Silverthorne,2018-10-18 Opening with an account of print portraiture facilitating Franz Liszt's celebrity status and concluding with Riot Grrrl's noisy politics of feminism and performance this interdisciplinary anthology charts the relationship between music and the visual arts from late Romanticism and the birth of modernism to postmodernism while crossing from Western art to the Middle East Focused on music as a central experience of art and life these essays scrutinize the musicalisation of art focusing on the visual and performing arts and detailing significant instances of intra art relations between c 1840 and the present day Essays reflect on the aesthetic relationships of music to painting performance and installation sound and silence time and space The insistent influence of Wagner is considered as well as the work and ideas of Manet Satie and Cage Thomas Wilfred La Monte Young and Eliasson What distinguishes these studies are the convictions that music is never alone and that a full understanding of the isms of the last two hundred years is best achieved when music's influential presence in the visual arts is acknowledged and interrogated

Steinhoff, 2016-07-01 For two centuries Gesamtkunstwerk the ideal of the total work of art has exerted a powerful influence over artistic discourse and practice spurring new forms of collaboration and provoking debates over the political instrumentalization of art Despite its popular conflation with the work of Richard Wagner Gesamtkunstwerk's lineage and legacies extend well beyond German Romanticism as this wide ranging collection demonstrates In eleven compact chapters scholars from a variety of disciplines trace the idea's evolution in German speaking Europe from its foundations in the early nineteenth century to its manifold articulations and reimaginings in the twentieth century and beyond providing an uncommonly broad perspective on a distinctly modern cultural form
