Brisker, Hal Box, 1990 Introduces a contemporary Mexican architect who has brought traditional Mexican architecture into the modern world Contemporary Architect: Ricardo Legorreta, 1978 The Architecture of Ricardo Legorreta Ricardo Legorreta, 1990 The New Architecture of Mexico John V. Mutlow, 2005 This book explores the modern architecture the modern architecture of Mexico with an emphasis from the early 1980s to the present day It is particularly appropriate now given a renewed interest in the recent modern architecture of Mexico and as the w Architecture INTL Nancy Solomon, 2008-05-27 On the occasion of its 150th anniversary the American Institute of Architects asked more than 70 contributors to examine the complex and evolving of the America s architects in shaping our cities and communities Through essays vignettes and profiles illustrated with more than 560 photographs Architecture provides a look at the breath and depth of the architecture profession and points to the significant contributions architects have made in all aspects of society Most important the book demonstrates the value of applying architectural thinking to the many serious issues from global warming and homeland security to accessibility and diversity facing our world today BOOK JACKET The Effects of the Nation Carl Good, John V. Waldron, 2009 What is the effect of a nation In this age of globalization is it dead dying or only dormant The essays in this groundbreaking volume use the arts in Mexico to move beyond the national and the global to look at the activity of a community continually re creating itself within and beyond its own borders Mexico is a particularly apt focus partly because of the vitality of its culture partly because of its changing political identity and partly because of the impact of borders and borderlessness on its national character The ten essays collected here look at a wide range of aesthetic productions especially literature and the visual arts that give context to how art and society interact Steering a careful course between the nostalgia of nationalism and the insensitivity of globalism these essays examine modernism and postmodernism in the Mexican setting Individually they explore the incorporation of historical icons of vanguardism and of international influence From Diego Rivera to Elena Garro from the Tlateloco massacre to the Chiapas rebellion from mass market fiction to the film Aliens the contributors view the many sides of Mexican life as relevant to the creation of a constantly shifting national culture Taken together the essays look both backward and forward at the evolving effect of the Mexican nation

Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel, 2016-01-23 The Making of Mexican Modernist Architecture Celia Esther Arredondo Zambrano, 2023-05-03 This book presents the making of Mexican Modernist architecture through five power structures academic social status economic political gender and postcolonial and by interviews and analysis of 13 key Mexican architects These include Luis Barrag n Jos Villagr n Garc a Juan O Gorman Pedro Ram rez V zquez Agust n Hern ndez Abraham Zabludovsky Carlos Mijares Ricardo Legorreta Juan Jos D az Infante Enrique Norton Alberto Kalach Javier Sordo Madaleno and Clara de Buen Although the five power structures framed what was built the testimony of these Mexican architects helps us to recognize and discover subtleties and nuances Their views thereby shed light on what contributed to making Mexican Modernist architecture so distinctive globally Even if these architects were not always aware of the power structures their projects nonetheless supported discrimination marginalization and subjugation In that sense the book also reveals the extent to which these power structures are still present today The Making of Mexican Modernist Architecture s uniqueness lies in uncovering the remarkable buildings that arose amid the five power structures while at the same time questioning their validity It also voices the urgent need today for a new kind of architecture outside these boundaries The book is essential reading for anyone studying Mexican and Latin American architecture

Modern Architecture in Mexico City Kathryn E. O'Rourke, 2017-02-10 Mexico City became one of the centers of architectural modernism in the Americas in the first half of the twentieth century Invigorated by insights drawn from the first published histories of Mexican colonial architecture which suggested that Mexico possessed a distinctive architecture and culture beginning in the 1920s a new generation of architects created profoundly visual modern buildings intended to convey Mexico s unique cultural character By midcentury these architects and their students had rewritten the country s architectural history and transformed the capital into a metropolis where new buildings that evoked pre conquest colonial and International Style architecture coexisted Through an exploration of schools a university campus a government ministry a workers park and houses for Diego Rivera and Luis Barragan Kathryn O Rourke offers a new interpretation of modern architecture in the Mexican capital showing close links between design evolving understandings of national architectural history folk art and social reform This book demonstrates why creating a distinctively Mexican architecture captivated architects whose work was formally dissimilar and how that concern became central to the profession

Modernity and the Architecture of Mexico Edward R. Burian, 2010-06-28 Since the mid 1970s there has been an extraordinary renewal of interest in early modern architecture both as a way of gaining insight into contemporary architectural culture and as a reaction to neoconservative postmodernism This book undertakes a critical reappraisal of the notion of modernity in Mexican architecture and its influence on a generation of Mexican architects whose works spanned the 1920s through the 1960s Nine essays by noted architects and architectural historians cover a range of topics from broad based critical commentaries to discussions of individual architects and buildings Among the latter are the architects Enrique del Moral Juan O Gorman Carlos Obreg n Santacilia Juan Segura Mario Pani and the campus and stadium of the Ciudad Universitaria in Mexico City Relatively little has been published in English regarding this era in Mexican architecture Thus Modernity and the Architecture of Mexico will play a groundbreaking role in making the underlying assumptions ideological and political constructs and specific architect s agendas known to a wide audience in the humanities Likewise it should inspire greater appreciation for this undervalued body of works as an important contribution to the modern movement
