THE REVOLT OF THE HEREROS

*From 1904 to 1907 the Hereros and the Hottentots in German South West Africa fought a heroic but futile battle against their German masters. From the standpoint of the Germans the war was not important. It was an incident, and no more, in an imperial venture now ended.
But for the Hereros the war was the greatest historical event they ever experienced.
It was their Marathon, their Cannae, and their Hiroshima.* (continued on next page)

Revolt Of The Hereros:

The Revolt of the Hereros Jon M. Bridgman, 2023-11-15 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1981 Germany's

Genocide of the Herero Jeremy Sarkin, Jeremy Sarkin-Hughes, 2011 In 1904 the indigenous Herero people of German South West Africa now Namibia rebelled against their German occupiers In the following four years the German army retaliated killing between 60 000 and 100 000 Herero people one of the worst atrocities ever The history of the Herero genocide remains a key issue for many around the world partly because the German policy not to pay reparations for the Namibian genocide contrasts with its long standing Holocaust reparations policy The Herero case bears not only on transitional justice issues throughout Africa but also on legal issues elsewhere in the world where reparations for colonial injustices have been called for The book argues that the Herero genocide was linked to Germany's late entry into the colonial race which led it frenetically and ruthlessly to acquire multiple colonies all over the world within a very short period using any means available

Destroy Them Gradually Andrew R. Basso, 2024-02-16 Perpetrators of mass atrocities have used displacement to transport victims to killing sites or extermination camps to transfer victims to sites of forced labor and attrition to ethnically homogenize regions by moving victims out of their homes and lands and to destroy populations by depriving them of vital daily needs Displacement has been treated as a corollary practice to crimes committed not a central aspect of their perpetration Destroying Them Gradually examines four cases that illuminate why perpetrators have destroyed populations using displacement policies Germany's genocide of the Herero 1904 1908 Ottoman genocides of Christian minorities 1914 1925 expulsions of Germans from East Central Europe 1943 1952 and climate violence twenty first century Because displacement has been typically framed as a secondary aspect of mass atrocities existing scholarship overlooks how perpetrators use it as a means of executing destruction rather than a vehicle for moving people to a specific location to commit atrocities

The Herero War - the First Genocide of the 20th Century? Martin Weiser, 2008-05 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2006 in the subject History Europe Germany 1848 Empire Imperialism grade 1 Charles University in Prague 79 entries in the bibliography language English abstract In my thesis I examine German colonial policies in South West Africa towards the natives from their first engagement in the area in 1883 up to the end of the Herero war in 1907 Primarily I try to establish if they were genocidal My thesis is divided into three major parts The first two describe and characterize the German policies towards the natives of South West Africa and their mutual relationship prior to the Herero war and during it respectively The third is concerned with definitions of genocide and relevance for its application on the Herero war In the first chapter I shortly portray South West Africa prior to European colonisation and then turn my attention to German steady and gradual conquest of the country Special consideration is given to German perceptions of the natives to their use of the natives for their own cause and to their treatment of the indigenous population Finally the most important aspects of development of the colony under German rule are presented The next chapter of the thesis deals with the events of the Herero war Analysis of the main causes of the uprising is followed by the description of the course of war This one is purposefully not very detailed and only events relevant for our cause are mentioned Much more attention is given to German changing policies during the war and to the differing arguments behind these policies with special focus on Lothar von Trotha s reasoning The Nama uprising is mentioned briefly as well At the end results of the war and its influence mainly on the native population are characterized I deal with the concept of genocide in the final part of this paper I offer three different definitions and apply them one by one on the events in Gernam South West Africa at the beginning of Century of Genocide Samuel Totten,William S. Parsons,Israel W. Charny,2004 The Rwandan government forces as well as Cambodia s Khmer Rouge and German Bosnian and U S governments have all been guilty of the destruction of theirindigenous cultures This book analyses the major atrocities of our times including recent cases of genocide in Yugoslavia and Iraq Genocide, Mass Atrocity, and War Crimes in Modern History James Larry Taulbee,2017-02-06 Defining genocide as an international crime this two volume set provides a comparative study of historical cases of genocide and mass atrocity clearly identifying the factors that produced the attitudes and behaviors that led to them discusses the reasons for rules in war and examines how the five principles laid out in the Geneva Conventions and other international agreements have functioned in modern warfare Written by an expert on international politics and law Genocide Mass Atrocity and War Crimes in Modern History Blood and Conscience is an easy to understand resource that explains why genocides and other atrocities occur why humanity saw the need to create rules that apply during war and how culture rules about war and the nature of war intersect The first volume addresses the history and development of the normative regime s that define genocide and mass atrocity Through a comparative study of historical cases that pay particular attention to the factors involved in producing the attitudes and behaviors that led to the incidents of mass slaughter and mistreatment the author identifies the reasons that genocides and mass atrocities in the 20th century were largely ignored until the early 1990s and why even starting then responses were inconsistent The second book discusses why rules in war exist which factors may lead to the adoption of rules what defines a war crime and how the five fundamental principles laid out in the Geneva Conventions and other international agreements have actually functioned in modern warfare It also poses and answers the interesting question of why we should obey rules when our opponents do not The final chapter examines what actions could serve to identify future situations in which mass atrocities may occur and identifies the problems of timely humanitarian intervention in international affairs
