Richard Blanchard,Lois Farrell,2023-07-28 Natures of Colonial Change Jacob A. Tropp,2006-10-01 In this groundbreaking study Jacob A Tropp explores the interconnections between negotiations over the environment and an emerging colonial relationship in a particular South African context the Transkei subsequently the largest of the notorious homelands under apartheid In the late nineteenth century South Africa s Cape Colony completed its incorporation of the area beyond the Kei River known as the Transkei and began transforming the region into a labor reserve It simultaneously restructured popular access to local forests reserving those resources for the benefit of the white settler economy This placed new constraints on local Africans in accessing resources for agriculture livestock management hunting building materials fuel medicine and ritual practices Drawing from a diverse array of oral and written sources Tropp reveals how bargaining over resources between and among colonial officials chiefs and headmen and local African men and women was interwoven with major changes in local political authority gendered economic relations and cultural practices as well as with intense struggles over the very meaning and scope of colonial rule itself Natures of Colonial Change sheds new light on the colonial era in the Transkei by looking at significant yet neglected dimensions of this history how both colonizing and colonized groups negotiated environmental access and how such negotiations helped shape the broader making and meaning of life in the new colonial order Resources in Education ,1997 Urban Dynamics in Black Africa William J.

Hanna,2017-09-29 Urban Dynamics in Black Africa presents a succession of worlds where we can study the development and the crystallization of major social change The authors trace the development of former villages towns and colonial outposts into major cities within the international community Open air markets continue their trading beside modern department stores as individual Africans create contemporary lives from old and new William J and Judith L Hanna in this unique work introduce new data and the methods of dependency theory class and gender analysis they offer connections between Africa s internal dynamics its legacy of imperialism and the international political and economic arena At the same time the book provides a model for studying the evolution of political institutions Urban Dynamics in Black Africa illustrates how social classes modify and are modified by existing cultural forms The book examines Africa in its independence by contrasting development and dependency role adaptability and conflict in a powerful conceptual matrix Detailing the urban conditions that exist throughout Africa as well as their costs and benefits this work shows how contemporary political conflict in urban Africa is based upon both ethnic and non ethnic ties and how these ethnic and non ethnic ties serve as the bases of a system of political integration unique to poly ethnic communities As a synthesis of the relevant available knowledge on African towns and town dwellers this book is concerned primarily with the effects of external intervention and socioeconomic modernization upon the birth and development of Africa s new towns and the rapid expansion of its old ones It considers the impact of migration and town life upon Africans A Survey of Agricultural Economics Literature Lee R. Martin,1977

State and Society in Nigeria Williams, Gavin,2019-04-15 The first edition of State and Society in Nigeria published in 1980 was and remains a dominant influence in teaching research policy and practice of state society relations in Nigeria for more than a generation The volume of essays has remained one of the most cited in the field testimony to its enduring content and perspective as well as the beauty accessibility and clarity of its language This new edition revisits extends and reconsiders aspects of the first edition in light of developments in the literature since 1980 and offers new insights and interpretations on issues of political economy politics and sociology such as the country s Civil War 1967 1970 the political economy of oil debt and democratization and the complexities and ethnic identities and rivalries and religious accommodation and conflict and of the multiple ways in which they intersect with one another Knowledge Sovereignty Among African Cattle Herders Zeremariam Fre,2018-06-20 Beni Amer cattle owners in the western part of the Horn of Africa are not only masters in cattle breeding they are also knowledge sovereign in terms of owning productive genes of cattle and the cognitive knowledge base crucial to sustainable development The strong bonds between the Beni Amer their animals and their environment constitute the basis of their ways of knowing and much of their knowledge system is built on experience and embedded in their cultural practices In this book the first to study Beni Amer practices Zeremariam Fre argues for the importance of their knowledge challenging the preconceptions that regard it as untrustworthy when compared to scientific knowledge from more developed regions Empirical evidence suggests that there is much one could learn from the other since elements of pastoralist technology such as those related to animal production and husbandry make a direct contribution to our knowledge of livestock production It is this potential for hybridisation as well as the resilience of the herders at the core of the indigenous knowledge system Fre also argues that indigenous knowledge can be viewed as a stand alone science and that a community s rights over ownership should be defended by government officials development planners and policy makers making the case for a celebration of the knowledge sovereignty of pastoralist communities Praise for Knowledge Sovereignty Among African Cattle Herders This book greatly contributes to the limited literature on theoretical discourses and practices on indigenous knowledge of livestock herding communities in the Horn of Africa It discusses knowledge heritage and sovereignty through the presentation of valid empirical evidence and its subsequent relevance in nurturing sustainability of knowledge systems to enhance lives of pastoralists in Africa and beyond Samuel Tefera PhD Assistant Professor and Asian Desk Coordinator at the Centre for African and Oriental Studies Associate Dean for Research and Technology Transfer College of Social Sciences Addis Ababa University The author has worked with our Beni Amer pastoral communities in Eastern Sudan and Western Eritrea for over 30 years and this book is the first of its kind in documenting our practices knowledge systems heritage and way of life Mustafa Faid and Mohamed Ali Leaders of the of the Pastoral and Environmental Association Kassala State PEAKS A riveting and rare book Zeremariam Fre guides you along the sandy dusty tracks and grassy pastures that the Beni Amer and their herds have been softly tracing over time all through the Horn of Africa One of the virtues of the book is that it illustrates vividly and in clear language how their continuous self built endogenous knowledge on agro pastoral life is not only at the core of their survival and the survival of their herds but more importantly a powerful weapon in facing and resisting multiple aggressions Ground breaking and a huge achievement Yves Cabannes Emeritus Professor of Development Planning The Bartlett Development Planning Unit UCL The book underlines the importance of enriching and utilizing the unrecognized yet valuable scientific knowledge and practices that are deeply rooted in pastoral traditional expertise about their own environment and breeding practices It is an important publication that reflects Dr Fre s expertise and long term research in the region and thus it is a significant addition to the African library Hala Alkarib Director of the Strategic Initiative for Women in the Horn of Africa SIHA This fascinating book not only gives a unique insight into the knowledge and practice of pastoralists in the Horn of Africa from the author s first hand experience it also provides an incisive critique of the multiple dimensions of knowledge paying tribute to the sovereignty of indigenous knowledge It has a timely relevance for global sustainability that will appeal to a wider readership Nicole Kenton International Development Consultant former long serving senior staff member of the International Institute for Environment and Development IIED The book covers several intertwined issues relevant to contemporary development policy and practice It goes beyond the rural urban and peasant nomadic livelihoods dichotomy by shedding more light on the inter linkages within the multiple livelihood systems within the Horn of Africa and globally A rich evidence based resource for academics development partners and social movements for promoting and designing state policies that embrace pastoralist aspirations Bereket Tsegay MA PhD candidate Pastoral and Environmental Network in the Horn of Africa PENHA Dr Zeremariam Fre has done a wonderful job of placing at the centre of this book the Beni Amer pastoralists the world they inhabit and the knowledge they use to navigate and thrive in it The lessons contained in this book go beyond pastoralism it is a must read for anyone serious about understanding the importance of located knowledge in the innovation and development process Yusuf Dirie PENHA Research Fellow and PhD researcher at the University of Sussex

The Microfinance Mirage Esayas Bekele Geleta, 2016-03-09 Microfinance has long been considered a development strategy that can correct the failure of the global credit market and address the financial needs of the poor enabling them to create and run profitable business enterprises The Microfinance Mirage argues that this neo liberal oriented analysis overemphasises the economic argument whilst ignoring the cultural roots of inequality and subordination Drawing on ethnographic research conducted among rural credit clients in the Northern region of Ethiopia Esayas Bekele Geleta provides a nuanced critical analysis of microfinance challenging the common assumption that it facilitates the building of social capital poverty reduction and the empowerment of women Making a unique contribution to our further understanding of the microfinance industry the research shows that in some cases microfinance can result in the disintegration of pre existing relationships and in the disruption and destruction of the livelihoods of the poor Exploring the impact of microfinance in one of the poorest regions of sub Saharan Africa this book demonstrates its potential and problems and shows the complex and contradictory social and cultural environments in which projects are often located
