

'A strikingly frank and open-hearted autobiography'
Daily Mail

Richard And Judy The Autobiography:

Richard and Judy Richard Madeley, Judy Finnegan, 2003      Richard & Judy Richard Madeley, Judy Finnegan, 2002

Described as the nation's best loved couple Richard and Judy have been on television together for 18 years. For 13 of those they fronted This Morning, the most popular British daytime programme ever, and their departure gave rise to huge newspaper coverage when they left in 2001. Now back with a Channel 4 show, the couple write the full story of their lives: their childhoods, unsuccessful first marriages, and professional and personal lives together.      Richard and Judy Richard Madeley, Judy Finnegan, 2003-06. TV's golden couple give us fully and frankly both sides of their fascinating and extraordinary life stories.

The Richard & Judy Book Club Reader Dr Helen Cousins, Dr Jenni Ramone, 2013-05-28. In January 2004 daytime television presenters Richard Madeley and Judy Finnegan launched their book club and sparked debate about the way people in Britain, from the general reader to publishers to the literati, thought about books and reading. The Richard & Judy Book Club Reader brings together historians of the book, literature scholars, and specialists in media and cultural studies to examine the effect of the club on reading practices and the publishing and promotion of books. Beginning with an analysis of the book club's history and its ongoing development in relation to other reading groups worldwide, including Oprah's, the editors consider issues of book marketing and genre. Further chapters explore the effects of the mass broadcast celebrity book club on society, literature, and its marketing, and popular culture. Contributors ask how readers discuss books, judge value, and make choices. The collection addresses questions of authorship, authority, and canon in texts connected by theme or genre, including the postcolonial, the exotic, disability, and representations of the body. Food, books, and domesticity. In addition, book club author Andrew Smith shares his experiences in a fascinating interview.

Richard and Judy Richard Madeley, Judy Finnegan, 2002-08-15      The Digested Read John Crace, 2005-12. Literary ombudsman John Crace never met an important book he didn't like to deconstruct. From Salman Rushdie to John Grisham, Crace retells the big books in just 500 biting, satirical words, pointing his pen at the clunky plots, stylistic tics, and pretensions of Big Ideas as he turns publishers' golden dream books into dross.

The Odyssey and The Idiocy, Marriage to an Actor, A Memoir Candace Hilligoss, 2016-10-19

Tony Wilson - You're Entitled to an Opinion But... David Nolan, 2010-08-02. Tony Wilson was the co-founder of Factory Records and The Hacienda; he kick-started the careers of Joy Division, Happy Mondays, and New Order; he put the Sex Pistols on television for the first time and was the inspiration behind the film 24 Hour Party People. From his unique childhood, growing up with a gay father and a domineering mother, to his tragically early death in 2007 after battling the NHS for a drug that could prolong his life, David Nolan investigates the lives and times of the man they called Mr Manchester. Drawing on nearly 50 interviews with musicians, DJs, writers, actors, family, and friends, including Wilson's partner of 17 years, Yvette Livesey, You're Entitled to an Opinion paints a picture of a unique, driven, and chaotic man whose inspiration and influence is still being felt today across the worlds of music and television.

Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia

Watson,1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women s autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women s autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers     The Trauma Question Roger Luckhurst,2013-06-17 In this book Roger Luckhurst both introduces and advances the fields of cultural memory and trauma studies tracing the ways in which ideas of trauma have become a major element in contemporary Western conceptions of the self The Trauma Question outlines the origins of the concept of trauma across psychiatric legal and cultural political sources from the 1860s to the coining of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder in 1980 It further explores the nature and extent of trauma culture from 1980 to the present drawing upon a range of cultural practices from literature memoirs and confessional journalism through to photography and film The study covers a diverse range of cultural works including writers such as Toni Morrison Stephen King and W G Sebald artists Tracey Emin Christian Boltanski and Tracey Moffatt and film makers David Lynch and Atom Egoyan The Trauma Question offers a significant and fascinating step forward for those seeking a greater understanding of the controversial and ever expanding field of trauma research

American Autobiography Paul John Eakin,1991 The first four essays review the major historical periods of American autobiography placing the classic texts of American autobiographical literature from Captain John Smith to Malcolm X in the illuminating context of lesser known contemporary narratives Daniel B Shea writes on colonial America Lawrence Buell on the American Renaissance Susanna Egan on the years after the Civil War and Albert E Stone on the twentieth century The second part of American Autobiography shows the diversity of voices forms audiences and modes of identity in the literature of American autobiography Provocative essays by William Boelhower and Sau Ling Cynthia Wong on immigrant autobiography discuss the changes in the sense of self that occur when strangers come to a strange land Arnold Krupat writes about how American Indians conceptualize the self and about the relationship between oral and written discourse William L Andrews evaluates the strong body of critical theory that has grown up around African American autobiography showing how both the genre and its criticism have responded to contemporary historical pressures Carol Holly explores the model of personal identity that underlies nineteenth century women s autobiographies and Blanche Gelfant examines the narrative and political strategies of Emma Goldman s autobiography especially her use of popular romance and melodrama The last essay offers a more personal perspective on contemporary autobiography a dialogue between Robert and Jane Coles about how they developed their method of eliciting first person oral narratives for their famous Children of Crisis and Women of Crisis series These essays raise theoretical issues that are examined in Paul John Eakin s incisive introduction How do we define a literary genre of protean shape and perplexing cultural multiplicity How do we approach the special problems created by documents that are both historical and literary texts ones that pose difficult questions about truth and representation Most important how is the canon of American autobiography to be constructed and how is its history to be written Tracing that critical history Eakin explains how changing ideas about the mainstream and the marginal have revitalized our retrospective view of American autobiography and opened up new and exciting prospects for today's reader

Embodied Politics in Visual Autobiography Sarah Brophy, Janice Hladki, 2014-11-05 From reality television to film performance and video art autobiography is everywhere in today's image obsessed age With contributions by both artists and scholars Embodied Politics in Visual Autobiography is a unique examination of visual autobiography's involvement in the global cultural politics of health disability and the body This provocative collection looks at images of selfhood and embodiment in a variety of media and with a particular focus on bodily identities and practices that challenge the norm a pregnant man in cyberspace a fat activist performance troupe indigenous artists intervening in museums transnational selves who connect disability to war and many more The chapters in Embodied Politics in Visual Autobiography reflect several different theoretical approaches but share a common concern with the ways in which visual culture can generate resistance critique and creative interventions With contributions that investigate digital media installation art graphic memoir performance film reality television photography and video art the collection offers a wide ranging critical account of what is clearly becoming one of the most important issues in contemporary culture

The Music Room: A Memoir William Fiennes, 2009-08-22 A bittersweet description of an ancient family house in an enchanted setting and of growing up with a damaged brother William Fiennes spent his childhood in a moated castle the perfect environment for a child with a brimming imagination It is a house alive with history beauty and mystery but the young boy growing up in it is equally in awe of his brother Richard Eleven years older and a magnetic presence Richard suffers from severe epilepsy His illness influences the rhythms of the family and the house's internal life and his story inspires a journey interwoven with a loving recollection toward an understanding of the mind This is a song of home of an adored brother and the miracle of consciousness The chill of dark historical places coexists with the warmth and chatter of the family kitchen the surrounding landscapes are distinguished by ancient trees secret haunts the moat's depths and temptations Bursting with tender detail The Music Room is a sensuous tribute to place memory and the permanence of love
