Riceyman Steps A Novel Oxford Paperbacks:

Food, Drink, and the Written Word in Britain, 1820-1945 Mary Addyman, Laura Wood, Christopher Yiannitsaros, 2017-04-21 This volume explores the intersection between culinary history and literature across a period of profound social and cultural change Split into three parts essays focus on the food scandals of the early Victorian era the decadence and greed of late Victorian and Edwardian Britain and the effects of austerity caused by two world wars The Oxford English Literary History: Volume 10: 1910-1940: The Modern Movement Chris Baldick, 2005-11-10 This exciting new volume provides a freshly inclusive account of literature in England in the period before during and after the First World War Chris Baldick places the modernist achievements of Virginia Woolf T S Eliot and James Joyce within the rich context of non modernist writings across all major genres allowing high literary art to be read against the background of low entertainment Looking well beyond the modernist vanguard Baldick highlights the survival and renewal of realist traditions in these decades of post Victorian disillusionment Ranging widely across psychological novels war poems detective stories satires and children s books The Modern Movement provides a unique survey of the literature of this turbulent time

Writing disenchantment Andrew Frayn, 2015-11-01 It has become axiomatic that First World War literature was disenchanted or disillusioned and returning combatants were unable to process or communicate that experience In Writing disenchantment Andrew Frayn argues that this was not just about the war non combatants were just as disenchanted as those who fought and writers such as D H Lawrence and Virginia Woolf produced some of the sharpest criticisms Its language already existed in contemporary sociological and historical accounts of the problems of mass culture and the modern city whose structures contained the conflict and were strengthened during it Archival material sales data and reviews are used to chart disenchantment in a wide range of early twentieth century war literature from novels about fears of invasion and pacifism through the modernist novels of the 1920s to its dominance in the War Books Boom of 1928 30 This book will appeal to scholars and students of English literature social and cultural history and gender studies Middlebrow Literary Cultures E. Brown, M. Grover, 2011-11-30 The literary middle ground once dismissed by academia as insignificant is the site of powerful anxieties about cultural authority that continue to this day In short the middlebrow matters These essays examine the prejudices and aspirations at work in the battle of the brows and show that cultural value is always relative and situational The Transformation of the Psyche in British Primary Care, 1870-1970 Rhodri Hayward, 2014-02-25 Conflicting models of selfhood have become central to debates over modern medicine Yet we still lack a clear historical account of how this psychological sensibility came to be established The Transformation of the Psyche in British Primary Care 1880 1970 will remedy this situation by demonstrating that there is nothing inevitable about the current connection between health identity and personal history It traces the changing conception of the psyche in Britain over the last two centuries and it demonstrates how these changes were rooted in transformed patterns of medical care The shifts from private medicine through to National Insurance and the National Health Service fostered different kinds of relationship between doctor and patient and different understandings of psychological distress

The Transformation of the Psyche in British Primary Care 1880-1970 examines these transformations and in so doing provides new critical insights into our modern sense of identity and changing notions of health that will be of great value to anyone interested in the modern history of British medicine

English Novel Hist 1895-1920 David Trotter, 2022-02-22 First Published in 1993

Written specifically for students and assuming no prior knowledge of the subject David Trotter's The English Novel in History 1895-1920 provides the first detailed and fully comprehensive analysis of early twentieth century English fiction Whereas all previous studies have been rigorously selective Trotter looks at over 140 novelists across the whole spectrum of fiction from the innovations of Joyce's Ulysses through to popular mass market genres such as detective stories and spy thrillers By examining the novels in both stylistic and historical terms David Trotter looks at the ways in which writers responded to contemporary preoccupations such as the spectacle of consumption and the growth of suburbia or to anxieties about the decline of Empire racial degeneration and sexual anarchy He also challenges the view that literature of the period can be interpreted as a neat procession from realism to Modernism

The 1920s Tamás Bényei, Shene Boskani, Nick Hubble, 2025-07-24 The particularity of 1920s British fiction has become obscured by an academic focus on modernism This book takes a fresh approach to the decade by examining both canonical writers such as Virginia Woolf and E M Forster as well as less widely studied writers such as A A Milne and Naomi Mitchison From the aftermath of First World War to the Great Depression of 1929 and its political consequences the 1920s were a decade marked by radical social change Internationally there was an ongoing shift of global power and nationally Britain was adjusting to the aftermath of First

World War to no longer being the dominant imperial power in the world and to the introduction of universal male suffrage and votes for women over thirty which was extended to those over twenty one in 1928 This volume relates the British fiction of the decade to these contexts in order to reassess and explain trends of the period such as war books fantastic romance literary modernism and new expressions of gender and sexuality A major critical re evaluation of the decade the book covers such writers as Agatha Christie E M Forster Ethel Mannin Somerset Maugham R H Mottram D H Lawrence Wyndham Lewis A A Milne Hope Mirrlees Naomi Mitchison Dorothy Richardson and Virginia Woolf among others illustrating how their key themes and concerns fit within the social and political circumstances of the decade Vital Signs Lawrence Rothfield,1994-12-12 Vital Signs offers both a compelling reinterpretation of the nineteenth century novel and a methodological challenge to literary historians Rejecting theories that equate realism with representation Lawrence Rothfield argues that literary history forms a subset of the history of discourses and their attendant practices He shows how clinical medicine provided Balzac Flaubert Eliot and others with narrative strategies epistemological assumptions and models of professional authority He also traces the linkages between medicine s eventual decline in scientific and social status and realism s displacement by naturalism detective fiction and modernism The New Republic Herbert David Croly,1924 The Survey ,1923 The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low,1926 Volumes for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers
