RIDING FOR THE RIGHT REASON Stanley Scott ,2025-04-04 The wind doesn t care who you are At eighty miles per hour it treats every rider the same trying to push you back reminding you that you re alive vulnerable and free all at once That s why Marcus Hayes rides Not for the image or the noise or even the speed though he loves all three He rides for the clarity For those moments when the world narrows to just him his machine and the road stretching ahead Everything else falls away the pressures of the docks family responsibilities crew politics all of it Just for a while But clarity comes with a price The road doesn t just offer freedom it demands respect It tests you challenges you to know why you re really out there wrapped in leather with nothing but skill and reflexes between you and disaster Marcus knows this better than most For him riding isn t just a hobby or an escape it s a way of life that parallels everything else The same discipline that guides his hands on the throttle guides his decisions at the port with his family and within his crew
