Rewriting the Middle Ages in the Twentieth Century Jaume Aurell i Cardona, Francisco Crosas López, 2005 Rewriting the Middle Ages in the Twentieth Century offers analytical introductions to the biographical and academic trajectories as well as the scholarly contributions of the most important medievalists of the 20th century privileging the contexts in which their influential texts in modern medieval studies were articulated and their effect on subsequent approaches to the field The volume pays tribute to the medievalists historians philologists literary critics philosophers historians of art and science and theologians whose work effectively forged contemporary academics and acknowledges a debt of gratitude for the trail they blazed in the twentieth century An introductory essay provides a comprehensive examination of the development of historiographical perspectives on medieval studies as shaped by the subjects of the volume contextualizing the individual chapters and offering a critical reconsideration of the manifold ways in which medievalism has been inscribed The chapters in the book develop from interdisciplinary and transversal strategies which reflect the kind of originaive work enacted by both the subjects of the volume and the scholars who write about them The contributors include renowned international medievalists and historiographers as Martin Aurell Paul Freedman Natalie Fryde Alessandro Ghisalberti Massimo Mastrogregori Michael McVaugh Jean Calude Schmitt and Martin Thurner A concluding essay summarizes the place of the medievalists in relation to their professional identity to the time in which they worked and to the national spaces that marked their scholarly production Among the medievalists studied are the leading exponents of the influential French historical school of the Annales Marc Bloch Jacques Le Goff and Georges Duby representatives from the highest philosophical tradition including Raymond Klibansky Albert Zimmermann and Clemens Baeumker economic and trade historian Roberto Sabatino Lopez historians of political thought like Ernst Kantorowicz exponents from the classical school of legal and institutional history such as Francois Louis Ganshof and Frederic William Maitland pioneering cultural historian Charles Homer Haskins historians of theology and Christian philosophy Etienne Gilson and Marie Dominique Chenu members of the Spanish historical and philological school that include Ramon Menendez Pidal Rafael Lapesa and Claudio Sanchez de Albornoz and in Catalonia Ferran Soldevila and finally from lesser known but equally fascinating fields of medieval studies like the science historian Pierre Duhem and the music historian Ugo Sesini

Handbook of Medieval Studies Albrecht Classen, 2010-11-29 This interdisciplinary handbook provides extensive information about research in medieval studies and its most important results over the last decades The handbook is a reference work which enables the readers to quickly and purposely gain insight into the important research discussions and to inform themselves about the current status of research in the field The handbook consists of four parts The first large section offers articles on all of the main disciplines and discussions of the field The second section presents articles on the key concepts of modern medieval studies and the debates therein The third section is a lexicon of the most important text genres of the Middle Ages The fourth section provides an international bio bibliographical lexicon of the most prominent medievalists in all disciplines A comprehensive bibliography rounds off the compendium The result is a reference work which exhaustively documents the current status of research in medieval studies and brings the disciplines and experts of the field together

Medievalism on the Margins Karl Fugelso, Alicia C. Montoya, Vincent Ferré, 2015 Essays on the post modern reception and interpretation of the middle ages

Rethinking Historical Genres in the Twenty-First Century Jaume Aurell, 2018-03-08 This book deals with the way historical genres are theorized and practiced in the twenty first century In the context of the freedoms inspired by postmodernism and enabled by the development of innovative textual and graphic platforms new theories of history view genres as flexible living forms that inspire more creative and experimental representations of the past New ways of articulating history compete with the traditional model of historical prose Acknowledging the current diversity in theories and practices and assuming the historicity of historical genres this book engages the reality of historical genres today and explores new directions in historical practice by examining these new forms of representing the past Thus without denying the validity of traditional and conventional forms of history and arguing that these forms remain valid this book surveys the production of what might be considered new historical genres practiced today in which the idea of practical past is put in practice Preceded by the introduction and two theoretical articles on historical genres some of the new forms of history analysed in this book are historical re enactments gaming history social media graphic narratives and first person narratives of memoirs of trauma and film history This book was originally published as a special issue of Rethinking History
