Richard Wright The Critical Reception The American Critical Tradition 6:

Richard Wright's Native Son Harold Bloom, 2009 Richard Wright is one of the greatest African American writers of the 20th century His masterpiece Native Son is analyzed in this volume of essays Murder, in Fact Lana A. Whited, 2020-11-24 With the 1965 publication of In Cold Blood Truman Capote declared he broke new literary ground But Capote's nonfiction novel belongs to a long Naturalist tradition originating in the work of 19th century French novelist Emile Zola Naturalism offers a particular response to the increasing problem of violence in American life and its sociological implications This book traces the origins of the fact based homicide novel that emerged in the mainstream of American literature with works such as Frank Norris's McTeague and flourished in the twentieth century with works such as Theodore Dreiser's An American Tragedy and Richard Wright's Native Son At their heart is a young man isolated from community who acts out in desperate circumstances against someone who reflects his isolation A tension develops between how society views this killer and the way he is viewed by the novelist The crimes central to these narratives epitomize the vast gap between those who can aspire to the so called American dream and those with no realistic chance of achieving it Richard Wright A. Craven, 2011-07-18 This wide ranging collection of essays contains unexplored themes and theoretical orientations centering on racism and spatial dimensions the transnational and political Wright Wright and masculinity Wright and the American 1950s and 1960s and some of the first analyses of Wright's recently published A Father's Law 2008 Richard Wright Keneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908-1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics New Essays on Native Son Keneth Kinnamon, 1990-05-25 A collection of essays providing original insights into this major American novel by Richard Wright The Contemporary Novel Irving Adelman, Rita Dworkin, 1997-10-09 In this new edition what was already an expansive work has been updated and further enlarged to include information not only on American and British novelists but also on writers in English from around the world The Critical Response to Ralph Ellison Robert Butler, 2000-04-30 Ralph Ellison's literary career began in 1937 with the publication of his review of Waters Edge Turpin's These Low Grounds Over the next 15 years he published 10 short stories and 37 essays on literary cultural and political topics But when Invisible Man was published in 1952 Ellison received immediate acclaim from a wide variety of critics scholars and novelists While his novel emerged as a major work of African American literature it also engaged the European literary tradition and influenced an entire generation of post World War II writers Ellison is now one of the most studied African American writers and the posthumous publication of his second novel Juneteenth in 1999 has drawn even more attention to his contribution Through previously published reviews and essays and original material this book charts the response to Ellison s writings While the bulk of the volume focuses on Invisible Man the book also includes sections devoted to Ellison s short fiction and nonfiction as well as posthumous estimates of his work A chronology highlights the most important events in his life and career while an introductory essay overviews the broad trends in Ellison scholarship The volume concludes with a selected bibliography of primary and secondary works

Student Companion to Richard Wright Robert Felgar,2000-05-30 Born in rural Mississippi the grandson of slaves Richard Wright overcame every social obstacle including poverty racism and limited education to achieve literary recognition as the creator of some of America s most powerful Black literature Written with unprecedented candor Wright s works changed the cultural landscape by challenging old stereotypes and myths about race Wright scholar Robert Felgar has written a critical volume to help students appreciate the literary significance of such groundbreaking works as Native Son and the autobiographical Black Boy This study serves students of both literature and social history as it explores the themes of racism and all types of insitutionalized oppression that Wright exposed in his provocative writing Felgar approaches each of Wright s major works in chronological order offering insightful literary analysis of Uncle Tom s Children Native Son Black Boy and The Outsider as well as Wright s two works published posthumously Eight Men a collection of stories and Lawd Today The original censored works are discussed and compared with the more recently re published unexpurgated versions This Student Companion introduces readers to Richard Wright with a biographical chapter recounting the writer s struggles and achievements A literary heritage chapter examines the genres themes and stylistic traditions that figured in Wright s work Each of Wright s major works of fiction is given careful literary interpretation with analysis of plot character development thematic concerns and a close alternate reading A selective bibliography of critical works and reviews in addition to the listings of Wright s stories essays and full length works will help students derive the most from their study of this important American writer

New Directions in American Reception Study Philip Goldstein,James L. Machor,2008-01-30 Contemporary reception study has developed a diversity of approaches and methods including the institutional textual historical authorial and reader response which to a greater or lesser extent acknowledge the various ways in which readers have found texts literature television shows movies and newspapers meaningful This collection emphasizes that new diversity examining movies newspapers fans television shows and traditional American as well as modern Hispanic Black and Women s literature The essays on literature include James Machor on Melville s short fiction Kenneth Roemer on Edward Bellamy s utopian work Looking Backward Amy Blair on the popularity of Sinclair Lewis's Main Street Marcial Gonzalez on Danny Santiago and his Hispanic novel Famous All Over Town and Leonard Diepeveen on modernist fiction and criticism The theoretical essays on reader oriented criticism include Patsy Schweickart on interpretation and the ethics of care and Jack Bratich on active audiences Media versions of response criticism include Andrea Press and Camille Johnson's ethnographic analysis of fans of the Oprah Winfrey Show Janet Staiger on Robert Aldrich's film version of Mickey Spillane's Kiss Me Deadly and Rhiannon Bury on the fans of the HBO television show Six Feet Under History of the book versions include Barbara Hochman on the popularity of the 1890s editions of Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin Ellen Garvey on nineteenth century scrapbooks of newspaper and David Nord on early twentieth century newspapers relations to audience charges of bias and unfairness Poststructuralist studies include Philip Goldstein on Richard Wright's Native Son Steve Mailloux on Reading Lolita in Tehran and Tony Bennett on the cultural analyses of Pierre Bourdieu The collection concludes with essays by Janice Radway on the limits of these methods and on the possibility of new forms of sociological and anthropological reception study and by Toby Miller on the reception deception in relation to the worldwide distribution and reception of movies and television shows The Mississippi Quarterly, 1989

Werner Sollors Reader Werner Sollors, 2025-01-31 Born in Silesia raised in the Frankfurt area and educated in Berlin Werner Sollors has spent most of his career at Harvard University in the United States and is regarded in Cornel West's words as one of the finest scholars that we have on race and cultural hybridity in both this country and the world This Reader offers the first comprehensive overview of the work of a central figure in the field of ethnic studies The pieces collected here range from Puritan New England to contemporary Germany from Exodus to Mary Antin's Promised Land from the Curse of Ham to Teju Cole They attest to Sollors deep historical sensibilities his attention to textual detail and his awareness of the costs and opportunities of both cosmopolitan ideals and particularist commitments whilst addressing a central question why does modernisation take the form of ethnicisation in many places around the globe The collected essays are complemented by a detailed introduction by Daniel G Williams which foregrounds some of the key emphases and tensions in Sollors writings

Postmodernity and Cross-culturalism Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2002 Whereas the text of modernity thrived on its rhythms symbols and representations of beauty and above all on its impersonality postmodernity in the late decades of the twentieth century sought relationships outside the text those between literature and history philosophy psychology society and culture The exploration of such relationships is literary to postmodernity as it is ancillary to modernity BOOK JACKET The Cambridge Companion to Richard Wright Glenda Carpio, 2019-03-21 Shows Wright's art was intrinsic to his politics grounding his exploration of the intersections between race gender and class Richard Wright in a Post-Racial Imaginary William E. Dow, Alice Mikal Craven, Yoko Nakamura, 2014-07-31 In African American fiction Richard Wright was one of the most significant and influential authors of the twentieth century Richard Wright in a Post Racial Imaginary analyses Wright's work in relation to contemporary racial and social issues bringing voices of established and emergent Wright scholars into dialogue with each other The essays in this volume show how Wright s best work asks central questions about national alienation as well as about international belonging and the trans national gaze Race is here assumed as a superimposed category rather than a biological reality in keeping with recent trends in African American studies Wright s fiction and almost all of his non fiction lift beyond the mainstays of African American culture to explore the potentialities and limits of black trans nationalism Wright s trans native status his perpetual outsidedness mixed with the essential humanness of his activist and literary efforts are at the core of the innovative approaches to his work included here

The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy,2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction

Ain't I an Anthropologist Jennifer L. Freeman Marshall,2023-02-28 Iconic as a novelist and popular cultural figure Zora Neale Hurston remains underappreciated as an anthropologist Is it inevitable that Hurston s literary authority should eclipse her anthropological authority If not what socio cultural and institutional values and processes shape the different ways we read her work Jennifer L Freeman Marshall considers the polar receptions to Hurston s two areas of achievement by examining the critical response to her work across both fields Drawing on a wide range of readings Freeman Marshall explores Hurston s popular appeal as iconography her elevation into the literary canon her concurrent marginalization in anthropology despite her significant contributions and her place within constructions of Black feminist literary traditions Perceptive and original Ain t I an Anthropologist is an overdue reassessment of Zora Neale Hurston s place in American cultural and intellectual life

Beyond Dichotomies Elisabeth Mudimbe-Boyi,2012-02-01 Beyond Dichotomies examines literary texts cultural production and concrete local practices within the context of modernity and globalization by focusing on the ways in which some societies confront the complexity of cultures reflected in new forms of knowledge narratives and subjectivities The contributors explore how particular societies negotiate the relations between the global and the local and use a geographical comparative perspective combined with an interdisciplinary approach to offer a diversity of views and illuminate the cultural impact of globalization on different societies around the world Africa Asia Europe and the Americas These societies face complex questions regarding people s histories identities and cultures that embody the ambivalence contradictions and anxieties generated by the process of globalization The contributors provide a compelling conclusion for a rethinking and reconfiguration of cultures and intercultural relations in today s global world in which dichotomized representations coexist with a discourse of globalization
