all too real Inundated with seemingly insurmountable piles of papers to read respond to and grade many teachers often find themselves struggling to balance differentiated individualized feedback with the one resource they are already overextended on time Matthew Johnson offers classroom tested solutions that not only alleviate the feedback burnout cycle but also lead to significant growth for students. These time saving strategies built on best practices for feedback help to improve relationships, ignite motivation and increase student ownership of learning. Flash Feedback also takes teachers to the next level of strategic feedback by sharing how to craft effective, efficient and more memorable feedback. Strategies for scaffolding students through the meta cognitive work necessary for real revision. A plan for how to create a culture of feedback including lessons for how to train students in meaningful peer response. Downloadable online tools for teacher and student use. Moving beyond the theory of working smarter not harder. Flash Feedback works deeper by developing practices for teacher efficiency that also boost effectiveness by increasing students self efficacy, improving the clarity of our messages and ultimately creating a classroom centered around meaningful feedback.

Let's Talk Mark Overmeyer, 2023-10-10. When it comes to increasing student motivation and success in writing, classroom talk is a powerful tool. More than simply providing assessment data for predetermined standards, talking with our students builds relationships and a community where students rely on one another, not just their teacher, for advice, affirmation and support. Let's Talk: Managing One on One, Peer and Small Group Conferences, author Mark Overmeyer, provides real classroom examples and stories to help educators make conferences more manageable and meaningful. Organized by types of conferences, Let's Talk distinguishes between teacher student talk which covers one on one, small group and whole class conferences, and student student talk which includes one on one and group peer conferences. In addition to addressing the challenges and needs of teachers, coaches, principals and staff developers in the elementary and middle level grades, Overmeyer also focuses on how to work with English language learners. Throughout the book, Overmeyer describes how classroom talk benefits students in a variety of ways, from discovering their interests and backgrounds as writers to helping them develop the language to reflect on their writing progress.

Teaching the Dimensions of Literacy Stephen Kucer, Cecilia Silva, 2012-10-12. Teaching the Dimensions of Literacy provides both the conceptual knowledge to support teachers' instructional decisions in the reading literacy classroom and a multitude of instructional strategy lessons for classroom use with both monolingual and bilingual students. It proposes that teachers need to help children become code breakers, the linguistic dimension, meaning makers, the cognitive dimension, text users and critics, the sociocultural dimension, and scientists, the developmental dimension. Acknowledging and addressing all four dimensions, this text links literacy theory, literacy research and literacy practice in a useable way. Covering both reading and writing, it features clear, concise and useable reading and writing strategy lessons and ways to modify them for different types of students. Changes in the Second Edition: Entirely reorganized, the text is more user friendly, builds a stronger link between theory and practice and makes it easier for teachers to locate appropriate strategy lessons to use with their students. Academic literacy is addressed more fully.
