Geoffrey Lean

Rich World Poor World:

Rich World, Poor World Ali A. Allawi, 2024-04-23 A landmark history of the world economic order exploring how developing countries have fought to escape impoverishment Over the past two decades experiments in neoliberal economics have opened up a chasm of inequality between the Global South and the West Development advice from richer nations has led to social upheaval political unrest environmental degradation and even the creation of a new underclass Brutal extremes of wealth and poverty are now commonplace Ali A Allawi traces the evolution of the world economic order from the late imperial era to the present day Shedding light on continuing controversies Allawi shows how the process of development has been hindered at every turn from poor leadership and lost opportunities to widespread corruption In doing so he argues that the current neoliberal consensus is only the most recent of a series of failed policy imperatives Covering issues in the Global South as well as failures in the West this definitive account offers an impassioned and authoritative call for change Rich World, Poor World Melanie Jarman, 2006-08-01 Debates various topics involving responsibilities to help the poor including Should countries with civil wars still be given aid Will debt relief help the poor and Can celebrity led campaigns make a difference Rich World, Poor World Geoffrey Lean, 2012-08-06 This reissue first published in 1978 confronts a whole range of international development issues hunger energy supply population growth pollution the state of the cities nuclear proliferation Geoffrey Lean explains the interdependent contemporary crises within developing nations and presents the facts behind them alongside the practical solutions new strategies and fresh thinking present in contemporary development thinking Rich World, Poor World Ali A. Allawi, 2024-04-02 A landmark history of the world economic order exploring how developing countries have fought to escape impoverishment Over the past two decades experiments in neoliberal economics have opened up a chasm of inequality between the Global South and the West Development advice from richer nations has led to social upheaval political unrest environmental degradation and even the creation of a new underclass Brutal extremes of wealth and poverty are now commonplace Ali A Allawi traces the evolution of the world economic order from the late imperial era to the present day Shedding light on continuing controversies Allawi shows how the process of development has been hindered at every turn from poor leadership and lost opportunities to widespread corruption In doing so he argues that the current neoliberal consensus is only the most recent of a series of failed policy imperatives Covering issues in the Global South as well as failures in the West this definitive account offers an impassioned and authoritative call for change Rich world, poor world Geoffrey Lean, 1980 Rich World, Poor World Melanie Jarman, 2006 Looking at key social and political issues in the 21st century the What s Your View series considers some of the most important questions facing society today Partner to the Poor Paul Farmer, 2010-04-21 For nearly thirty years anthropologist and physician Paul Farmer has traveled to some of the most impoverished places on earth to bring comfort and the best possible medical care to the poorest of the poor Driven by his stated intent to make human rights substantial Farmer has treated patients and worked to address the root causes of their disease in Haiti Boston Peru Rwanda and elsewhere in the developing world In 1987 with several colleagues he founded Partners In Health to provide a preferential option for the poor in health care Throughout his career Farmer has written eloquently and extensively on these efforts Partner to the Poor collects his writings from 1988 to 2009 on anthropology epidemiology health care for the global poor and international public health policy providing a broad overview of his work It illuminates the depth and impact of Farmer s contributions and demonstrates how over time this unassuming and dedicated doctor has fundamentally changed the way we think about health international aid and social justice A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated to Partners In Health

Contemporary Society Jagannath Swaroop Mathur,2010 Papers presented at various seminars Reordering The World George J Demko,2018-05-15 Using an integrative approach to international relations the second edition of Reordering the World returns the geo to geopolitical analysis of current global issues The contributors focus on key emerging world issues such as spatial data technology IGOs NGOs gender and world politics boundary disputes refugee flows ecological degradation and UN intervention in civil wars They also assess the redefinition of international relations by instantaneous worldwide financial and telecommunication linkages and explore the struggles of new multinational and nongovernmental organizations to define their roles Using current real world examples this group of eminent geographers challenges the reader to rethink international relations and reorder the world political map World Health Organization

Cath Senker,2004 The World Health Organization WHO tackles a range of problems in world health from infectious and preventable diseases in the developing world to heart and lung disease in the developed world as well as the global fight against AIDS This book assesses the impact of a number of WHO campaigns that aim to eradicate diseases and promote good health worldwide The SAGE Encyclopedia of Surveillance, Security, and Privacy Bruce A. Arrigo,2016-06-15 In all levels of social structure from the personal to the political to the economic to the judicial The SAGE Encyclopedia of Surveillance Security and Privacy uncovers and explains how surveillance has come to be an integral part of how our contemporary society operates worldwide

Analyzing the Global Population Crisis Philip Steele,2018-07-15 The world s population has more than doubled in the past fifty years which has strained natural resources increased pollution and harmed many plants and animals This book examines demography around the world covering immigration refugees urbanization poverty trade and access to water and food Controversial issues such as eugenics and abortion are also discussed in terms of their impact on population and birth rates providing readers with various perspectives to critique this complex issue Agriculture, Human Security, and Peace M. Taeb,A. H. Zakri,2008 Covering more than the conventional food only role of agriculture the international contributors to this volume detail how the solution to agricultural problems can lead to general socioeconomic and political development in impoverished countries Geography 360° Ann Bowen,John Pallister,2005 Separate Core and Foundation Books ensure that ALL pupils needs are supported at exactly the right level Identical pagination and coverage of the same topics makes them easy to use Clear objectives for each unit helps pupils understand the purpose of their work A self assessment checklist at the end for pupils to check and follow up their understanding and the 360 review page at the end of each chapter provides a ready made assessment for teachers and a useful review for pupils A skills reference section can be used as a quick reminder and practice for skills such as drawing pictograms bar charts and using atlases Key words are highlighted and explained when first introduced in a unit to aid comprehension Popular topics such as Earthquakes and Volcanoes are included in Book 3 to help maintain pupils interest in Geography and encourage them to continue with the subject at GCSE level

Reimagining Global Health Paul Farmer, Arthur Kleinman, Jim Kim, Matthew Basilico, 2013-09-07 Bringing together the experience perspective and expertise of Paul Farmer Jim Yong Kim and Arthur Kleinman Reimagining Global Health provides an original compelling introduction to the field of global health Drawn from a Harvard course developed by their student Matthew Basilico this work provides an accessible and engaging framework for the study of global health Insisting on an approach that is historically deep and geographically broad the authors underline the importance of a transdisciplinary approach and offer a highly readable distillation of several historical and ethnographic perspectives of contemporary global health problems The case studies presented throughout Reimagining Global Health bring together ethnographic theoretical and historical perspectives into a wholly new and exciting investigation of global health The interdisciplinary approach outlined in this text should prove useful not only in schools of public health nursing and medicine but also in undergraduate and graduate classes in anthropology sociology political economy and history among others

Toward a New Strategy for Development Albert O. Hirschman, Dudley Seers, Paul Streeten, 2014-05-19 Toward a New Strategy for Development A Rothko Chapel Colloquium is a collection of papers commissioned by the Rothko Chapel and presented at a colloquium held in Houston Texas on February 3 5 1977 The colloquium provided a forum for discussing the need for a new strategy for development with emphasis on needs and programs from the perspectives of the developed countries at the center of the world s economic system and of the developing countries at its periphery and from the standpoint of different disciplines Comprised of 10 chapters this book begins with an introduction to Marxism and its congruence with other neoclassical doctrines such as the Chicago School followed by a discussion on development economics as well as the conditions that gave rise to the rapidly growing interest in development The next chapter traces the origins and history of one major body of Latin American ideas on development since the early 1950s the United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America Subsequent chapters explore internal issues of development within countries with emphasis on urban and rural bias as well as factors that influence regional development policy the postwar economic experience of the Third World and the reactions of developed countries to calls for a new international economic order This monograph will be of interest to economists and sociologists

The Liberation of Life

Charles Birch, John B. Cobb, 1985-01-10 This book is about the liberation of the concept of life from the bondage fashioned by the interpreters of life ever since biology began and about the liberation of the life of humans and non humans alike from the bondage of social structures and behaviour which now threatens the fullness of life's possibilities if not survival itself It falls into a tradition of writings about human problems from a perspective informed by biology It rejects the mechanistic model of life dominant in the Western world and develops an alternative ecological model which is applicable to the life of the cell and the life of the human community For the first time it brings together in one work the insights of modern biology with those of a modern holistic philosophy and a liberal theology in a way which challenges conventional approaches to science agriculture sociology politics economics development and liberation movements
