glossary is included in this new edition Ancient Letters and the Purpose of Romans Aaron Ricker, 2020-09-17 Aaron Ricker locates the purpose of Romans in its function as a tool of community identity definition Ricker employs a comparative analysis of the ways in which community identity definition is performed in first century association culture including several ancient network letters comparable to Romans Ricker's examination of the community advice found in Rom 12-15 reveals in this new context an ancient example of the ways in which an inscribed addressee community can be invited in a letter to see and comport itself as a proper association network community The ideal community addressed in the letter to the Romans is defined as properly unified and orderly as well accommodating to and clearly distinct from cultures outside Finally it is defined as linked to a proper network with recognised leadership i.e. the inscribed Paul of the letter and his network Paul's letter to the Romans is in many ways a baffling and extraordinary document In terms of its community defining functions and strategies however Ricker shows its purpose to be perfectly clear and understandable Scriptures, Texts, and Tracings in 2 Corinthians and Philippians A. Andrew Das, B. J. Oropeza, 2022-03-08 Scripture Texts and Tracings in 2 Corinthians and Philippians advances the interpretation of 2 Corinthians and Philippians by exploring how the Apostle Paul quotes alludes to or echoes the Jewish Scriptures Identification of allusions is at the forefront as are questions about the Torah God's righteousness reconciliation new creation new covenant Christology lament language cultic metaphors canon rhetoric and more Symbol, Service, and Song J. Nathan Clayton, 2021-11-09 In the Old Testament the Levites stand as key ministry leaders for the worship of the people of God from their origins with Moses and the tabernacle to their service at the Jerusalem temple to their roles in the postexilic period This study proposes a multidimensional reading of the texts centered on the Levites in the Davidic narratives of 1 Chronicles 10-29 From a literary point of view the notion that the Levites are closely associated with the symbol of God's presence is explored From a historical perspective the roles of the Levites in expanding the service to God and his people is examined And from a theological perspective the means by which the Levites facilitate the song of God's people is studied Overall this work seeks to defend the idea that these texts contribute significantly to the rhetorical argumentation the historiographic method and the biblical theological meaning of the canonical books of Chronicles generally and of the Davidic narratives of 1 Chronicles 10-29 specifically as they emphasize the central role played by proper Levitical worship leadership at the time of David and during the challenging situation of the Chronicler's Yehudite postexilic audience Transforming Boasting of Self into Boasting in the Lord Marcin Kowalski, 2013-07-12 This book uses rhetorical analysis to illuminate one of the most fascinating and complicated speeches by Saint Paul 2 Cor 10-13 The main problem of the speech regards Paul's claim to be a true servant of Christ and to have the right to boast about it Paul proves he is strong enough to be the leader of Corinth and paradoxically demonstrates that weakness should belong to the identity of an apostle Another issue regards the legitimacy of his boasting The egocentric boast based on the comparison with his opponents is the one that Paul calls foolish but he is forced nevertheless to undertake it The tool that ultimately enables him to transform self aggrandizing speech into speech that is focused on Christ is his paradoxical boasting of weakness The careful crafting of his discourse based on Christological principles ultimately speaks for qualifying it as a self praise speech periautologia with a pedagogical not defensive purpose Pillars in the History of Biblical Interpretation, Volume 3 Stanley E. Porter, Zachary K. Dawson, 2021-06-07 This third volume like its predecessors adds to the growing body of literature concerned with the history of biblical interpretation With eighteen essays on nineteen biblical interpreters volume 3 expands the scope of scholars both traditional and modern covered in this now multivolume series Each chapter provides a biographical sketch of its respective scholar s an overview of their major contributions to the field explanations of their theoretical and methodological approaches to interpretation and evaluations and applications of their methods By focusing on the contexts in which these scholars lived and worked these essays show what defining features qualify these scholars as pillars in the history of biblical interpretation While identifying a scholar as a pillar is somewhat subjective this volume defines a pillar as one who has made a distinctive contribution by using and exemplifying a clear method that has pushed the discipline forward at least within a given context and time period This volume is ideal for any class on the history of biblical interpretation and for those who want a greater understanding of how the field of biblical studies has developed and how certain interpreters have played a formative role in that development Exploring Second Corinthians B. J. Oropeza, 2016-04-15 A multi faceted commentary that breathes fresh insight into Paul s letter In Second Corinthians Paul responds to reports of the Corinthian congregation questioning his competency as a divinely sent messenger Through apologetic demegoria and the use of graphic imagery related to triumphal processions siege warfare and emissary travels and negotiation Paul defends his constancy persona and speaking abilities as he extends the offer of clemency and reconciliation to his auditors Oropeza combines rhetorical pictures rhetography with interpretative layers literary features intertextuality socio cultural ideological and sacred textures to arrive at the rhetorical impact of Paul s message for ancient Mediterranean discourse Features A visual sensory and imaginative interpretation of the scripture A comprehensive commentary An avant garde approach to biblical interpretation Theology and Practice in Early Christianity Troy W. Martin, 2020-08-12 Early Christianity did not originate in a vacuum but in a world of linguistic social religious and cultural richness and diversity The twenty two seminal essays in this volume some previously published some newly written represent almost three decades of research by Troy W Martin to understand how early Christianity developed in the ancient world The broad ranging investigations in these essays give attention not only to the linguistic and rhetorical features of early Christian texts but also to the social philosophical physiological and medical contexts in which these texts were written The essays provide new understandings of early Christian conceptions of salvation and of the virtues of faith hope and love that characterized early Christian communities They include new medical and physiological explanations of early Christian sacraments pneumatology and eschatology and furthermore investigate early Christian communal life and practice including the veiling of women male female relationships and time keeping The essays include reception histories that describe their influence on subsequent research and place them within the context of contemporary research and scholarship Those familiar with the well trodden ground of New Testament studies will find in these essays new insights and previously unexplored comparative material for understanding early Christianity and the world in which it originated The Art of Visual Exegesis Vernon K. Paul and the Rhetoric of Reversal in 1 Corinthians Matthew R. Malcolm, 2013-07-25 This book examines why Paul waits until the end of his letter to the Corinthians before mentioning the important theme of resurrection Hellenistic Dimensions of the Gospel of Matthew Robert S. Kinney, 2016-04-11 In the search for Matthean theology scholars overwhelmingly approach the Gospel of Matthew as the the most Jewish Gospel Studies of its Sitz im Leben focus on its relationship to Judaism whether arguing from the perspective that Matthew wrote from a cloistered Jewish community or as the leader of a Gentile rebellion against such a Jewish community While this is undoubtedly an important and necessary discussion for understanding the Gospel it often assumes too much about the relationship between Judaism and Hellenism via Martin Hengel Robert S Kinney argues for a hybridized perspective in which Matthew s attention to Jewish sources and ideas is not denied but in which echoes of Greek and Roman sources can be observed focusing on identifying Matthew s use of rhetoric and its possible echoes of Greco Roman philosophical disciple gathering teachers Paul's Argumentation in Galatians Mika Hietanen, 2007-07-26 Galatians is a polemical letter which contains a substantial amount of argumentative passages Paul evidently wanted to persuade by using the best arguments possible to convince his addressees Using a state of the art method from the discipline of argumentation analysis Paul s argumentation can be analysed with a precision that standard exegetical methods cannot provide The pragma dialectical method developed in Amsterdam facilitates an analysis which is both descriptive and normative On the one hand Paul s argumentation can be described such as the relationship between premisses and conclusions the structure of the arguments and features relating to rhetorical strategy On the other hand the method makes it possible to evaluate Paul s argumentation against a set of rules for sound reasoning Fallacies and problematic arguments can be described accurately The spiritual nature of Paul's matters do not relieve him of rationality and Paul himself does not argue as if it did Paul's argumentation is found problematic in several respects There is a tension in the text Paul works a great deal to argue his claims while at the same time giving the impression that he merely wants to declare his standpoints and does not want to carry out an argumentation at all Many of the conclusions are presented as self evident even when they are not Paul's style is far from an ideal model of the resolution of a dispute Paul relies heavily on an argumentative strategy with maximal use of rhetorical devices The analysis shows that a contemporary method of argumentation analysis provides tools necessary to adequately describe and understand both individual arguments and the overarching strategy of the argumentation in a Pauline text Reflections on My Life Thomas H. Robbins, Robert H. von Thaden Jr., Bart B. Bruehler, 2016-09-02 Engaging resources for understanding the importance of bodies and spaces in producing and interpreting persuasive language This volume collects essays that represent intellectual milestones that are informing sociorhetorical interpretation during the twenty first century The essays are arranged into five parts 1 Topos 2 Cultural Geography and Critical Spatiality 3 Rhetorolects and Conceptual Blending 4 Rhetography and 5 Rhetorical Force Features Tools for integrating multiple approaches to biblical interpretation Resources that emphasize the importance of language that prompts mental pictures in effective rhetoric Essays from classicists rhetoricians and biblical scholars Paul and the Ancient Letter Form Stanley E. Porter, Sean A. Adams, 2010 Throughout the last century there has been continuous study of Paul as a writer of letters Although this fact was acknowledged by previous generations of scholars it was during the twentieth century that the study of ancient letter writing practices came to the fore and began to be applied to the study of the letters of the New Testament This volume seeks to advance the discussion of Paul's relationship to Greek epistolary traditions by evaluating the nature of ancient letters as well as the individual letter components These features are evaluated alongside Paul's letters to better understand Paul's use and adaptations of these traditions in order to meet his communicative needs
