Characterisation Minru Zhao, 2023-04-28 Applying Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL to Descriptive Translation Studies DTS to three translations of a classic Chinese text Zhao proposes a new model for linking translator positioning with translational norms in the target culture Zhao combines the Appraisal model from SFL with a characterisation model to describe the role of translator positioning in character construction Looking at three different translations of the classic Chinese novel Luotuo Xiangzi she uses corpus tools to compare the opening and ending chapters of each translation identifying textual patterns of translator positioning She then analyses and compares the cover designs of the translated novels and reconstructs the translational norms governing the translator's positioning in characterisation In doing so she contributes to DTS by developing a systematic and consistent framework to analyse verbal and visual elements in translated novels Her multimodal analysis also provides insights into the broader patterns of translated language An insightful read for scholars interested in both theoretical and empirical approaches to translation studies A Guide to Chinese Literature Wilt

Shea,2016 Bicycles have more cultural identities than many realize functioning not only as literal vehicles in a text but also as vehicles for that text s themes ideas and critiques In the late nineteenth century the bicycle was seen as a way for the wealthy urban elite to reconnect with nature and for women to gain a measure of personal freedom while during World War II it became a utilitarian tool of the French Resistance and in 1970s China stood for wealth and modernization Lately it has functioned variously as the favored ideological steed of environmentalists a means of community bonding and aesthetic self expression in hip hop and the ride of choice for bike messenger idolizing urban hipsters Culture on Two Wheels analyzes the shifting cultural significance of the bicycle by examining its appearances in literary musical and cinematic works spanning three continents and more than 125 years of history Bringing together essays by a variety of cyclists and scholars with myriad angles of approach this collection highlights the bicycle s flexibility as a signifier and analyzes the appearance of bicycles in canonical and well known texts such as Samuel Beckett s modernist novel Molloy the Oscar winning film Breaking Away and various Stephen King novels and stories as well as in lesser known but equally significant texts such as the celebrated

Y. Lowe, 2014-07-14 Based on first hand experience this entrancing narrative of daily life in Peking in the first decades of this century makes vivid the milieu of a fictional family the traditionally minded lower middle class family of Wu The author uses experiences of the Wu family's son from birth to marriage to convey in rich detail a vanished way of life including children's games nursery rhymes and education flowers and foods street entertainers folk amusements and acrobatics religions jokes and poems and a great deal more Originally published in 1983 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation A Selective Guide to Chinese Literature Milena Doleželová-Velingerová, 1988 Cinema, Space, and

Polylocality in a Globalizing China Yingjin Zhang, 2009-10-09 In this milestone work prominent China film scholar Yingjin Zhang proposes polylocality as a new conceptual framework for investigating the shifting spaces of contemporary Chinese cinema in the age of globalization Questioning the national cinema paradigm Zhang calls for comparative studies of underdeveloped areas beyond the imperative of transnationalism The book begins by addressing theories and practices related to space place and polylocality in contemporary China before focusing on the space of scholarship and urging scholars to move beyond the current paradigm and explore transnational and comparative film studies This is followed by a chapter that concentrates on the space of production and surveys the changing landscape of postsocialist filmmaking and the transformation of China's urban generation of directors Next is an examination of the space of polylocality and the cinematic mappings of Beijing and a persistent reel contact with polylocality in hinterland China In the fifth chapter Zhang explores the space of subjectivity in independent film and video and contextualizes experiments by young directors with various documentary styles Chapter 6 calls attention to the space of performance and addresses issues of media and mediation by way of two kinds of playing the first with documentary as troubling information the second with piracy as creative intervention The concluding chapter offers an overview of Chinese cinema in the new century and provides production and reception statistics Combining inspired critical insights original observations and new information Cinema Space and Polylocality in a Globalizing China is a significant work on current Chinese film and a must read for film scholars and anyone seriously interested in cinema more generally or contemporary Chinese culture Other Cities, Other Worlds Andreas Huyssen, 2008-11-11 Collection of essays that examines the effects of globalization on non Western cities
