Petitioners, Penitents, and Poets Timothy J. Sandoval, Ariel Feldman, 2020-10-26 This volume contributes to the growing interest in understanding the phenomenon of prayer and praying in the Hebrew Bible Early Judaism and nascent Christianity Papers by the leading scholars in these fields revisit long standing questions and chart new paths of inquiry into the nature form and practice of addressing the divine in the ancient world The essays in this volume deal with particular texts of and about prayer practices of prayer as well as figures and locations historical and literary that are associated with prayer and praying These studies apply a range of methods and theoretical approaches to prayer and the language of prayer in literatures of Early Judaism and Christianity Some studies apply the classical methods of biblical studies to Second Temple texts of prayer including form critical and text critical approaches others engage in literary and narrative analysis of ancient works that recount discourse directed to the divine Still other studies draw on anthropological and sociological analyses of prayer or marshal particular theories of discourse ethics and moral agency to offer fresh interpretations of address to God in the literature of Second Temple Judaism and earliest Christianity Pillars in the History of Biblical Interpretation, Volume 2 Stanley E. Porter, Sean A. Adams, 2016-11-03 This two volume set is part of a growing body of literature concerned with the history of biblical interpretation The ample introduction first situates key players in the story of the development of the major strands of biblical interpretation since the Enlightenment identifying how different theoretical and methodological approaches are related to each other and describing the academic environment in which they emerged and developed Volume 1 contains fourteen essays on twenty two interpreters who were principally active before 1980 and volume 2 has nineteen essays on twenty seven of those who were active primarily after this date Each chapter provides a brief biography of one or more scholars as well as a detailed description of their major contributions to the field This is followed by an often new application of the scholar s theory By focusing on the individual scholars and their work the book recognizes that interpretive approaches arise out of certain circumstances and that scholars are influenced by and have influences upon both other interpreters and the times in which they live This set is ideal for any class on the history of biblical interpretation and for those who want a greater understanding of how the current field of biblical studies developed The Temple Sleep of the Rich Young Ruler Edward Reaugh Smith, 2011-11 Who wrote the Gospel of John The author identifies himself only as the disciple whom Jesus loved and Christian tradition tells us that this disciple was the apostle John However during the past century scholars have increasingly come to doubt that attribution In 1902 Rudolf Steiner wrote that the author of the Gospel of John was in fact Lazarus Steiner s position stemmed from his insight that Lazarus s encounter with death involved far more than people realized an initiation into higher spiritual realities that uniquely qualified him to write this gospel Edward Smith takes up this argument and shows that subsequent research has tended to favor Lazarus for reasons grounded in John s Gospel itself More important Smith shows that subsequent discoveries at Nag Hammadi and Mar Saba corroborate Steiner s reasoning about the nature of the raising of Lazarus pointing to Lazarus as the rich young ruler of Mark s Gospel My Words Are Lovely Robert L. Foster, David M. Howard, 2008-11-15 This collection of essays advances psalms studies through a concerted focus on the persuasive aim of psalmic poetry and it offers unique perspectives on rhetorical devices within the psalms These essays include discussions not only of structure literary devices and rhetorical strategies but the authors also dialogue with classical rhetoric modern psalms research and current trends in rhetoric and cognitive science Part One discusses various theoretical issues Several articles discuss lament within the psalms including the function of appeals to pathos lament's compensation for monotheistic piety and the need for more attention to the laments poetry and rhetoric to understand their meaning Other essays address the psalmists self presentation the ideological identity of the wicked within the psalms faunal imagery with regard to tenor and vehicle the topoi related to God in call to praise psalms the function of gaps in prayers for help and the rhetoric of kingship psalms as attempts to persuade readers of the legitimacy and efficacy of kingship Part Two consists of rhetorical analyses of several psalms or psalm pairs each with distinctive emphases These include a discussion of Psalm 8 from a bodily perspective the nature and implication of nature language within Psalm 23 the structure of Psalm 102 within Book IV of the Psalter along with its theology and lament the forensic case of Psalms 105 and 106 emphasizing the role of narrative in forensic rhetoric and comparing the results with classical rhetoric and an analysis of the rhetorical aim of Psalm 147 subjected to developments within cognitive science

BOOK JACKET Theology of the Prophetic Books Donald E. Gowan, 1998-08-01 Donald Gowan offers a unified reading of the prophetic books showing that each has a distinctive contribution to make to a central theme These books Isaiah through Malachi respond to three key moments in Israel's history the end of the Northern Kingdom in 722 BCE the end of the Southern Kingdom in 587 BCE and the beginning of the restoration from the Babylonian exile in 538 BCE Gowan traces the theme of death and resurrection throughout these accounts finding a symbolic message of particular significance to Christian interpreters of the Bible debate once again especially the question of whether and how we are to understand Christ's death as a sacrifice Mimesis and Atonement brings together philosophers from Catholic Evangelical Orthodox and Jewish backgrounds to examine the continued significance of Girard's work They do so in the light of new developments such as the controversial new scholarship on Paul
