Rhetoric Of Racism Revisited:

The Rhetoric of Racism Revisited Mark Lawrence McPhail, 2002 Looks at the rhetorical dynamics of racism how in addition to social and material structures and institutions language can be a cause and facilitator of racism Thoroughly discusses essentialism and racial difference theories of complicity and coherence and the theory of racism as a problem of psychiatry back cover

The Rhetoric of Racism Revisited Mark Lawrence McPhail, 2002 Looks at the rhetorical dynamics of racism how in addition to social and material structures and institutions language can be a cause and facilitator of racism Thoroughly discusses essentialism and racial difference theories of complicity and coherence and the theory of racism as a problem of psychiatry back cover

New Approaches to Rhetoric Patricia A. Sullivan, Steven R. Goldzwig, 2004 New Approaches to Rhetoric provides fresh perspectives on the study of rhetoric and its ability to affect change in today's society Although traditional approaches e.g. neo-Aristotelian to the study of rhetoric have utility for the twenty-first century communication in a complex mass-mediated postmodern age calls for new critical approaches The contributors of this volume including James Darsey Kathryn M. Olson and G. Thomas Goodnight George Cheney Dana Cloud and Barry Brummett explore possibilities for bridging rhetorical studies of the past with rhetorical studies of the future The original essays invite students to join rhetorical theorists and critics in an ongoing dialogue concerning what it means to study communication in a postmodern world Divided into three Parts New Approaches to Rhetoric challenges and expands the definitions, approaches and assumptions governing rhetorical scholarship Part I Rhetoric's Ethics and Values addresses in different ways a central question for the study of rhetoric today How and under what conditions will moral arguments be articulated in the 21st century Part II Rhetoric Institutions and Contexts features real-life case studies showing students the function of rhetoric in today's world Part III Rhetoric's Cultures and Ideologies encourages students to examine ideological approaches to criticism and issues associated with class, race and gender Features of this volume Original never before published pieces by leading rhetorical theorists and critics including James Darsey Kathryn Olson and G. Thomas Goodnight George Cheney Dana Cloud and Marouf Hasian and John M. Murphy and Thomas R. Burkholder among others Each part opens with a brief introduction to frame discussion for students Topics and case studies will appeal to students and scholars e.g. film Disney political keynote addresses autobiography labor union discourse Barry Brummett's Conclusion speculates on what the collection suggests about rhetoric in the 21st century and offers ideas to guide students as they contemplate the future of rhetorical studies New Approaches to Rhetoric is ideal for upper-level undergraduate and graduate courses in Rhetoric and in Political Communication in departments of Communication English and Political Science This book is suitable for use as either a primary or supplemental course text and will be invaluable as a general reference for scholars of rhetoric social movements and public sphere studies

Race and Reconciliation John B. Hatch, 2009-12-01 Hatch develops a robust rhetorical theory of reconciliation and applies it to contemporary national and global efforts to redress the racialized wounds and injustices created by slavery What emerges from this work is a profound vision for the prospects of meaningful reparation forgiveness and reconciliation in American race relations

Critical Rhetorics of Race Kent A. Ono, 2011-07-11 According to many pundits and cultural commentators the U S is enjoying a post racial age thanks in part to Barack Obama s rise to the presidency This high gloss of optimism fails however to recognize that racism remains ever present and alive spread by channels of media and circulated even in colloquial speech in ways that can be difficult to analyze In this groundbreaking collection edited by Michael G Lacy and Kent A Ono scholars seek to examine this complicated and contradictory terrain while moving the field of communication in a more intellectually productive direction An outstanding group of contributors from a range of academic backgrounds challenges traditional definitions and applications of rhetoric From the troubling media representations of black looters after Hurricane Katrina and rhetoric in news coverage about the Columbine and Virginia Tech massacres to cinematic representations of race in Crash Blood Diamond and Quentin Tarantino s films these essays reveal complex intersections and constructions of racialized bodies and discourses critiquing race in innovative and exciting ways Critical Rhetorics of Race seeks not only to understand and navigate a world fraught with racism but to change it one word at a time

Transitional Justice and Human Rights in Morocco Fadoua Loudiy, 2014-03-05 This book examines the Moroccan experience of transitional justice more specifically the negotiation of the legacy of the period commonly referred to as the Years of Lead This period of Moroccan history roughly spans from the early 1960s to 1999 during which thousands of citizens were arbitrarily detained tortured and killed because of their political opinions Through an analysis of testimonies public documents and personal interviews Transitional Justice and Human Rights in Morocco seeks to shed light on Moroccan citizens struggle for recognition and reparation in the aftermath of a long history of grave human rights violations ranging from arbitrary arrest and torture to state sponsored disappearances and murders While Morocco s experience is often presented within a historical global context this book offers a comparative analysis discussing other national examples to situate the Moroccan experience within the relatively recent history of political transitions Seeking to advance a rhetoric of symbolic justice that privileges the voice of the victims and offers hope for the renewal of a community s ethos through public discourse and ethico political practices this book will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars with an interest in Human Rights and Middle East Politics

Shades of Sulh Rasha Diab, 2016-04-26 Sulh is a centuries old Arab Islamic peacemaking process In Shades of Sulh Rasha Diab explores the possibilities of the rhetoric of sulh as it is used to resolve intrapersonal interpersonal communal national and international conflicts and provides cases that illustrate each of these domains Diab demonstrates the adaptability and range of sulh as a ritual and practice that travels across spheres of activity juridical extra juridical political diplomatic through time medieval modern contemporary and over geopolitical borders Cairo Galilee and Medina Together the cases prove the flexibility of sulh in the discourse of peacemaking and that sulh has remarkable rhetorical longevity versatility and richness Shades of Sulh sheds new light on rhetorics of reconciliation human rights discourse and Arab Islamic rhetorics Transcendence By Perspective Bryan Crable, 2014-07-15

The nine contributors to this collection examine rhetorician Kenneth Burke's understanding of transcendence applying it to a wide range of social and political issues including racial and presidential politics Perspectives on Human-Animal

Communication Emily Plec, 2013-01-04 Despite its inherent interdisciplinarity the Communication discipline has remained an almost entirely anthropocentric enterprise This book represents early and prominent forays into the subject of human animal communication from a Communication Studies perspective an effort that brings a discipline too long defined by that fallacy of division human or nonhuman into conversation with animal studies biosemiotics and environmental communication as well as other recent intellectual and activist movements for reconceptualizing relationships and interactions in the biosphere This book is a much needed point of entry for future scholarship on animal human communication as well as the whole range of communication possibilities among the more than human world It offers a groundbreaking transformation of higher education by charting new directions for communication research policy formation and personal and professional practices involving animals Public Memory, Race, and Ethnicity G. Mitchell Reyes, 2010-06-09

Scholars across the humanities and social sciences who study public memory study the ways that groups of people collectively remember the past One motivation for such study is to understand how collective identities at the local regional and national level emerge and why those collective identities often lead to conflict Public Memory Race and Ethnicity contributes to this rapidly evolving scholarly conversation by taking into consideration the influence of race and ethnicity on our collective practices of remembrance How do the ways we remember the past influence racial and ethnic identities How do racial and ethnic identities shape our practices of remembrance Public Memory Race and Ethnicity brings together nine provocative critical investigations that address these questions and others regarding the role of public memory in the formation of racial and ethnic identities in the United States The book is organized chronologically Part I addresses the politics of public memory in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries focusing on how immigrants who found themselves in a strange new world used memory to assimilate on the interplay of ethnicity and patriarchy in early monumental representations of Sacagawea and on the use of memory and forgetting to negotiate labor and racial tensions in an industrial steel town Part II attends to the dynamics of memory and forgetting during and after World War II examining the problems of remembrance as they are related to Japanese internment the strategies of remembrance surrounding important events of the Civil Rights Movement and the institutional use of memory and tradition to normalize whiteness and control human behavior Part III focuses on race and remembrance in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries analyzing Walter Mosley's use of memory in his literary work to challenge racial norms President George W Bush's strategies of remembrance in his 2006 address to the NAACP and the problems of memory and racial representation in the aftermath of the Katrina disaster Taken together the essays in this volume often speak to each other in remarkable ways and one can begin to see in their progression the transformation of race relations in America since the nineteenth century Interracial Communication Mark P. Orbe, Tina M. Harris, 2022-11-11 As the racial and ethnic landscape of the United States shifts interracial communication plays an increasingly crucial role The sociopolitical climate has impacted identities relationships media and organizations challenging the possibility of having transformative engagement about race Power differences affected by race ethnicity class gender sexuality ability age and geography are sometimes invisible Competent interracial communication is key to alleviating polarized interactions and addressing the unequal treatment of microcultures Part I of the book provides essential background including the history of race the importance of communication the development and intersectionality of racial and ethnic identities and models and theories of interracial communication Part II applies this information to communication practices in specific everyday contexts global racial hierarchies and colorism friendships romantic relationships communication in the workplace interracial conflict and race and ethnicity in the media The concluding chapter outlines pathways to meaningful change and invites readers to become active participants in dialogue to facilitate working through differences The authors offer comprehensive readable and insightful coverage of pressing issues They focus on communication as vital to removing barriers to understanding Becoming proactive in eliminating racism on a personal level is a step toward the macrolevel changes required to dismantle systemic racism The fourth edition is a socially relevant resource for facilitating interracial dialogue to create a positive climate to work together to achieve social justice Race and the Obama Phenomenon G. Reginald Daniel, Hettie V. Williams, 2014-07-17 The concept of a more perfect union remains a constant theme in the political rhetoric of Barack Obama From his now historic race speech to his second victory speech delivered on November 7 2012 that striving is evident Tonight more than two hundred years after a former colony won the right to determine its own destiny the task of perfecting our union moves forward stated the forty fourth president of the United States upon securing a second term in office after a hard fought political contest Obama borrows this rhetoric from the founding documents of the United States set forth in the US Constitution and in Abraham Lincoln s Gettysburg Address How naive or realistic is Obama s vision of a more perfect American union that brings together people across racial class and political lines How can this vision of a more inclusive America be realized in a society that remains racist at its core These essays seek answers to these complicated questions by examining the 2008 and 2012 elections as well as the events of President Obama s first term Written by preeminent race scholars from multiple disciplines the volume brings together competing perspectives on race gender and the historic significance of Obama s election and reelection The president heralded in his November 2012 acceptance speech The idea that if you re willing to work hard it doesn t matter who you are or where you come from or what you look like whether you re black or white Hispanic or Asian or Native American These essayists argue the truth of that statement and assess whether America has made any progress toward that vision

Critical Animal and Media Studies Núria Almiron, Matthew Cole, Carrie P. Freeman, 2015-10-14 This book aims to put the speciesism debate and the treatment of non human animals on the agenda of critical media studies and to put media studies on the agenda of animal ethics researchers Contributors examine the convergence of media and animal ethics from theoretical philosophical discursive social constructionist and political economic perspectives The book is divided into three sections foundations representation and responsibility outlining the different disciplinary approaches application to media studies and covering how non human animals and the relationship between humans and non humans are represented by the mass media concluding with suggestions for how the media as a major producer of cultural norms and values related to non human animals and how we treat them might improve such representations

Critical Autoethnography Robin M. Boylorn, Mark P. Orbe, 2020-11-26 Critical Autoethnography Intersecting Cultural Identities in Everyday Life Second Edition examines the development of the field of critical autoethnography through the lens of social identity Contributors situate interpersonal and intercultural experiences of gender race ethnicity ability citizenship sexuality and spirituality within larger systems of power oppression and privilege Approachable and accessible narratives highlight intersectional experiences of marginalization and interrogate social injustices The book is divided into three sections Complexities of Identity Performance Relationships in Diverse Contexts and Pathways to Culturally Authentic Selves Each thematic section includes provocative stories that critically engage personal and cultural narratives through a lens of difference The chapters in the book highlight both unique and ubiquitous extraordinary and common experiences in the interior lives of people who are Othered because of at least two overlapping identities The contributors offer first person accounts to suggest critical responses and alternatives to injustice The book also includes sectional summaries and discussion questions to facilitate dialogue and self reflection It is an excellent resource for undergraduate students graduate students educators and scholars who are interested in autoethnography interpersonal and intercultural communication qualitative studies personal narrative cultural studies and performance studies

Caught on Tape Casey Ryan Kelly, 2023 In a surveillance culture the ubiquity of audio visual recording devices has enabled the unprecedented documentation of private indiscretions scandalous conversations and obscene behaviors performed by both ordinary and high profile people From former President Donald J Trump s lewd banter on the infamous Access Hollywood video and leaked audio of celebrity racist tirades to outburst of violent hate speech posted daily to YouTube contemporary media culture is awash in obscene performances of transgressive white masculinity Such expos s are screened and viewed under the assumption that revealing secret prejudices will necessarily realize the promises of democracy and bring about a postracial and postfeminist future This book addresses why the culture of public revelations has failed to hold the perpetrators accountable Caught on Tape illustrates how public revelations constitute a symbolic and imaginary world for the public that is preoccupied with the obscene enjoyment of transgressive white masculinity a compulsively repetitive experience of ecstatic and excessive pleasure in pain that arises from encounters with that which disturbs traumatizes and interrupts illusory notions of our coherent selves and reality Caught on Tape argues that addressing race and gender inequality with the promise of scandalous hot mics and obscene private videos transforms antiracism and gender justice into disempowering forms of spectatorship that ultimately conceal the structural nature of whiteness white supremacy and patriarchy The central argument of this book is that the spectators are the ones really caught on tape

Rhetoric, Race, Religion, and the Charleston Shootings Melody Lehn, Sean Patrick O'Rourke, 2019-11-12 Rhetoric Race Religion and the Charleston Shootings Was Blind but Now I See is a collection focusing on the Charleston shootings written by leading scholars in the field who consider the rhetoric surrounding the shootings This book offers an appraisal of the discourses speeches editorials social media posts visual images prayers songs silence demonstrations and protests that constituted contested and reconstituted the shootings in American civic life and cultural memory It answers recent calls for local and regional studies and opens new fields of inquiry in the rhetoric sociology and history of mass killings gun violence and race relations and it does so while forging new connections between and among on going scholarly conversations about rhetoric race and religion Contributors argue that Charleston was different from other mass shootings in America and that this difference was made manifest through what was spoken and unspoken in its rhetorical aftermath Scholars of race religion rhetoric communication and sociology will find this book particularly useful The Will of a People Richard W Leeman, Bernard K Duffy, 2012-02-21 This anthology contains the full texts of twenty two important and eloquent speeches by African American orators ranging in time from an 1832 speech by Maria Miller Stewart Why Sit Ye Here and Die to Barack Obama s 2009 inaugural address Among the orators included in the collection are Sojourner Truth Frederick Douglass Booker T Washington W E B Du Bois Marcus Garvey Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X Barbara Jordan and Jesse Jackson

The Cambridge Companion to Malcolm X Robert Terrill, 2010-05-17 This Companion presents new perspectives on Malcolm X s life and legacy for students of American history Dialogue Rob Anderson, Leslie A. Baxter, Kenneth N Cissna, 2004 Readers of Dialogue will be able to frame different influential conceptions of dialogue establish the concepts history in communication studies and trace both common and unique threads that connect different theorists This volume is recommended for graduate and advanced undergraduate courses in Communication Theory Interpersonal Communication and Organizational Communication Critical and Comparative Rhetoric Elizabeth Berenguer, Lucy Jewel, Teri A.

McMurtry-Chubb, 2023-06-30 Through the lenses of comparative and critical rhetoric this book theorizes how alternative approaches to communication can transform legal meanings and legal outcomes infusing them with more inclusive participation equity and justice Viewing legal language through a radical lens the book sets aside longstanding norms that derive from White and Euro centric approaches in order to re situate legal methods as products of new rhetorical models that come from diasporic and non Western cultures The book urges readers to re consider how they think about logic and rhetoric and to consider other ways of building knowledge that can heal the law s current structures that often perpetuate and reinforce systems of privilege and power
