Crocker-Langley San Francisco Directory ,1909 European Friends of the American Revolution Andrew J. O'Shaughnessy, John A. Ragosta, Marie-Jeanne Rossignol, 2023-08-21 Europe's crucial contribution to the achievement of American independence. American independence would not have been achieved without diplomatic, financial, and military support from Europe. And without recognition from powerful European nations, the young country would never have assumed an independent status amongst the powers of the earth. This collection of essays not only offers new glimpses into the ways in which various European powers and actors enabled American patriots to fight and win the war, it also highlights the American Revolution's short and long-term impact on the Atlantic world. Because of the strength of European support, Great Britain found itself diplomatically isolated without an ally in a war that had become a global conflict and with a navy outnumbered by the combined fleets of America's friends. This volume is a timely reminder of the importance of international support for the winning of American independence and the global context of the American Revolution as we approach its 250th anniversary. It focuses on key texts written in Latin, Anglo-Norman, and Middle English that demonstrate the way in which devotion moved from monastic circles to a lay public in the late medieval period. It argues that devotion to the Name is a core element of Richard Rolle's contemplative practice, although devotion to the Name circulated in trilingual England at an earlier stage. The volume

investigates to what extent the 1274 Second Lyon Council had an impact in the spread of the devotion in England and beyond It also offers illuminating evidence about how Margery Kempe and her scribes used devotion how Eleanor Hull made it an essential component of her meditative sequence seven days of the week and how Lady Margaret Beaufort worked towards its instigation as an official feast

Jahresbericht Hilfsverein der Deutschen Juden,1904 Plotinus on What We Think We Are Wiebke-Marie Stock,2024-09-09 The Neoplatonic philosopher Plotinus invites us to take part in his philosophizing when he encourages his readers to think about what they think they are as living beings human beings as rational beings ethical subjects and as philosophers He is interested in what we say about ourselves in ordinary language and notices that such ordinary experience conflicts with what the Platonic tradition claims we truly are This conflict does not lead him to turn away from the human terms and expressions but impels him to take seriously what we say about ourselves and to explain it philosophically
