Lovelace,2019-10-01 Clever Maids Fearless Jacks and a Cat showcases the stories of two Newfoundland storytellers Philip Pius Power and Alice Lannon. In commentary following the stories Anita Best Martin Lovelace and Pauline Greenhill discuss the transmission of fairy tales in oral tradition, address the relation of these magic tales to Lannon's and Power's other stories and share specifics about Newfoundland storytelling and the two tellers themselves. The text is further enriched by expressive illustrations from artist Graham Blair. Clever Maids Fearless Jacks and a Cat presents the fairy tale oeuvres of two superb storytellers as a contribution to interdisciplinary fairy tale studies and folklore, countering fairy tale studies focus on written traditions and printed texts as well as to gender studies, cultural studies, Newfoundland studies and Canadian studies. Folklife along the Big South Fork of the Cumberland River Benita J. Howell, 2025-12-08. Folklife along the Big South Fork of the Cumberland River records the history, lore and lifeways of people who once occupied the land that became the Big South Fork National River and Recreation Area. The National Park Service sponsored the research in 1979 just as former residents were being displaced from their homes. Through oral history interviews and historical records, ethnographic study, old-time traditions, this book recounts what life was like in the Big South Fork during the first half of the twentieth century when the region's agrarian economy was transformed by the timber and coal industries. Howell has added a new introduction and postscript.
