Rhetoric and Sexuality Peter Nickowitz, 2006-02-19 Rhetoric and Sexuality explores the poetry of Hart Crane Elizabeth Bishop and James Merrill Nickowitz combines a rhetorical and thematic interpretation employing close readings and the critical lens of Freudian and Kleinian psychoanalysis to illustrate an additional way to read American poetry He argues that the extent to which homosexual desire is problematic for these poets compels them to formulate new ways of expressing issues of homosexuality for which they have no available words Rhetoric and Sexuality shows that the logic of identity in twentieth century American poetry becomes a question of rhetoric James Merrill and W.H. Auden P. Gwiazda, 2007-10-01 James Merrill and W H Auden offers a substantial analysis of the literary and personal relationship between two major twentieth century poets As Gwiazda argues Auden s prominence in the post World War II American poetry scene as a homosexual poet and critic makes his impact on Merrill particularly noteworthy Merrill s imaginary recreation of Auden in his occult verse trilogy The Changing Light at Sandover 1982 offers a powerful statement about the dynamics of poetic influence between gay male poets Combining archival research textual analysis and aspects of queer theory James Merrill and W H Auden examines Sandover s implications to the contentious issues of homosexual identity and self representation

Selected Poems of James Merrill James Merrill, 2008-10-28 This volume brings together the best of Merrill and dazzles at every turn This balanced and compact selection will be an ideal introduction to his work for both students and general readers and an instant favorite among his familiars James Merrill himself once called his body of work chronicles of love and loss and in twenty books written over four decades he used the details of his own life comic and haunting exotic and domestic to shape a portrait that in turn mirrored the image of our world and our moment Includes poems from the domestic rupture of The Broken Home to the universal connections of Lost in Translation from the American storyteller of The Summer People to the ecologically motivated satirist of Self Portrait in a Tyvek™ Windbreaker Log Then when the flame forked like a sudden path I gasped and stumbled and was less Density pulsing upward gauze of ash Dear light along the way to nothingness What could be made of you but light and this , Whitman's Queer Children Catherine A.

K. Doreski, 1993-05-27 This illuminating study examines Elizabeth Bishop's rhetorical strategies and the way they shape the formal and thematic movements of her poetry and stories Unlike other recent studies of Bishop Doreski's does not concern itself primarily with her visual imagery but rather deals with her poetry as a series of linguistic strategies designed to create the maximum illusion of representation while resisting the romantic devices of self revelation and solipsistic narration Doeski argues that Bishop takes advantage of the inadequacies of language and with a postmodern sense of limitation explores the gaps and silences narrative must bridge with the mundane the patently inadequate leaving an air of emotional intimacy without committing itself to the banality of full exposure This study finds the poems and stories mutually illuminating but while moving back and forth among her various works acknowledges the intelligent ordering of the volumes Bishop published in her lifetime
