Richard Spencer: Napoleonic War Naval Hero and Australian Pioneer Gwen Chessell, 2005
Richard Spencer G. S. J. Chessell, 2005 Captain Sir Richard Spencer RN was a nineteenth century man of action He was adventurous resourceful devoted to those in his care and had as Gwen Chessell put it a quarterdeck manner He is remembered today as the early Government Resident of the fledgling settlement in Albany on the south coast of Western Australia Albany was a shanty town when the ship bearing Richard and Ann Spencer and their nine children soon to be ten anchored in Princess Royal Harbour in 1833 Their carefully selected goods from window frames glass and roof slates to assorted fruit trees were carried precariously ashore The family all but doubled the town s population Richard Spencer worked diligently to administer the turbulent pioneer settlement living peacefully with the local Aboriginal people and helping guarantee Albany s future as a settlement and port He established Strawberry Hill Farm and built a comfortable home there for his family All this he achieved in middle age The story of his early life in the Royal Navy of Admiral Lord Nelson s day is told here for the first time Zealous intrepid to the point of foolhardiness and a hero to his men Captain Spencer was a rising star during the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Wars BOOK JACKET

Never Again Andrea Gaynor, Peter Newman, Philip Jennings, 2018 The lead up to the 2017 Western Australian state election saw a large and lively protest over the construction of stage 8 of the Roe Highway Roe 8 and the Perth Freight Link Years of opposition to Roe 8 culminated in civil disobedience mass arrests and media theatrics as the bulldozers tore across Aboriginal heritage sites and through much loved bushland and wetland just weeks out from an election the government appeared likely to lose When Labor was swept to power in the biggest landslide victory ever delivered by Western Australian voters the Roe 8 contracts were cancelled However the planning systems that enabled Roe 8 and the Perth Freight Link remain in place and in need of reform This book illuminates what was at stake in the conflict for Perth residents Aboriginal heritage and the environment It traces the history of Roe 8 and the Perth Freight Link to show what needs to be done in order to ensure that Western Australian people and environments never again have such a damaging project thrust upon them It surveys the issues and makes recommendations across transport planning environment health and Aboriginal heritage policy areas It also captures the nature of the diverse and vigorous resistance to the project setting the struggle and its bittersweet victory in a wider context Subject Environmental Studies Australian Studies Aboriginal Studies Charles Darwin in Australia F.
