

William Carlos Williams

Selected Poems

Enlarged Edition (1912-1962)

With an Introduction by Randall Jarrell

Among the great figures who have led the revolution in poetry of our century William Carlos Williams was unique in his closeness to the center of American life. Over a span of fifty years he worked to achieve an idiom which would reflect the American rhythm, both of speech and living.

Williams was always the poet of "the thing itself," the symbolic object, a particularized reality. Where others may have seen the symbols of modern America as ironic gestures toward what might have been, Williams saw them simply as true things, and hence as important and beautiful. In these immediate terms he presented the life he saw and lived, with a vocabulary absolutely unaffected and in a metric pure, spontaneous, dancelike.

The original selection was made by Dr. Williams in 1949 and did not include any poems from 1950 to 1960, when some of his finest work was done. For this enlarged edition, 25 poems have been added, chosen by vote of a committee of poets and critics from The Desert Music (1954), Journey to Love (1955), and the Pulitzer Prize-winning Pictures from Brueghel (1962). There is also a substantial section from the long poem "Asphodel, That Greeny Flower," which W. H. Auden has called "one of the most beautiful love poems in the language."

Novel Arguments Richard Walsh, 1995-09-29 Novel arguments argues that innovative fiction by which is meant writing that has been variously labeled postmodern metafictional experimental extends our ways of thinking about the world and rejects the critical consensus that under the rubrics of postmodernism and metafiction homogenizes this fiction as autonomous and self absorbed Play self consciousness and immanence supposed symptoms of innovative fiction's autonomy are here reconsidered as integral to its means of engagement The book advances a concept of the argument of fiction as a construct wedding structure and content into a highly evolved and expressive experimental form Close readings of five important innovative novels by Donald Barthelme Ishmael Reed Robert Coover Walter Abish and Kathy Acker show how they articulate matters of substance social engagement and ideological currency by virtue of the act of innovation Walsh deftly argues for a new understanding of fictional cognition at the theoretical level and in an act of great critical creativity discards altogether the flattening totalities of received postmodern formulations
