Genealogical Abstracts of Revolutionary War Pension Files Virgil D. White, 1992-06-01 Genealogical Abstracts of Revolutionary War Pension Files by Virgil D White 4000 plus pages 8 1/2 x 11 printed on acid free paper with library quality buckram covers price 410 00 postpaid These abstracts were taken from National Archives Series M805 Everything of genealogical value has been abstracted from these claims contain references to several hundred thousand people There will be an every name index available in the spring of 1993 Index of Revolutionary War Pension Applications in the National Archives National Genealogical Society, 1976 The first step in determining service in the Revolutionary War is to consult this work Alphabetically listed veterans and their widows who applied for pensions and bounty land warrants including all additions and corrections uncovered by the National Genealogical Society in their preparation for microfilming the actual pension files With the information contained in this book Revolutionary War pensions may be ordered from the National Archives An excellent discourse on pension legislation is in the introductory material N0000HB 85 99 Revolutionary War Pension Records Genealogical Publishing Co, 2008-09-01 Includes the images of 12 volumes of Revolutionary War pension records originally published between 1792 and 1841 The Pension Lists of 1792-1795, 1991 Two catastrophic fires in 1800 one in the War Department the other in the Treasury Department destroyed the earliest Revolutionary War pension application records These records consisted primarily of claims for relief based on death or disability suffered during the War As a result of the destruction of these early records pension application papers on file at the National Archives do not begin before the year 1800 Revolutionary War Pension Records Richard E. Coe, 1965 Revolutionary War Pensions Awarded by State Governments 1775-1874, the General and Federal Governments Prior to 1814, and by Private Acts of Congress to 1905 Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck, 2011 This book brings together all the data from federal and state sources used to reconstruct Revolutionary War pension records Revolutionary War Pensions Awarded by State Governments 1775-1874, the General and Federal Governments Prior to 1814, and by Private Acts of Congress to 1905 Lloyd DeWitt Bockstruck, 2011 This compilation is an attempt to identify and recreate the Revolutionary War pension files generated prior to the disastrous fire in the War Department on 8 November 1800 which destroyed nearly a quarter century of records Despite the best efforts of the War and Treasury Departments to reconstruct the files a second and even more disastrous fire occurred during the War of 1812 on 24 August 1814 with the British invasion of Washington The second fire effectively destroyed all the pension files from 1776 to 1814 Despite the tragic loss of nearly four decades of pension records at the national level it has been possible not only to identify many of those pensioners whose files are commonly believed to have been lost but also to reconstitute in varying degrees their contents Thus more than 16 500 pensioners are featured in this work Among the many sources used to reconstruct these records two in particular stand out 1 pension records generated by the governments of each of the original thirteen states state governments had their own programs and in varying degrees preserved many of their pension files and 2 acts of Congress that created reports of pensioners receiving pay for service or disability or widows and orphans receiving benefits mostly issued as government publications between 1792 and 1840 In addition the microfilm records of the Continental Congress were searched as were the standard printed works on the subject such as the Journals of the Continental Congress Supplementing these traditional sources is the online database Papers of the War Department 1784 1800 created at George Mason University Introd Revolutionary War Pension Records of Men from Pennsylvania, Surnames M-Y in Alphabetical Order , Rejected Or Suspended Applications for Revolutionary War Pensions, with an Added Index to States United States. Department of the Interior,1969 This reprint of a rare United States Senate Document lists the names and residences of about 11 000 Revolutionary War soldiers and or their widows who applied for pensions under the Acts of June 7 1832 and July 7 1838 and whose claims were rejected or suspended along with the reasons Most of the claims were for authentic service of actual Revolutionary soldiers but were rejected or suspended because the soldier did not serve for six months his name did not appear on the rolls or because a claim was suspended for further proof such as proof of marriage Still other claims were turned down on grounds of desertion privateer service or other service in a non military category The lists of suspended applications are arranged by states and thereunder by Act of Congress and category of rejection or suspension Revolutionary War Pension Files and Service Records United States.
